

Protests Voiced by Some Candidates Not Among Favored Group

Portland — (U.P.) — Protests have been voiced by some of the 34 candidates for delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention who were not among the "favored" 10 candidates recommended for voter support by the Oregon-for-Eisenhower organization.

"A flagrant example of the sabotage of our election laws," said Sid Woodbury, one of the delegate candidates not included in the list. The list was announced Saturday in a move to

Footlighters Set Tryouts for Next Theater Production

Tryouts for the next production of the Footlighters civic theater group will be held Wednesday and Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the new little theater at the fairgrounds, officers of the group announced today. The play, "Suspect," described as a tense drama, offers excellent opportunities to valley amateur actors, Frank Buchter, Footlighters president, said today.

Jerome McDougall, Crater high school drama coach, will direct. He also has done character acting in the former Medford civic theater, now the Footlighters, and has appeared in Shakespearean festival plays.

Seek Newcomers

Each of the last three productions of the Footlighters has seen new faces behind the footlights, the president pointed out. It is the aim of the organization to continue casting as many newcomers to the group as possible, he added. Residents of the valley do not need be current members of the organization to try out for plays and all interested valley persons are invited to be at the little theater Wednesday and Thursday for the try outs. Others interested in working on sets, lighting, costuming or other little theater work also are invited to be there.

Production date of the play has not been set but is planned for mid or late June.

select a solid slate of Ike supporters in the May 16 primary election.

Move Due To Confusion

The Eisenhower committee explained the move was "due to the confusion created by eight candidates who filed under an outmoded 1905 law to avoid a pledge to support the choice of the voters" in the election.

William L. Phillips, Salem, chairman of the Oregon-for-Eisenhower committee, explained that selection of the 10 delegates followed a recommendation made by Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., of Massachusetts that the slate be adopted.

"It was a decision awfully hard for some of us to agree with," said Phillips.

"Senator Lodge apparently has been ill advised in his attempt to tell the voters of Oregon who the ten delegates-at-large to the Republican convention shall be," said a statement by a group of Portlanders protesting the slate.

The chosen 10 were:

Howard C. Belton, Canby; Zylpha Zell Burns, Portland; Robert A. Elliott, Medford; Mark Hatfield, Salem; William M. McAllister, Medford; Gov. Douglas McKay, Salem; Sen. Wayne Morse, Eugene; H. Clay Myers, Portland; Gordon D. Orput, Portland and Lamar Tooze, Portland.

Soul of Political Poets Will Shine Through Lapel

New York — (U.P.) — Get a grip on your scansion, folks, the soul of a poet soon will be shining through the button of your lapel.

"No Graft With Taft."

The garden of verses that blooms every four years is stirring to life. The first new buds are out in the chain drug stores.

"Fefauver Take Over."

Breathing Balm

This is the poesy, this the breathing balm that buttons up the paths of glory leading to the White House.

"Averell Will Fill the Bill."

A swatch of scrap metal, some red, white and blue dye, and a campaign poet can combine to give you goose pimples with a line of beauty that soars and sings.

"We Need Adlai Badly."

Emanuel Rees, 44, poet who in 1940 printed 10,000,000 campaign buttons of assorted sizes saying "Win With Willie," is now working on his sixth million of buttons saying "I Like Ike."

Irving Berlin, who gave "I Like Ike" a powerful shove by putting it into a song, says he has another slogan he's offering to the Eisenhower people, a paraphrase on another of his songs: "Anything They Can Do, Ike Can Do Better."

The "I Like Ike" line has stirred up some rebuttals. Rees has begun printing, on order, buttons which read: "I Prefer Kerr" and "I Crave Ave."

Button makers know no favorites. One time Rees printed a batch saying "Truman for Ex-President."

"Some guy in Grand Central wanted me to make them up," he explained.

Funeral Rites Held For Ashland Woman

Ashland—Funeral services for Myrtle Wells Patton, who died Friday in an Ashland hospital, were held in the Ashland Litchfield funeral home this afternoon. The Rev. Earl Downing officiated.

Mrs. Patton was born in Jackson county 73 years ago and was the daughter of pioneer parents who came to the Emigrant district from Iowa in 1852. She was married Jan. 15, 1908, to Charles A. Patton, who survives.

Other survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Ida Tucker, Ashland, and Mrs. Maude E. Cliff, Gaston, and several nieces and nephews.

Medford Woman Wins BPW Office

Klamath Falls, Ore. — (U.P.) — Fern Trull, Grants Pass, is the new president of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs and Grants Pass will be the site for next year's convention of the group.

Other officers elected at the conclusion of a three-day convention here included Laura York, Medford, and Natalie Burns, Toledo, vice-presidents; Emily Reilly, Portland, recording secretary; Mary Weller, Grants Pass, correspondence secretary, and Vivian Lodgson, Roseburg, treasurer.

Quits Laxatives — finds amazing relief

"Had tried method after method to relieve constipation, until I lost faith," admits New Jersey woman. "Then I started to eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily and was amazed at the fine results!" Delicious ALL-BRAN may bring back your youthful regularity if suffering has been due to lack of bulk in diet. It's the only type ready-to-eat cereal that supplies all the bulk you may need. ALL-BRAN is rich in iron, high in cereal protein, provides essential B and D vitamins. Not habit-forming. Eat 1/2 cupful of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily; drink plenty of liquids. If not satisfied after 10 days, send empty carton to Kellogg's, Battle Creek, Mich., and get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!
