Opening week-end for the Medford Cheney Studs in the Southwestern Oregon league baseball campaign was to wind up today as the Studs scrap with the potent Drain Black Sox at the fairgrounds ball diamond at 2 p.m.

Roy Helsler, who tossed 122 victories in his career just concluded with the Portland Beavers of the Coast loop, was scheduled to pitch for the Sox today if he did not go to the hill last night.

Helsler Pilots
Helsler took over the managerial reins of the Black Sox this week and rounds out a powerful line-up for the Drain entry in the circuit. The roster of the new loop member includes infielder Harvey Storey, just released by the San Diego Padres, and several others who have made their mark in pro ball or are on the way up. Stud Manager Hoosier Hoffard has recognized the toughness of the Drain crew but the Studs boast a rather strong crew themselves. This week's play will provide a good indication on how the Medford aggregation stacks up in the circuit.

The Cheney gang was to use Clarence Melby, an ex-Pioneer leaguer on the pitcher's hill today, if Paul Gehrman, an ex-major leaguer, threw in last night's affair. With Frank Roelandt catching the Studs were assured of an ex-pro battery.

Other former pro players in the Medford line up are Alex McDonald and Clyde (Moose) Blevins. Semi-pro vets Marvin Cartwright, Norm Lucich and Snuffy Smith and Bill Selser from Humboldt State college add strength to the local team.

Other action in the circuit today will be Coquille at Roseburg and Coos Bay-North Bend at Bandon. The clubs also played last night. Brookings drew a bye.

Joe Chez Beaten By SC Trojans
Los Angeles (UPI)—The Southern California Trojans pushed across five runs in the first inning and added another in the sixth to edge Stanford 6 to 5 Saturday and win their sixth CIBA championship in seven years.

The Trojans were outfit for the second consecutive day, with Stanford getting 10 to their five, but they managed to space them to do the most damage.

SC opened the game with five tallies on four walks and three hits in the first off Stanford ace moundsman Joe Chez. Chez settled down after the wild spurt, however, and allowed only two more hits during the game.

Graham Remains Top Contender

New York (UPI)—Billy Graham was still regarded as the No. 1 welterweight contender by the New York Boxing Commission despite his 10-round draw with middleweight Rock Castellani at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

The commission will demand that New Yorker Graham be guaranteed a title shot at the winner of the reportedly signed title bout between Champion Kid Gavilan and unbeaten Gil Turner at Philadelphia, July 7, it was learned.

Otherwise the commission will not recognize the Philadelphia bout as a championship fight.

Silver Dollars around, and pushing the small guy into the ring's corner post. As long as we can have "ELECTION REVOLUTIONS!" we'll have intelligent guidance for our pattern of life. Whether a new broom was issued to every office at this year is unknown to the writer (that's me) of this article at this time, but if not this year, perhaps next election the old brooms will get another brush up from some new "Whisk" candidates.

I think Politics is like religion . . . It's not a case to be fought over but a darn good thing to know something about, since you'll need the favors of one to live on this earth, and the favors of the other to get through eternity. Its like arguing about racial discrimination to say the Democrats are this or the Republicans are that—shucks, to me its all the same, we're human beings, some good and some bad. I hope in being selected Mr. Candidate that you never forget our vote is sacred to us, and don't you abuse our good judgment in selecting you, and in your decisions of City or State, remember whose working for whom.
