

PROPOSED DUNSMUIR HIGHWAY—Shown above is a map of the proposed 4½-mile section of freeway to be constructed in Big Canyon north of Dunsmuir this year and next. The million-dollar project is to be completed some time late in 1953, engineers say, and will provide freeway travel through the canyon, which in the past has been a major highway bottleneck.

Agenda May Force Methodist Meeting To Extend Closure

San Francisco —(U.P.)—Methodist delegates to their church's quadrennial general conference—virtually buried by an avalanche of some 1,600 reports—may be forced to extend their meeting beyond the scheduled Wednesday closing date, officials said Monday.

Committees studied many of the resolutions, submitted by various church groups, during the weekend. Some were scheduled in first order of business Monday when delegates renew debate on proposals to streamline Methodist organizations.

Other recommendations will be considered Tuesday and Wednesday by the 720 lawmakers for 10,000,000 Methodists. Some leaders said the session might be extended to give time for full discussion of the reports.

Still to be acted upon are questions involving smoking and drinking restrictions upon ministers and disposition of the Methodist federation for social action, a non-official affiliate which has been accused of "leftist" tendencies.

Actress Shocked Because Of Lack of Appreciation By French Over Nude Role

Cannes, France —(U.P.)—Swedish actress Ulla Jakobsson was shocked and tearful Saturday because Frenchmen don't like her in the nude.

"Why are Frenchmen so surprised," she asked in bewilderment after the furore raised by the showing of her first movie, "One Summer of Happiness," in which she appears unclothed.

Not Thought Extraordinary

The 19-year-old actress said she was dumbfounded by the whole thing. She plays one entire sequence in the nude—in the arms of an equally uninhibited lover—and said "nobody thought the scene was extraordinary" when the film appeared in Stockholm.

Ulla, a natural blonde who wears practically no makeup, has become the undisputed queen of the 1952 film festival since the picture was shown. But she is hurt by criticism.

She broke down and wept

when the storm broke.

She Was Embarrassed

"Oh, I was so embarrassed by all the attention they gave me," she said.

Ulla said she had read in a French newspaper that Swedish youths and girls bathe together in the raw all the time.

"That's not true. In the bathhouses there are different sides for men and women," she said.

"But... if it should happen that a group of young folk find themselves by a deserted lake or seashore on a hot summer's day, that might be a different matter. And no one would be shocked."

"Isn't it the same other places?"

Grandmother abandons Ride Aboard Horse on Anti-Commie Mission

Washington —(U.P.)—A spry grandmother apologized Monday for failing to ride her horse into the city on an anti-Communist mission to the Voice of America.

Mrs. Pauline Buffalari, who brought 13 letters to be read over the VOA to Josef Stalin, said she completed the last 11 miles of her 230-mile, 18-day ride from Norfolk, Va., in an automobile because "Sunday traffic got too bad for trotting."

"Bing," her pinto pony, rode the last leg of the trip in a van.

Dunsmuir Highway Freeway Planned

Sacramento—Construction of a 4½-mile section of freeway, most of it four lanes wide, will begin soon in Big Canyon just north of Dunsmuir, has been reported by the California Division of Highways.

Low bid on the project, for $1,048,738.50, was submitted yesterday by A. Teichert and Sons, Sacramento.

All but three-quarters of a mile of the new section will be four-lane divided highway. The smaller section will be two-lane freeway, with eight-foot shoulders. Engineers said the project will be completed late in 1953.

Location of the new highway generally follows the line of the present route, although all sharp curves and grades will be reduced or eliminated.

Present traffic counts on the highway already exceed 5,000 cars per day, and engineers have predicted a figure of 13,000 by 1970. The blind curves and grades have given the stretch of road an accident rate well above the state average.

Southwest Medford Club

The members of the Southwest Medford Livestock and Poultry 4-H club met recently at the residence of the leader, Mrs. A. A. Smith, Columbus avenue. A safety report was given by Douglas Cameron. Colored slides were shown of a hen in laying an egg, and the best methods used in feeding and caring for poultry. This film was presented by Mr. A. Harris of Faber's Farmers supply.

Junior Chamber Picks Officers at Klamath

Klamath Falls, Ore. —(U.P.)—Larry Moore, Salem, Saturday was elected new president of the Oregon Junior Chamber of Commerce at its 1952 convention here. Moore succeeds John Luzas, Eugene.

Other officers elected were: Don Reitzer, Salem, secretary-treasurer; Don Churchward, Portland, national director, and Ralph Cobb, second national director.

District vice-presidents named were: Lou Immer, Oregon City, district one; Wendell Granso, Lebanon, district two; Bill Hagelstein, Klamath Falls, district three; Al Gray, Bend, district four; and Mike Zimmerman, Pendleton, district five.

Rape Suspect Wears Scarf, Seven Skirts

New York —(U.P.)—A 34-year-old drug packer, charged with attempted rape, was wearing a bandana head scarf and seven skirts when police arrested him Sunday.

Harold Sheehy said he found that by shedding a skirt it was easy for him to avoid identification after an attack. He was also charged with masquerading in women's clothing, a misdemeanor.

Lily Pons' Lungs To Be Viewed in X-Ray

Birmingham, Ala. —(U.P.)—Opera singer Lily Pons told X-ray technicians "you will see the most wonderful lungs you have ever seen before" when she had her chest examined here Monday.

The tiny coloratura soprano accepted an invitation to be the first person X-rayed by a new mobile unit. She is here to sing "Lucia di Lammermoor" with the touring Metropolitan Opera company.

There is no place in England more than 18 miles from a railway line.

Dog Trips Murderer, Man Makes Confession

Buenos Aires —(U.P.)—Authorities said Monday they were able to obtain a confession from a murderer only because his victim's dog "recognized" him in police lineups.

Police said Ismael Romero, 24, who had denied killing Demetrio Suarez, finally admitted the slaying after the farmer's dog sprang at him with bared fangs in two lineups, ignoring the other suspects.
