Flower Shows This Week Four Garden Clubs Plan

Four garden clubs of the valley, Jacksonville, Phoenix, Ashland and Grove will hold flower shows this week.

Oak Grove school gymnasium will be the setting for a flower show to be given Saturday, May 24, by Grove Garden club. Hours will be from 1:30 to 9 p.m.

Iris will be the theme of the show, the committee states, but many different flowers and arrangements will also be featured. A plant sale will be held.

A program for the afternoon is being arranged by Mrs. Louis Putman, and tea will be served, with Mrs. Clare Shores in charge. Mrs. C. Sater is arranging an herb display.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. George Armstrong, flower arrangements; Mrs. Aubrey Sander, hospitality; W. H. Arnold, men's division; Mrs. William Rose, plant sale; Mrs. Carl Norris, juvenile division. General chairman is Mrs. Kenneth Farley, assisted by Mrs. W. H. Arnold and Mrs. Clifford Crosby.

The annual spring flower show and silver tea of Jacksonville Garden club will be held on Thursday, May 22, in the Odd Fellow's hall. Hours will be 1 to 9 p.m.

Among seasonal flower exhibits will be displays of named Iris, along with a display of old and unusual dolls exhibited by members and collectors.

The show will be non-competitive and entries from other groups or individuals are cordially invited to exhibit. It will be appreciated if entries could be brought to the hall by noon, the committee states.

Phoenix Garden club will hold an iris show and tea Tuesday, May 20, at Phoenix Community clubhouse from 1 to 9 p.m.

Iris specimens and other arrangements will be shown according to Mrs. O. V. Poe, chairman. Assisting Mrs. Poe are Mrs. George Hartley, Mrs. H. A. Dubuque and Mrs. O. L. Penland.

"An old-fashioned garden" will be theme for the Ashland Garden club's spring show to be held Friday, May 23 in the Ashland Civic clubhouse between 1 and 8 p.m.

Mrs. Larkin Grubbs, Ashland iris specialist, will display new iris varieties from her nursery, and there will be other commercial exhibits.

The committee states that

DAV, Auxiliary Attend Sessions In Grants Pass

Medford Disabled American Veterans and auxiliary will participate today in a district DAV meeting at Grants Pass, starting at 10 a.m. in the Grants Pass VFW hall. Delegates also will be there from Klamath Falls and Roseburg. During the afternoon the group will visit the veterans domiciliary at Camp White. A no host dinner will be served by the Grants Pass unit at noon. Visitors are expected to be there from Oregon City and Portland.

At a meeting Tuesday evening of the auxiliary in the home of Mrs. Ed Neff, 811 Bennett street, officers were nominated. Seven delegates also were elected. They will attend a state convention at La Grande. Mrs. Paul Olsen is the No. 1 delegate and others planning to make the trip include Mrs. E. R. Rice, commander; Mrs. Ed Neff, state executive woman; Mrs. George Simmons, state banner carrier; Mrs. Hazel Van Dermark, state treasurer, and Mrs. James Little, district commander.

A Junior charter will be presented Friday, May 23 and all juniors and their mothers are invited to attend. Officers will be elected and installed by the department commander, Mrs. Laura Bryant, Grants Pass. The Jackson county junior organization is the only one in the state.

The auxiliary plans a rummage sale May 26.

Several members are planning to attend installation of officers of the Grants Pass unit May 22.

Sojourners

Medford Sojourners club will meet Thursday, May 22, at 1 p.m. at the Medford hotel. Dessert will be served followed by cards.

Farewell Party Honors Harrisons

About 25 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harrison met Wednesday in the John Morris home on Valleyview road near Ashland for a farewell party for the Harrisons. The couple left Friday to live in southern Idaho. They recently sold their ranch where they lived on Fern Valley road.

The group presented them a gift and cards were the diversion of the evening. The Harrisons were active in riding groups here.
