Theme of the show will be "Festival of Flowers" and a display of iris, with some of the newest varieties, will be featured. The public is cordially invited.

Co-chairmen of the show are Mrs. Leonard McKee and Mrs. Frank Janosky, Mrs. Robert Finney and Mrs. Harry Olsen are chairmen to arrange a naturalistic stage and Mrs. Otto Heckert is invitations chairman.

Other chairmen include Mrs. Dee Hendrickson, publicity; Mrs. Lee Port, horticulture; Mrs. E. Evans, wild flowers; Mrs. Ray Coleman and Mrs. Harold Reed, iris; Mrs. J. B. Noble, Mrs. Guy Garrett, doll display; Mrs. H. R. Teal, animal planters; Mrs. Mollie Ray, tea, assisted by Mrs. O. Hamilton, Mrs. Minnie Offenbacher, Mrs. C. P. Smets, Mrs. Albert Burch, Mrs. Kenneth Farley and Mrs. Lance Offenbacher.

Committees also include Miss Claire Manley, program; Mrs. Lawrence Luy, arrangements; Mrs. W. W. Winningham, hospitality; Mrs. Paul Godward and Mrs. Deen Hendrickson, registration.

Officers were elected at the May meeting of the club, held in the home of Mrs. Janosky. Mrs. Godward was elected president; Mrs. McKee, first vice-president; Mrs. Finney, second vice-president; Mrs. Luy, secretary; Mrs. Nichol, treasurer; Mrs. Garrett, historian and Mrs. Olson, librarian.

Mrs. Godward was named delegate to the convention of Oregon Federation of Garden clubs, to be held in Portland, June 5-6, with Mrs. Luy and Mrs. Olson, alternates. The club voted to enter a float in the Jacksonville jubilee celebration, and to take charge of old-time costumes.

Mrs. Lucille Beach of Sherwin-Williams gave an illustrated talk on the new method of choosing color combinations from charts. Assisting the hostess for the afternoon were Mrs. Noble and Mrs. Adlea Gwinn. Pouring for the refreshment hour were Miss Hanley and Mrs. Hendrickson.

Name of New Group Is Made Official; Artists Plan Events

Members of Southern Oregon Society of Artists learned at the monthly meeting last Wednesday night that the society's name has been officially recorded in Salem. Since the society has been organized but a few months, the document is the first official paper of the society and will be framed.

Mrs. Erma White, 443 Haven street, Medford, and Mrs. Ada Andrews, Gold Hill, were admitted into membership in the society.

The society has named a committee which will try to find larger quarters. Since organization the group has met at Oak Ridge studio, the studio of Clifford Platz, society president, but increased membership now makes the studio inadequate.

Member artists are said to be working hard to prepare for summer exhibitions, the first of which will be a group participation in the annual show sponsored by Grants Pass American Association of University Women in June.

The society plans an all-day exhibition in the city park in July. This will be on the Greenwich village fair idea, with artists exhibiting completed paintings and also sketching and painting during the hours of the event. This will be coordinated with similar artists' events in Portland and San Francisco.

Guests Here

Mrs. C. E. Connolly and son, Phillip, of Vancouver, B.C., are guests in Medford of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mann. The Connolly family formerly lived in Medford.
