VFW Slates Annual Buddy Poppy Sales

Portland — The 31st annual sale of Buddy poppies in Oregon will be conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars May 23 and 24, it was announced Saturday by Mrs. Lyman R. Henderson, Department of Oregon poppy chairman.

The poppies to be sold in Oregon this year include some 50,000 made by veterans at the Camp White domiciliary center near Medford, Mrs. Henderson said. Approximately 20,000,000 poppies made by veterans in hospitals and soldiers' homes will be sold nationally.

Most of the money collected from poppy sales helps finance relief and welfare work for veterans and their dependents within the communities in which poppies are sold, according to Mrs. Henderson. The balance of the proceeds is used to help maintain the nationwide rehabilitation service conducted by the VFW.

Mrs. Don Newbury, 7 Eastwood drive, will be hostess to Contemporary Book club members Wednesday at 12 noon. Mrs. Ben Trowbridge will be in charge of the program.

and friendship walk hand in hand

Millions of Americans this month are making it a special point to invite their friends into their churches—as freely and frequently as they ask them to their homes. You'll find that SHARING your faith does something for you, and for your friends as well... it grows when it's shared... and your friendships grow, too.

Take someone to church this week...

you'll both be richer for it
