Tea for Mothers Given on Friday In Rogue River

Rogue River—Rogue River Civic club entertained at tea for the mothers of the community Friday, May 9. Mrs. Jerusha Moore, club mother, poured and was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. W. A. White. A short tribute to their mothers was given by each guest and gifts were presented to Mrs. Moore and Mrs. E. J. Green, president of the club, as the oldest and youngest mothers present.

The tea was preceded by a brief business meeting, at which time a community chest report was given by Mrs. Walter Kasworm, who stated that collections during the recent drive were very good. A letter commending Mrs. Frances Hawkins for her work as chairman of the crippled children committee, was read.

Mrs. R. W. Hargitt gave a short talk on Girl Scouts and invited the club members to attend the scout meetings and the day camp. The Girl Scouts are sponsored by the Civic club and meet in the club building.

Mrs. Hargitt announced the day camp will be held the week of June 2. Dues for the five days are a dollar, and that includes the girl's food. Any girl in the community from the age of "7 to 70" may attend the day camp, she stated. The day camp will be held in the city park between the hours of 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. The leaders and their aides will teach the girls outdoor cooking and campcraft in general.
