Best Year Forecast for SW Circuit

Loop President Roy Hargens has predicted that the Southwestern Oregon Baseball league, which opens its schedule Saturday, will this year experience its best season.

After looking over the rosters of the seven loop members, Hargens rated all clubs as contenders with no one as a favorite.

It has been pointed out that the Southwestern Oregon semi-pro circuit will be comparable to Class B professional ball.

The Drain Black Sox, who play the Medford Cheney Studs here at 8 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday in loop openers, illustrate the caliber of clubs in the league. A surprise was pulled this week when the Black Sox announced their roster. Close followers of baseball will recognize a number of familiar names on the Drain squad.

Roy Helsler, Portland Beaver hurler, is to be playing manager if he gets his release from the Beavers. Squads of the Pacific Coast loop were to have cut their rosters today. The Beavers have been over the player limit with nine or 10 pitchers on the club. The action on Helsler's request for release was to be known sometime today.

Support Wanted
Other rain chuckers are Wayne Johnson, Jerry Cade, Bill Houghtman and Hal Turpin; catchers are Bill Beard, ex-Portland and Salem pro, Check Bafaro and Noral Richey. Infielders include Harvey Storey, just released by the San Diego Padres and Don Kirsch, University of Oregon baseball tutor.

Also in the circuit are Coos Bay-North Bend, Coquille, Roseburg, Bandon and Brookings. Hargens has expressed hope for good attendance at ball games, stating that fans' support will determine the strength of the league.

punchers. Jennings is a smooth hard-hitting boxer type and Pendergast is a hooking, slashing, dynamic fighter.

Moore Hamilton, Democrat and Medford postmaster, will take on Rodney Keating, leading Ashland Republican, in a special attraction of the evening. They were listed as Mystery Fighters until their identity was revealed this week.

Fans Waiting
Hamilton in an interview Wednesday remarked that the Democratic party in Jackson county has been back-peddling for 20 years. Fans are waiting to see whether he will continue party policy in the boxing ring.

Medford and Roseburg tusslers will appear in the other bouts on the program.

There will be social activities elsewhere in the Y and refreshments will be served.

FINAL WORK
Baltimore, Md.—(U.P.)—Sub Fleet, the stretch-running colt which will carry the Dixiana stable colors and probably the favorite's role in Saturday's Preakness, was scheduled to take his final workout Thursday as the probable field for the rich Pimlico race shrank to nine or 10. Sub Fleet's most likely opponents appeared to be Jampol, Blue Man, One Count, Armageddon, Count Flame, Gushing Oil, Primate, Handsome Teddy and Arroz.

FINANCES NEEDED

Toronto—(U.P.)—The Cleveland Barons, who dominated the American Hockey league for 16 years, will be taken into the National league this summer if General Manager Jim Hendy can boost the team's financial backing by June 1. The six NHL governors decided Wednesday night, after a day-long discussion, that the Barons were ready to join the National league every way except financially.

Election Night Bout Card 8:30 P.M. Friday at Y

Time of the opening bout on the election night fight card at the YMCA on Friday, May 16, has been set at 8:30 o'clock, it was announced today.

This is a half-hour later than originally planned.

Complete election returns will be broadcast direct to the ring-side.

Thirteen bouts are on the program. Junior McDonald, Medford, contends with Doyle Hall, Roseburg, in a lightweight main event. It has the earmarks of a topnotch swingfest. In Hall, McDonald is going up against stiff opposition. Hall has won his last eight fights by knockouts.

Rivals Main Scrap
The semi-windup rivals the main event for interest. In it Jerry Jennings, Medford, and Perc Pendergast, Roseburg, collide in a 160-pounder bout. Both are regarded rugged knockout

How to judge whiskey value:

1. Have 1/2 oz. of Calvert put in one glass and the same amount of any other whiskey in another—without knowing which is which.
2. Sniff one brand for aroma. Taste it critically for smoothness. Swallow carefully to judge its freedom from bite, burn or sting.
3. Taste the other whiskey in the same analytical way—then pick the one that really tastes better to you.

BE YOUR OWN WHISKEY EXPERT!

The big difference in whiskey values is the difference in taste. That's why it will pay you to make an easy 60-second taste test between Calvert Reserve and your present brand.

We're sure you will prefer Calvert because its smoother, mellower taste is protected from bite, burn or sting by "vacuum distilling" at low temperature.

But don't take our word for it. Compare and make your own choice. Fair enough?

Calvert Challenges Comparison with any whiskey on the market!
