Crescent City Quint Leads Team Bowling

Gordon Johnson's Men's store, Crescent City, Calif., took over first place in the Southern Oregon Handicap tourney team activity during the week-end at Medford Bowling lanes.

William Curtis and John Cufner, Ashland, now rank first in doubles.

The Johnson team rolled a 3014 to replace White City Lumber with its 3001. Oil City, Medford, is third with 2990. Other leaders are Crescent City Lions club 2910, Walker Real Estate, Medford, 2886 and West Coast Telephone company, Crescent City, 2849.

Score 1269

Curtis and Cufner tabulated a 1269. Behind them are George Barry and Ted Suter, Crescent City, 1245; Harry Goode and Nelson Florey, Medford, 1224; Harold Vessey and James Morgan, Medford, 1219; Al Sacchi and Ralph Doty, Medford, 1216; Wilbur Fehl and John Henderson, Medford, 1215; Frank Couch and Harvey Martin, Medford, 1211; Les McClure and Maris Ward, Crescent City, 1204; and John Wilson and Ernest Shircliff, Myrtle Creek, 1202.

Florey Heads

Florey stayed in front in all events with his 1914. McClure, Crescent City, is now third with 1864 and Walter Schindhelm, Crescent City, eighth with 1821.

The meet will close next week-end with teams from Roseburg, Grants Pass and Medford competing on Saturday with doubles and singles on Sunday.

In a match during the week-end a Medford team of Vera Cummings, Vic Corby, Virginia Johnson, Violet Florey and Norma Burroughs beat a Crescent City team in three games.

Medford Men Win

Phil Rizzuto Sparks Yanks To Victories

By United Press

Jockey-sized Phil Rizzuto, who looks like he could sit in for Eddie Arcaro any time his pal is too busy to ride the Kentucky Derby winner, was making the Yankees look like world champs again.

The 33-year-old shortstop, who was supposed to be slowing up, is whizzing along like the yeastiest youngster in the majors. With Flipin' Phin as the mainspring in most them, the Yankees are making double plays at a fantastic clip—30 so far or twice as many as any other team in the majors.

But that's only part of the story. Sunday, as the Yankees clipped the White Sox, 8 to 0 and 3 to 1, Rizzuto got a triple and single in the first game, a triple and double in the second game, boosting his average to .324.

Double Plays

The Yankees made five double plays for the day and Rizzuto figured in four. In the first inning of the opener after being trapped off third base, he lured catcher Phil Masi into a footrace. The Chicago catcher tried to beat Phil back to third and looked foolish as he finished a poor second. While that was going on, Irv Noren, who could have been thrown out at first base on a ground ball, had but footed it all the way to second.

It was the start of a four-run rally which blew the game wide open.

Youngsters Tom Morgan and Bill Miller pitched strong-armed games to give the Yankees twin win. Morgan yielded hits before going out in the opener with a torn finger-nail in the seventh. Miller, a smooth-tongued lefty, pitched a seven-hitter in the second game.

Ex-Yanks Aid

In other American league games, the Senators got great help from Archie Wilson and Jackie Jensen, the two players who came from the Yankees as they tripped the Browns, 2 to 1 and 15 to 7; the Indians came from behind to down the Red Sox, 9 to 6; and the Athletics topped the Tigers, 10 to 6 and 6 to 5.

The Giants kept up their all-victorious pace on a Western trip by outlasting the Cubs, 6 to 3; the Reds cashed in on fine relief pitching by Frank Smith in both games to defeat the Phils, 5 to 4 and 8 to 7; the Dodgers beat the Pirates, 6 to 0; and the Cards won from the Braves, 4 to 3, then lost 5 to 1, in National league games.

WOOD VICTOR

Jack Wood defeated Bob Sherwood 1 up for the men's spring golf handicap first flight honors at Rogue Valley Country club. Miles Doran's win over Phil Getchell for the championship was previously announced.

WATER SKIING AT EMIGRANT LAKE—Water skiing is a favorite pastime of two Medfordites, Bill Wall and Lon Skinner. On recent Sunday the two men have attracted large crowds with their thrilling sport at Emigrant lake. Skinner is shown here at the helm of his fast boat towing a pair of slat enthusiasts. The boat travels about 25 miles per hour but skiers by maneuvering can attain speeds up to 45 miles per hour. Later on, Skinner and Wall will shift their activities to Lake O' Woods. —(Arnel Butler photo)

ONE-SKI SAILOR—Bill Wall, Medford, is shown here in a crouch as he skims along on a single or "clalom" ski. The "slat" is five feet long and six inches wide. The ex-Medford high athlete placed fifth last year in Pacific coast water ski championship competition at Everett, Wash. Wall and Lon Skinner, also of Medford, took up the sport several years ago and the center of their activity has been Lake O' Woods. —(Arnel Butler photo)

District Track Meets Scheduled Saturday at Klamath, Medford

Coach Bob Newland high track squad, victor during the week-end over Klamath Falls, now focuses its attention on the district meet next Saturday.

The Black Tornado will have to do well in the district hassle if it is to successfully defend its state championship and garner its fifth straight Oregon crown. Only first and second place winners in the district meet, which will be at Klamath Falls this year, get to make the jump to the state tests at Corvallis.

It's too early right now to know just how fit the Medford crew will be for the tangle next Saturday. Newland's gang was decidedly crippled for its dual fray with the Pels over the weekend just past, but won 714 to 5014.

Don Spinas, hurdler and quarter-miler is troubled by impacted wisdom teeth and complications; his brother, Ron, hurdler and high jumper last week while high jumping suffered a spike wound that required five stitches. Dennis Davis, sprinter and quarter-miler, has a pulled muscle; Dave Newland, pole vaulter, had the flu last week.

Other entries in the District No. 3 A school mix will be Klamath Falls, Grants Pass and Ashland with full teams, Crater with a sizeable entry and possibly Illinois Valley and Eagle Point with a few entries. Medford won the district meet last year.

While the A schools collide at Klamath Falls, B schools of
