Everett Armstrong Winner of Tribune Trapshooting Hardware

Everett Armstrong, Eugene, captured the Medford Mail Tribune trophy Sunday in the Tribune trapshooting tourney at Medford Gun club.

He claimed the hardware after a hard fought battle with Clyde Fox, Merrill. Each broke 100 straight in the regular shooting and three sets of 25 birds were needed in the shoot-off. Armstrong won out 73 to 72. It was the fourth time in the 19-year history of the tourney that 100-straight was recorded in the Tribune trophy match.

The Mendenhall trophy for Class B and lower in the Tribune match went to Leslie Jantzer, Grants Pass. He also had to work extra for the honor. Jantzer and Rod Smith and Bud Cloake, both Klamath Falls, each blasted 99. In the shoot-off Jantzer cracked 24 and the others 23.

Dick Skeeters, Medford, copied the other two Sunday events of the two-day tournament. He won the doubles with a 49 and was followed by Ted Jantzer, Trail, and Fox with 47s. Skeeters took the $500 Medford handicap trophy after a shoot-off with F. H. Shepherd, North Bend and Gordon Corum, Eugene.

They downed 96 each to divide the money for the top three places. In the extra rounds for the trophy Shepard and Skeeters broke 24s and Corum a 23 in the first 25 and Skeeters won out over Shepard 23 to 21 in the second 25.

Ted Jantzer, who won Class A in the Rogue Valley hundred and annexed the Saturday doubles hardware, was high over all for the two-day shooting with 431 out of 450. Skeeters was right behind with 430.

Yardage winners in the Medford handicap were Jack Maulding, Cottage Grove, at 17-18 with 93; Dorothy Jantzer, Trail, at 19 with 93; Shepard at 20 with 96, Ed Pease, Medford, at 21 with 95; Corum at 22 with 96; Skeeters at 23 with 96 and Henry Niedermeyer, Grants Pass, at 24-25 with 91.

Saturday winners included

Blue Man Now Belmont Favorite

Baltimore, Md. — (U.P.) — Blue Man, the turf's latest bargain basement beauty, is touted as the favorite for the Belmont Stakes and a likely candidate for three-year-old honors.

The dandy dark bay colt, who once raced under a $10,000 claiming tag, earned his high rating with a thrilling come-from-behind victory in Saturday's Preakness at Pimlico.

With Calumet Farm's Kentucky Derby winner, Hill Gail, now sidelined with a leg injury, Blue Man should wind up as the prohibitive choice for the Belmont at New York June 7, and may even wind up with the division championship if the Calumet colt remains incapacitated during the summer season.

Islands in Yellowstone lake, Yellowstone National park, are favorite nesting sites of the white pelican.

Enos Handy, Roseburg, in Class B of the Rogue Valley hundred, H. E. Hauger, Klamath Falls, in Class C and Hazel Shepard, North Bend, in Class D. Handy won the Chester Wood handicap.

Millers Fall To Glendale 2-0 in RVL

The Central Point Millers dropped their second straight frames in the Rogue Valley Baseball league losing to Glendale at Glendale on Sunday. It was Glendale's bow into 1952 league action.

In other games Ashland clubbed Prospect 11 to 5 and Cave Junction beat Grants Pass 8 to 5.

Glendale scored both its runs in the fourth inning. Contributing to the scoring were a walk, a dropped third strike and a single. Central Point threatened seriously in the eighth when Bill Matejka was hit by a pitch and Herb Trautman walked. But Don Sanford hit into a double play and Dale Graham grounded out.

It was a pitchers' duel much of the way. For Central Point Carl Hueners fanned nine batters and walked two over seven innings. John Harbour, for Glendale, whiffed 12, walked 2 and hit one.

Bob Fasel hit two for three for Central Point and T. Prestianni two for four for Glendale.

Drain Bounces Studs 7-4 in Sunday Tussle For Sweep in Series

Drain, Bandon and Roseburg swept their opening series Saturday and Sunday in the Southwestern Oregon Baseball league.

The power-packed Drain Black Sox made it two in a row over the Medford Cheney Studs by winning 7 to 4 here Sunday after copping the Saturday night 8 to 3.

Roseburg downed Coquille 7 to 1 Saturday and 12 to 0 Sunday. Dave Mann whiffed 15 Coquille batters Saturday and Mickey Coen threw a one-hitter for the Umpqua Chiefs Sunday.

Bandon defeated Coos Bay-North Bend 10 to 4 on Saturday and 5 to 3 on Sunday.

Youthful Jerry Cade allowed only five hits Sunday as the Black Sox bounced the Studs. Four of those hits, however, were in a shaky first inning when the Cheney crew picked up two runs. Cade gave up the other bingle in the fifth. He walked two in the same canto and the Studs combined the hit and walks with a fielder's choice for their other two runs.

The Sox got to Paul Gehrmann, Medford hurler, for nine hits and these were combined with Stud misplays for the Drain scoring.

Drain took the lead in the first inning with three runs on a double by Harvey Storey, hits by Ad Rutschmann and Bill Beard, a flyout and two errors. The Sox got a couple more runs in the second on an error, sacrifice by Cade, base on balls, passed ball and single by Ted Wilson.

The final two Drain runs crossed in the seventh stanza when Gehrmann gave up bingles to Rutschmann, Wilson and Don Kimball.

Clarence Mellbye, Medford first sacker, came up with the fielding gem of the afternoon with a sensational stop of a scorching grounder by Wilson and a race to the bag for an unassisted put out.

The Studs play Roseburg here next Saturday and Sunday while Coquille goes to Drain and Bandon to Brookings.

Watkins, Schuler Win Sweepstakes Action

Sam Watkins and George Schuler with a 131 net were winners in the partnership golf sweepstakes held over the weekend at Rogue Valley Country club.

Runners up were Lowell Chamberlin and Ken Teeter with a 133 net. Two pairs tied for third spot. They were Al Littrell and Ralph Pierce and Ed Brophy and Bill Kalbak. They had 136s.

A two-ball mixed foursome event is planned for Friday at 5 p.m.

Agabashian In Pole Spot

Indianapolis — (U.P.) — A low-slung diesel-powered car was a revolutionary type that was almost bumped from the field two years ago rates the coveted pole position in the 36th annual Memorial Day 500-mile Indianapolis Motor Speedway race.

Popular Freddie Agabashian, the slender, curly-haired Californian with the big grin, grabbed the advantageous spot in the first row when he blazed around the famous brick and asphalt oval in record-shattering time just before the time trials ended Saturday.

Despite a strong cross-wind, he urged the yellow and red, oil burner through the four-lap, 10-mile test at an average speed of 138.010 miles an hour. His first lap was 139.104 mph. Both times eclipsed the marks set by pin-sized Walter Faulkner of Long Beach, Calif., last year of 136.872 mph and 138.122 mph, respectively.

Moscow, Ida. — (U.P.) — University of Washington golfers were champions of the Northern Division Monday after edging the surprisingly strong University of Idaho team by one point Saturday.

Beavers, Stars Trade Hurlers

Portland — (U.P.) — Portland's and Hollywood's Pacific Coast league teams traded two pitchers Saturday night.

The Beavers traded Japhet "Red" Lynn for Royce Lint of the Stars. Lint, a lefthanded hurler, came to the Stars from the American association after five years with Indianapolis. He had a 14-3 record with that team in 1949, his best year.

Lynn goes to Hollywood after four years with Portland. He left Los Angeles for the northwest in 1949 and in the next four years had records of 6-11, 14-10, 13-12 and 3-3 so far in 1952.

The Beavers obtained Lint to replace southpaw Roy Helser, who has retired.

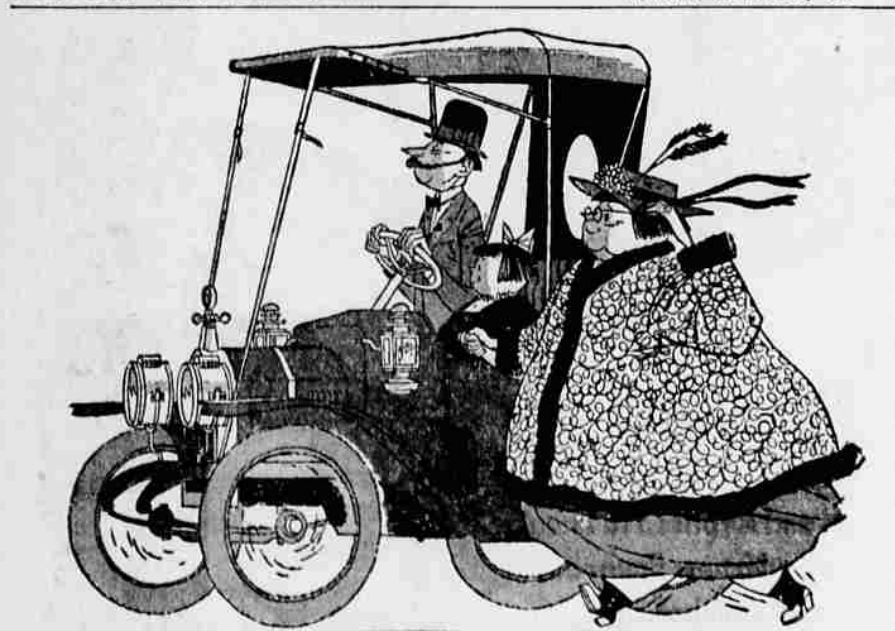

BID EYED

Seattle — (U.P.) — Seattle university hoped for a bid to the NCAA baseball playoffs Monday after the Chieftains walloped the University of Washington in a doubleheader Saturday, 2-1 and 9-1.

Tourists are welcome in Americana Samoa, provided they have round-trip tickets. Visitors who plan to stay are asked for proof of financial responsibility.
