

Speaker Stresses Spiritual Security In Luncheon Talk

Mrs. D. Kirkland West, speaker for the annual May fellowship luncheon of Medford Council of Church Women, held at First Presbyterian church, stressed many points on the fellowship theme, "Spiritual Security for Today's Families."

Mrs. West reminded listeners that members of a family are not built after one pattern but each must be approached from angles which would appeal most to the individual's thinking if progress is to be made toward cooperative family worship.

"While they do not recognize it as being a fact," she continued, "young people desire discipline and parents should see that diplomatic methods bring about desired happy family worship. The child should be treated as a thinking individual and wise council and prayer helps in making decisions. It is important to have councils with each member of the family presenting his or her problems for consideration. It is necessary for families to decide things together as a unit."

"While parents must have wisdom and generosity of spirit, they must at the same time be firm in their guidance," the speaker said. "Family worship is a very necessary part of every Christian home and where such a program is observed there is love, pleasure and joy."

Miss Verna Cingede, Bible teacher in Jackson county schools, told of her work and the "splendid response" given it. Proceeds from the May Fellowship luncheon will be used in part to assist Miss Cingede in her work, it was stated.

The dining room of the church presented a colorful spring time picture. While flowers tied with gay pink and blue bows centered the tables and programs in pastel tones represented a church. Art work for the programs was directed by Mrs. Ivan Gay. Mrs. L. D. Inskeep and Mrs. M. E. Sands arranged decorations.

Mrs. Owen Kunkel, chairman for the day, presided, opening the luncheon meeting with special recognition to committee chairmen responsible for the day's preparations. Also recognized were Mrs. Mattie Rallsback, 93, oldest mother present, Mrs. G. Brood, mother of 13 children, Mrs. Marvin Wick, youngest mother and Mrs. Don Newbury and Mrs. George Flanagan, mothers of foster children.

Mrs. J. R. Sides led devotions and Mrs. Harlan Bosworth, Jr., council president, spoke of the great need for closer cooperation between the church and the home in order that spiritual guidance might be more fruitful in bringing forth good results. Mrs. James DeCoursey and Mrs. W. H. Jamison presented a picture of the church worker and the mother conferring together regarding child guidance.

The importance of music in the home was pictured with Mrs. Earl Lawson at the piano and her children, Detta and Teddy singing a well known Christian hymn.

Family worship was presented by Mrs. G. A. Dierdorff and her small sons Larry and Todd. This scene was carried out as a bed time story and worship period.

Arts Group To Meet At Stafford Home

The Afternoon Arts group of the American Association of University Women will hear Otto Ewaldson speak on glassware during a meeting Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Charles E. Stafford, 1914 Westlund drive.

The assisting hostess will be Mrs. Elsie Vawter. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

Wives of ministers were honored guests for the annual May fellowship luncheon of Medford Council of Church Women, held recently at First Presbyterian church. Mrs. D. Kirkland West (at left) wife of the pastor of First Presbyterian church, was guest speaker for the event. Others honored were (seated, left to right) Mrs. George R. V. Bolster, Episcopal church; Mrs. N. K. Tully, whose husband is pastor of the Jacksonville and Central Point Presbyterian churches; Mrs. Thomas Mack, Salvation Army and

Last Meeting Planned By Butte Falls Group

Butte Falls—At the last regular meeting of the Butte Falls Parent-Teacher association to be held Monday, May 12, friends and members of the group will see a mental health film, "Feeling of Depression." Officers for the 1932-33 year will be installed.

Plans will be discussed for the final food sale of the year sponsored by the group to benefit the annual school picnic sponsored by the association on the closing day of school. The food sale will be Wednesday, May 14. The May 12 meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Honor Music Group Pledges Miss West

Miss Priscilla West, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. D. Kirkland West, 52 Ross court, was tapped by Mu Phi Epsilon, national women's music honorary, at Lewis and Clark college May 2.

Basis for election is on music ability and scholarship. She is a freshman music major, and recently played the lead in the annual spring play of the college.

Installation Planned By Extension Units; Agent To Be Speaker

Officers will be elected Wednesday by Medford Home Extension unit members when they meet in the recreation hall on Priddy street and McAndrews road at 10:15 o'clock in the morning. Officers pointed out that the chairman, Mrs. C. C. Ferris, has called this meeting earlier than the regular time of 10:30 o'clock.

This meeting also will be devoted to the project of making buttons, belts and buckles. Mrs. R. G. Beach and Mrs. L. D. McCall are the leaders. They ask that members take sewing equipment, a ruler and scraps of cotton material. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon and table service will be required.

The Oak Grove Extension unit will install new officers at their meeting at 10:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mrs. V. A. Turpin, 3533 Jacksonville highway will be the hostess and a potluck luncheon will be served.

Miss Eula Wintermote, the county home extension agent, will demonstrate "Streamlining Housework." Child care may be provided by calling telephone 3-1310.

When tea was first introduced into England "way back when" it was served exclusively in the all-male coffee houses.

Rotarians Receive Surprise Visitors Tuesday at Hotel

Women of Rotary made a surprise visit to the Rotary club luncheon, Tuesday noon, in the Pioneer room at the Jackson hotel.

Mrs. Philip F. Brainerd, president of Women of Rotary, was mistress of ceremonies. An entertaining hour's program was given and any similarity to Rotary meetings, past or future, was said to be entirely coincidental.

Those on the program were Mrs. George C. Flanagan, invocation; Mrs. John S. Day, news; Rotary magazine quiz, Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Roland A. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Leverette, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Denman and Mr. and Mrs. V. Ward Hammond.

A trio, Mrs. H. D. Christensen, Mrs. Wayne H. Jamison and Mrs. Ed Milne sang: "You're Either Too Young or Too Old" and "Oh, You Wonderful Man!" accompanied by Mrs. George E. Madrox, who also played for the group songs.

Mrs. Allan F. Perry, in a clever introduction, presented the speaker of the day, Harriet Hill Tobin. Her subject: "The Dietary Feeding Behavior of the Human Male," used prominent Rotarians as examples with hilarious results.

Mrs. E. P. Merrick, Mrs. George E. Gates and Mrs. Alex Tummers, aided by window decorating "props" from a local store, made a profitable collection of fines.

About ninety wives of Rotarians attended the event.

A Tribute To Mother

MOM is what kids yell when they fall and scrape a knee. MOM is what Junior screams-at-the-top-of-his-lungs when he gets home from school. MOM is what Pop bellows when he can't find his pipe. MOM does everything. She knows everything. She's someone we just can't do without. That's why we're in favor of a WE LOVE MOM campaign on Her Day, May 11. Let's EVERYBODY join in, and make it a day she'll never forget!
