New Theta Rho Chapter Planned in Central Point

Central Point—Beta Chi chapter No. 70 of Theta Rho will be instituted in Central Point Saturday, May 3. Theta Rho is an organization for girls sponsored by the Rebekah lodge, and Mt. Pitt Rebekah lodge will sponsor the new chapter.

Members of Theta Rho from Klamath Falls will conduct initiation and institute the Central Point club under the direction of Mrs. Fred Hermann, chairman of Theta Rho board of control for Oregon.

Also invited to attend are members of the Grants Pass and Ashland clubs.

Mrs. John Rock is to be advisor of the new group and Mrs. Forest Thomsson, assistant advisor. Mrs. Ernest Lowry, Mrs. Delbert Mongold and Mrs. Roy Burkheart will serve as assistants.

A business meeting for all candidates is set for 4 p. m. in the Central Point IOOF hall. A potluck dinner will be served at 5:30 p. m. by Rebekahs for the candidates and guest clubs.

Initiation will be held at 7:30 p. m. in the Central Point Junior High school gymnasium. All Theta Rho girls and Rebekahs are invited to attend.

Institution of the new chapter will be held at 8:30 p. m. and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Members of Mt. Pitt Rebekah lodge are reminded to furnish a hot dish for the potluck dinner.

The Grange

Live Oak Grange
Regular meeting of Live Oak Grange was held April 24 with Master Henry Fjoelker presiding.

Frank Marshall reported on agriculture, Carl Christenson on poultry and eggs.

On the display table were shown three pair of beautifully embroidered pillow slips.

Catherine Christenson had charge of the lecture program, which included a march and a paper on the Grange from its beginning in 1867 to the present time. Juanita Scott, Stella and Howard Miller put on a very enjoyable skit.

The lovely lilac and iris decorations were given by LaVeta Knutson.

The public is cordially invited to the Mother's Day program to be given May 8 at Grange hall at 8 p. m. There will be some good singing.

Shady Cove Grange
Shady Cove Grange will hold a card party at Reese Creek school house Saturday evening, May 3. Grangers and their friends are invited.

H. E. C. will meet Tuesday.
