

RIDING TIME

By Olive Starcher

Horseback riding is a popular hobby, and the Rogue valley has its share of horse lovers. One of the county's largest riding organizations is Jackson County Mounted Sheriff's posse and its auxiliary units, Ladies' Mounted troop and Junior posse.

Currently all three groups are engaged in intensive preparations for the annual rodeo to be held June 14-15 at the posse grounds, Sage road. Three very young riders pictured while watching drill practice are (upper left) Gary Brown, 9, mounted on "Buck," (at front); his twin sis-
