

Local and Personal

Visit Here—Mr. and Mrs. D. Hood, Portland, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Isaacs and Big Rock Lodge, Central Point, friends said today.

Mistletoe Club—A desert luncheon meeting will be held by the Mistletoe club of the Royal Neighbors of America lodge at the Girls Community club on Wednesday, May 13, at 1 p. m.

Legion Meeting—Medford Post 15, American Legion, will meet at 8 o'clock tonight at the Legion building.

Logtown Meeting—The annual meeting and cleanup day of the Logtown Cemetery association will be held at the cemetery near Ruch Sunday, May 18. A potluck picnic lunch will be served at noon. All members and others interested are invited to attend.

Graduates—Dr. S. Ralph Dippel, Medford dentist, received word today that his son, Stephen G. Dippel, Grants Pass, is listed among the graduates of the state board of optometry examinations held in March. He now is practicing optometry in Grants Pass where he lives with his wife and their two sons. He attended Pacific university school of optometry.

To Speak—Charles Russell, water safety field representative from the San Francisco Red Cross area office, will speak to Junior Red Cross High School council members Wednesday noon at Prospect high school. Russell now is teaching instructor's classes in swimming at the Jackson Hot springs. Anyone wanting to contact the field representative may call him at the springs.

Marine Here—Jerry Sherman, a private first class in the Marine corps, is visiting here until May 27 when he will report to Camp Pendleton, Calif., for overseas duty. He was stationed at Camp Lejeune, N.C., until coming here. Mrs. Sherman accompanied him to Medford from the North Carolina camp where she also has been living for the past two months. Their home here is at 2341 Jacksonville highway. Mrs. Sherman is employed in the bookkeeping department of the United States National bank.

Receives Schooling—Bert M. Rostel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert C. Rostel, who recently completed basic training at the Navy air school at Jacksonville, Fla., will remain there for 19 more weeks to complete further schooling, his parents said today.

Adult Class—The Adult Bible class of the First Presbyterian church will meet Thursday, May 15, at 12 noon in the church for a covered dish luncheon. There will be a business meeting and social hour following the meeting.

Traffic Accident—Bufford O. Newton, Van Nuys, Calif., and William R. Stout, 415 Summit avenue, were drivers of cars which collided at the intersection of Central avenue and Third street at about 6:55 a. m. today, according to city police. They reported damage to both cars and said Newton was cited for failure to stop at stop sign.

With Infantry—Don E. Buntin, an Army corporal, recently was graduated from the first troop information discussion leader course held in Korea since the beginning of the Korean conflict, according to an Army release. He is with the 45th Infantry division. The class was designed to teach the men to assist in the troop information and education programs of their own units. His wife, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Buntin, live at Route 1, Gold Hill. He is attached to the 179th infantry regiment's Company D.

Phoenix Women—A meeting of the Ladies Aid society of Phoenix Presbyterian church will be held Wednesday, May 14, at 2 p. m. at the church, when business of importance to all members will be discussed. Committees for a May festival booth will be appointed and a coffee urn which the group is interested in purchasing will be demonstrated. Mrs. Jewell Parr and Mrs. George Osler are in charge of entertainment. Mrs. J. O. N. Poling and Mrs. Jennie Askinson will serve refreshments.

Baby Burned—Ronnie West, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert West, Glendale, is confined to Osteopathic hospital for treatment of first and second degree burns over 30 per cent of his body suffered Saturday, hospital attendants reported this morning. The boy was burned when he pulled an electric parlor over on him, the report said. He is reported considerably improved. Also in the hospital are Walter Chaffee, 68 Hill, who was admitted Monday for medical attention, and Bruce Wright, 3 son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wright, 713 Broad street, Medford, who underwent a tonsillectomy.

Parents Leave—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heisel, Eugene, left today for a vacation trip to Southern California after visiting here since Saturday with their son and family, the Manville Heisels, Thomas road. The senior Heisel also attended 40 of 8 activities during the tri-state convention here Saturday. He is active in American Legion affairs at Eugene.

First Aid Class—A standard Red Cross first aid class will begin this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Medford west side fire station at Lincoln and Eighth streets. Earl Fichtner will instruct and the class is open to the public, both men and women. The schedule of the class will be decided at tonight's meeting. B. B. Bigham, Jackson county Red Cross first aid chairman, made arrangements for the class.

Pronoted—Miss Elizabeth Ronse, stationed at the Presidio, San Francisco, with the women's army corps, has been promoted to private first class, according to information received here by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ronse, Route 1, Talet. Miss Ronse received her promotion two months in advance of the scheduled time, her parents report. She is a graduate of Medford senior high school.

Valton League Meeting—The Jackson County Chapter Izaak Walton league will meet Wednesday, May 14, at 8 p. m. at the Medford Gun club. Speaker will include Cole Rivers, fish biologist for the state game commission, and Dave Luman, big game biologist for the commission. A colored motion picture on range management will be shown. Cattlemen and farmers are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Hospital Notes—Blaine Forbes, 41, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart L. Forbes, 40 North Peach street, underwent emergency appendectomy today at Sacred Heart hospital, according to attendants. Mike Hurt, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mose Hurt, 2540 Tennessee drive, and Murphy McHugh, 212 Barneburg road, 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McHugh, are surgery patients there. Richard Chamberlain, 4½, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Chamberlain, Box 506, Eagle Point, is a medical patient at the same hospital. Others there include Richmond Havniar, a medical patient, Box 962, Central Point, and David Wade, 311 South Holly street, a Medford city water department employee, who is receiving treatment for a burned foot, attendants said today. Mrs. Harold E. Wallace, 1985 Sunset drive, is convalescing there from surgery yesterday, friends said today.

Building Additions—The Medford building inspector's office has issued permits to W. J. Thompson, 1836 Woodlawn drive, $800, to erect a utility room, and Price Shafer, 412 Union avenue, to erect an addition to residence.

Club To Paint—Members of Griffin Creek Home Economics club will meet Thursday, May 15, at the Grange hall to paint the kitchen. Those attending are asked to arrive at the hall about 10 a. m. and to take a sack lunch. The work was originally scheduled for today.
