

Talent Crushes Redskins 31 to 1 To Gain County B League Diadem

Talent clinched the Jackson County B high school league baseball championship Thursday by mercifully pulverizing Jacksonville 31 to 1 at Talent.

The Bulldogs by the victory wound up undefeated in league action.

Second-place Prospect, which was in the running for the crown prior to yesterday suffered its second setback. Phoenix tripped the Cougars 8 to 3 at Phoenix. In another scuffle St. Mary's nipped Rogue River 6 to 5 at Medford.

fifth for two runs Yarnell walked, Ron Bean tripled in Yarnell and Garner singled home Bean.

Winning Run

The final two scores in the sixth on singles by Jim Perry, Waldron and Bean, Hite's line out and three walks.

St. Mary's scored its winning run in the sixth inning. Pat Dugan walked, swiped second, took third on an overthrow at second and romped in on Melvin Amaro's hit.

Pitcher Jim Kelly of St.

Mary's fanned 13 and walked two. Don Lehrmann tripled for Rogue River.

McDonald To Battle Hall On Y Card

Hugh Jennings, YMCA boxing coach, today announced that Junior McDonald, Medford lightweight, will battle Doyle Hall, Roseburg knockout artist, in the feature attraction of the election night fistic card scheduled for Friday, May 16, at 8:15 p.m. at the YMCA gym.

"This match is one of those fistic 'naturals' that fight fans will walk a country mile to see," Jennings declared.

In Hall, McDonald fights one of the outstanding fighters that Roseburg has produced. His record shows numerous kayos and he flattened each of his last four opponents in the first round.

Hall is an "action" fighter, punching steadily from gong to gong, while McDonald is a smooth-moving boxer with a sleeping potion in his right fist. He was awarded the "Shorty Miles Best Boxer" trophy on the last fight card held here in Medford.

In the semi-windup, Jerry Jennings, Medford middleweight is signed to go against Perc Pendergast, Roseburg 160-pounder, who holds an impressive winning record including a Golden Gloves championship.

According to those who have seen these boys in action, either one of these two bouts will be worth the price of admission.

Ten topnotch supporting bouts have been arranged, with battles between Con Mann, Medford, versus Roy Marshall, Roseburg; and Bert Hartley, Medford, against Frank Finnell, Roseburg, billed as "feature preliminaries."

A special event will bring together in the ring two "mystery fighters" in the heavyweight division. At this time, all that is known about these two fighters is that one is a very prominent Republican and the other an equally well-known Democrat. Frank Van Dyke, Medford attorney, is the manager and trainer of the Republican fighter.

Press and radio will have bits of information which may help fans identify these men. Ringside tickets will be awarded to the first man, woman or child in Jackson county who writes a letter to the YMCA correctly identifying either "mystery fighter."

Another point of interest on the May 16 boxing show will be the election return arrangements which have been made for complete and instantaneous coverage of the voting, precinct by precinct, through the facilities of radio station KYJC and the Medford Mail Tribune.

Senator Pitcher Guards Margaret

Washington — (U.P.)— Secret Service agents were on hand as usual Thursday night when Mrs. Truman and daughter Margaret attended the Washington-Cleveland baseball game at Griffith Stadium.

Pitcher Connie Marrero, of the Senators, also was on guard duty. He was assigned to protect the Trumans from foul balls.

Softballers Now Headed By Dempster

Marc Dempster was elected last night as president of the revived Medford Softball association.

Dempster is manager for M. M. Huggins, Mobilgas distributor here. He succeeds Ray Lewis, who headed the circuit when it operated several years ago and who has been chairman of the first meetings to reorganize the league.

Other new officers are Fred Sears, vice president, and Bob Iven, secretary-treasurer.

A third league meeting is set for Thursday, May 8, at 8 p.m. at the YMCA.

So far nine teams have been lined up for association participation this season. They are National Guard, Trowbridge and Flynn, Crater Lions, Eagle Point, YMCA, Mobilgas, Central Point, Timber Products and Camp White. Camp White is in need of a softball manager, it was reported. Anyone who is interested or who knows of someone for the post is asked to contact Marvin Kahn at the camp.

Starting date of league play and scheduling probably will be discussed at the next meeting. June 13 is the earliest date probably that the lighted high school stadium can be used. There has been some talk of early twilight play of league contests.

Linfield Beats Oregon Nine 6-5

McMinnville, Ore. — (U.P.)— Coach Roy Helsler's Linfield Wildcats scored two runs in the last of the ninth inning here Thursday night to edge the University of Oregon, 6 to 5, in a non-conference baseball game.

San Diego Team Takes Bowling Tourney Lead

Milwaukee — (U.P.)— McDaniel Sporting Goods of San Diego, Calif., moved into fourth place in the team division of the American Bowling Congress tournament with a score of 3,030.

Gary Ford paced the San Diego team with a strike-studded 681 series.

The squad ran up the tally with games of 978, 1,094 and 958. The second game score of 1,094 was the second highest team game of this year's tournament.

Gregg Hurls No-Hit, No-Run Win for Oaks Over Bevos

San Francisco — (U.P.)— When a baseball team gets sterling pitching and power-packed hitting, there's not much the opposition can do but lie down and lose. And that's what happened last night at Oakland, where the reviving Acomas staged sensational displays of both.

The ground hero was 30-year-old Hal Gregg, a lame-armed right-hander who stayed out of baseball last season to rest his ailing wing. Gregg worked the seven-inning opener against Portland, beating the Bevos, 3-0, on a no-hit, no-run performance.

The boy with bat was Tookie Gilbert, a chattel of the New York Giants, batting in all Oakland's runs in the 5-2 second-inning triumph.

Gregg's masterpiece was his third victory of the year. One Portland batter got as far as second base — in the last inning—while he struck out five and walked four. Two of the passes came in the seventh. The ex-major league pitcher, who toiled for Brooklyn against the New York Yanks in the 1947 World Series, had sufficient batting support from Sam Chapman's homer and Eddie Lake's two-run double.

Gilbert's homer in the second inning tied the score; his triple in the sixth moved Oakland ahead, 2-1, and his homer in the eighth, seasonal four-master number five, brought home two mates before him to assure Oakland of the twin bill sweep.

Other interesting results found Seattle again whipping Los Angeles 3-2, before 7,721 fans; Sacramento eliminating Hollywood 11-6, and San Diego's Jack Salveson winning PCL victory number 197 as the Pads downed San Francisco, 4-2.
