

WE LOVE LEFTY—Friends of Lefty O'Doul, former Seals manager, turn out in force at Seals Stadium in San Francisco to greet him on his first appearance here as manager for the San Diego Padres. But Lefty didn't come back to the old home town to triumph. He was tossed out of the game in the fifth inning and the Seals walloped his Padres, 6-2.

Rogue River

Rogue River—Col. Ted Hopkins, prominent realtor and a veteran of World War I, was stricken with a heart attack Monday morning. He was rushed to Josephine General hospital and placed in an oxygen tent, it is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hess and daughter, Mary Ellen, returned to Trailerland, the first of the week and have redecorated their home. Hess is a licensed river guide and will be guiding again as usual. The Hess family spent the winter in Vallejo.

Mrs. William Trotter returned Sunday from a visit with her sister in California. Mrs. Susan A. Thorup who spent the past three months in California returned last Friday. Mrs. C. K. McCullough, who suffered a broken leg about three months ago, underwent an operation at the Community hospital in Medford last Thursday and is reported to be improving.

Dr. Ebright's address will be 2424 South Fremont avenue, Alhambra.

Lawson Wins MJRC Crown

Kenneth Lawson won the Medford Junior Rifle club's annual club championship Monday night with a score of 197. The victory also gave Lawson the National Rifle Association's club championship. Twenty-three members of the club took part in championship contention.

Course of fire for the championship event was 20 shots from prone position with iron sights. Tom Winters took second place in the match with a score of 194. He was followed by Richard Leibbrand, 188; Margaret Taylor, 188, and Daryl Gideon, 185. The club will hold its annual party for members and their parents Monday, May 5, at the Merrick building.

PCL Teams Set Series Openers

San Francisco—(UP)—The San Diego Padres, surprise team of the 1952 Pacific Coast league pennant race, draw the big attendance plum this week as the San Francisco Seals open a seven game series in Lane field. The Padres, managed by Lefty O'Doul, for 17 years boss of the Seals, go on the field Tuesday night in first place against a San Francisco club battling to

St. Louis Browns Loan Two Players To Japanese Team

Chicago—(UP)—Two St. Louis Browns farm players were on their way to Japan Tuesday, where they will play on loan with the Hankyu Braves of the Japanese Pacific League.

Brownie President Bill Vecek, who announced the transfer, said it was the first time in baseball history that American athletes have been loaned to a club outside the continental United States and Canada.

The players, both Negroes, are John Britton and James Newberry. They flew to Honolulu where they will continue to Japan. They are expected to arrive there Wednesday night.

Zion Lutheran Pastor Leaves for New Post

Dr. O. W. Ebright, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church here for more than two years, left yesterday for his new position as executive director of the California Lutheran Home for the Aged in Alhambra, Calif.

Dr. and Mrs. Ebright were surprise guests of honor at a potluck dinner held after church Sunday, and were presented with going-away gifts by the congregation. More than 199 members attended the event.

The couple planned to visit various cities on the coast en maintain a 50-50 average in the won and loss records. This series, with its natural rivalry, probably will be the biggest attendance booster for the PCL this week. In other games Portland visits Oakland, Hollywood goes to Sacramento and Seattle to Los Angeles.
