Cheney Studs Wallop Southern Oregon 22-5

The Medford Cheney Studs thundered impressively over Southern Oregon college here Sunday, rapping the Raiders 22 to 5 in an exhibition baseball encounter.

Biggest inning for the Studs was the third when they piled up 11 runs.

At the start of the frame the Studs picked up three runs on three errors, a hit by Frank Roelandt and a walk. After another walk, Don Jacobson came in to relieve Jerry Hennebeck, starting Raider pitcher.

Eight More Runs

The Studs were even rougher on Jacobson. Marvin Cartwright got a triple, Bill Selsor, Alex McDonald, Snuffy Smith and Clarence Melbye singles, the Cheney gang got four more walks and a couple of errors, a stolen base and two wild pitches which all combined to help the Studs to eight more tallies.

In the first inning the Studs got off to a fast start when McDonald hit, Smith and Melbye walked and Norm Lucich drove them all in with a triple.

The Studs got four runs in the fourth frame. Selsor, a Humboldt State college youth trying out with the Medford nine, got a walk, McDonald singled and Roelandt doubled them both home. Smith singled to score Roelandt, Melbye walked and Lucich singled in Smith. Jim Hennebeck replaced Jacobson on the hill during the stanza.

In the fifth Medford got a pair of markers on Selsor's walk, a double by McDonald and a single by Roelandt. A final two came in the seventh on a single by Blevins, Ben Cheney's fielder's choice, Roelandt's safety and Smith's two-bagger.

The Raiders faltered twice in the fourth when Lou Maurer got on base on an error and Ron Maurer homered over the right field fence. Southern Oregon got two more in the fifth on a walk to Ken Kimura, singles by Don Campbell and Lou Maurer, a wild pitch and overthrow of home by Lucich. Frank Burdill homered over the right field barrier in the sixth for the other SOC counter.

The Studs, who barely nipped the Raiders 8 to 7 in an earlier engagement, displayed a big amount of early season power at the plate with a total of 19 bingles. McDonald and Roelandt each hit four times in five trips to the platter and Smith got three for four.

Tight infield play was demonstrated by the Studs. Selsor held down the shortstop chores for the entire mix and another Humboldt youth by the name of Gilokly played at second for a couple of innings.

Paul Gehrman, pitching for the first time this season, with little previous workout, did not have to bear down heavily during his six innings. Two of the six hits he gave up were homers.

Trapshooters Eye Tribune Top Trophy

Medford scattergunners hope to return the top honor to the home club next week-end when the 19th annual Medford Mail Tribune trapshoot is held at Medford Gun club.

Not since 1948 when Dick Skeeters copped the prize has the trophy been won by a Medfordite. Gordon Miller, Eugene, was victor in 1949. Another Eugene shooter, Gordon Corum, captured the hardware in 1950, and George Bronson, Grants Pass, won in 1951.

There will be other prizes to shoot for in the two-day event, Saturday and Sunday, May 17 and 18. High among them will be the Mendenhall trophy for Class B and lower in the Tribune award event. Twenty-five prizes in all are offered for the two-day affair.

Tribune Fracas Sunday
The tourney will open Saturday morning with the 18-year Rogue Valley Hundred. The Chester Wood 50 target handicap and 25-pair doubles are set for the afternoon.

The Tribune trophy event, 100 targets at 16 yards, will be in the morning on Sunday. A 100-target Medford handicap will be held Sunday afternoon and a 25-pair doubles test will conclude the day.

Only three men have won the Mail Tribune hardware twice. They are S. G. Mendenhall, Grants Pass, and H. Croissant, Grants Pass, both deceased, and George L. Jantzer, Medford. Mendenhall and George Jantzer broke perfect 100s once each to gain the trophy. Corum fired the only other perfect score in 1950.

Butte Falls Cops Opener

The Butte Falls diamond crew won its first Rogue Valley league baseball test on Sunday as Floyd Shotwell pitched no hit, no run ball for seven innings. The Loggers beat Prospect 5 to 1.

A Butte Falls error and triple in the eighth inning by Prospect spoiled Shotwell's chance for a no-no achievement. He gave up another bingle in the ninth. Only one man was walked by the Butte Falls hurler who was with the Medford Rogues early last season.

Pat Duggan homered for Butte Falls in the first inning.

Rocky Marciano Gets Suspension

Providence, R. I.—(U.P.)—Rocky Marciano, heavyweight "white hope" from Brockton, Mass., who lost considerable luster in his last television appearance, battles cumbersome Bernie Reynolds of Fairfield, Conn., Monday night before entering on a 30-day period of ring suspension. The suspension, invoked by the Maine Boxing Commission and reluctantly upheld by Rhode Island, resulted from a spring exhibition tour by Rocky in which his opponent was his younger brother fighting under assumed names.
