Meeting In Central Point District Gardeners To Hold

The program for the spring district meeting of garden clubs in the Siskiyou district, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, has been announced by Mrs. Ernest W. Jermark, Ashland, district chairman. The meeting will be held Thursday, May 1, in Central Point Grange hall with Central Point Garden club as the hostess group.

Mrs. Jermark states that a coffee hour is set for 9 a. m. and program sessions are to begin at 10 a. m.

President's reports and a panel report of the regional and national conventions will be given by Mrs. L. W. Franks, Redmond, president-elect of the federation and Miss Claire Hanley, Jacksonville, vice-president, during the morning.

Dan McGregor, Grants Pass, will talk on chrysanthemums and roses.

During the afternoon Mrs. George Eisenhauer, Portland, state president, will speak and Mrs. E. B. Hanley of Seattle and Medford will talk on "Spring-time in the Gardens of Europe," illustrating her talk with colored slides.

Mrs. Howard Bush of Medford will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Lester Winslow. Another vocalist on the program will be Harvey Field, accompanied by Mrs. Field.

Flower arrangements and other exhibits will be displayed.

Delicious orange-rich Real Gold beverage pleases everyone! It contains the concentrated juice of 6 to 8 California juice oranges.

Medford Branch Of Mothers' Club Organized Friday

A Medford branch of the Southern Oregon College Mothers' club was formed at a meeting held last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jerry Smith, 1033 Reddy avenue. Mrs. Smith is president of SOC Mothers' club.

The new Medford branch of the club will include mothers of students living in Central Point, Phoenix, Jacksonville, Shady Cove and other outlying districts as well as Medford.

Attending the meeting Friday were Mrs. Dale Franklin, secretary and treasurer of the SOC club, Mrs. Edward Leach, Mrs. Rollin R. Jones, Mrs. C. W. Ashpole, Mrs. A. F. Wickstrom, Mrs. C. A. Stothers and Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Wickstrom's daughter, Miss Carol Wickstrom, is secretary of Associated Women Students at Southern Oregon college and is helping to plan the annual Mothers' Week-end program for Saturday, May 10.

At that time mothers of SOC mothers throughout the state will assemble on the campus and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Franklin are looking forward to an enthusiastic meeting of the mothers' club. On the agenda will be discussion of suitable mementos to be placed in the hall by the club, and discussion of policies for giving of scholarships to deserving students, Mrs. Smith states.

The Medford branch of the club made first plans for an October luncheon meeting and women from near-by towns with sons and daughters at the school will be invited to attend. Mrs. Stothers was named chairman to make plans for the early fall event.
