Major Assigned To Overseas Duty

Applegate—Major Lorna Kubli, formerly of the Applegate region and now serving with the Women's Air force, was recently assigned to European duty according to information received by her father, Chester Kubli, Provolt. In recent months Major Kubli has been director of personnel and administration for an air technical intelligence at Wright-Patterson Air force base, Dayton, O.

Major Kubli was recently the subject of a feature article written for the Portland Journal by Louise Aaron, staff writer. Miss Aaron quoted Major Kubli as saying that a career in the women's branches of the armed forces not only provides a means of serving one's country, but provides security for the individual.

The WAF officer will round out 10 years of service in July. She was first commissioned in the old WAAC in September, 1942, and later transferred to the Women's Army corps when the auxiliary was changed to the newer branch. She then transferred to the WAF in 1947.

For a time Major Kubli served in Portland as personnel officer at the air base, leaving there late in 1950.

On The Side

By E. V. Durling

Love in her eyes sits playing,
And sheds delicious death,
Love on her lips is straying,
And warbling in her breath,
Love in her breast sits panting
And swells with soft desire,
No grace or charm is wanting
To set the heart afire.
—John Gay.

There is much room for improvement in the design of auto license plates. The most attractive design in my opinion is Wyoming's with the bucking broncho, Louisiana's with the pelican on the Colorado plate is the slogan "Colorful Colorado," on the Georgia it is "The Peach State," New Mexico, "Land of Enchantment," Minnesota, "Ten Thousand Lakes," Wisconsin, "America's Dairyland," and New York, "The Empire State." However, Texas, so often accused of being boastful, has just a plain number. Doesn't seem right. The Lone Star State license plate should be distinctive. How about putting a Texas steer on it next year? Or would an oil well be more appropriate?

Says She
"So you are thinking of asking that platinum blonde who acquired 10 husbands before she was 39 for some helpful hints on husband hunting for your Horses & Women files," writes a Chicagoan. "I haven't had 10 husbands but I have had one husband for ten years and I am prouder of that record than if I had acquired 10 husbands. Practically any woman can get a husband. It takes an intelligent woman to keep a husband happy. Perhaps you had better dig down in your files and send that blonde charmer a few helpful hints on how to hold a husband."

Briefly
The curve ball and the spit ball were both originated by members of the Brooklyn National League club, former by W. A. Cummings, latter by Elmer Stricklett. . . . Sophie Tucker was once billed in vaudeville as "The Mary Garden of Ragtime." She switched from this to "The Last of the Red Hot Mamas."

TAKE WATCHDOG, TOO

Providence, R. I. — (U.P.) — Twenty-three times in the last seven years, burglars have broken into Edward Harris' diner. On one trip they even made off with his watchdog.

and Mabel were very happy together.

Sidelights
The price of everything is going up. During World War II the cost of a B-29 bomber was $650,000. Now the B-47 jet bomber, designed for a similar task, costs $1,800,000. . . . Mary Garden at one time during her operatic career weighed 169 pounds! She reduced 30 pounds by working out on a rowing machine, drinking lemon water and substituting for a large dinner a meal consisting of the tails of six crawfish.

Asides
Lenin predicted "the United States will spend herself into destruction. If things keep going on the way they have been, Lenin may qualify in the same class as a prophet as Nostradamus. . . . Another great man who would have never seen the light of day if his folks had practiced birth control was Henry Clay. He was a seventh child. Henry's mother gave birth to 20 children. Nine by her first husband, 11 by her second.

Career Girls
It takes the average business girl 15 minutes to dress in the morning. Most career women wear out at least 30 pairs of nylons annually. So states a statistician. Perhaps we can get some Milwaukee stenographer to check on that. Or perhaps you could ask your charming amanuensis. We have nothing on wearing out nylons in our Horses & Women files, but there is a notation that a red-haired stenographer of Manhattan claimed she could get dressed and ready for the office in seven minutes.

Extension Specialist Gives Family Advice On Fear of Darkness

Don't be upset if your child shows some fear of the dark, Tom Poffenberger, extension family life specialist at Oregon State college, reassures parents. At one time or another almost every youngster expresses this alarm.

But it is hard for parents to decide whether to ignore, shame, punish or console the children when this fear arises.

Some child-guidance advise the Spartan-like treatment of shutting the door firmly and leaving the child alone, no matter how much he calls or cries. Usually, however, these fears are real ones, and every effort should be made to help the child overcome them, he explains.

Mother should not hesitate to leave the door open slightly or even keep a low light on if such methods reassure the child. It is a good idea, too, to play these games, though. The child should be given a sense of being safe, with Mother and Dad right with him as long as he needs them.

If parents don't make an issue of the matter and gradually help the youngster understand that there is nothing to be afraid of, he will usually overcome his fears before long, according to the specialist.
