Poppy Chairman Reminds Citizens Of Coming Sale

"Wear a poppy to honor the war dead and aid war's living victims."

This is the appeal that will be made to everyone in Medford by the American Legion auxiliary on Poppy Day, May 23 and 24. It has been announced by Mrs. Les Williams, poppy chairman of the Medford unit of the auxiliary.

Women of the auxiliary will be on the streets throughout the day, offering the symbolic memorial poppies and receiving contributions for the auxiliary's work in behalf of disabled veterans and needy children of veterans. The poppies will be crepe paper replicas of the wild poppies which grew "between the crosses, row on row," in the battle cemeteries in France and Belgium. They have been made for the auxiliary by disabled veterans of both World Wars.

"This year the poppy will have added significance because of the long lists of war dead from Korea which have been added to the heroic roll of those who have died for America," Mrs. Williams said. "Also there will be increased need for the Poppy Day contribution because of the many thousands of young men disabled in the Korean fighting. We hope that everyone will understand that the memorial poppy means honor for the nation's war dead and aid for those suffering as a result of war service, and will wear one of the little red flowers proudly on Poppy Day."

Gold Hill Woman Named Chairman For Poppy Sale

Gold Hill — Mrs. Vaughn Whitmore will be chairman for the Buddy Poppy sale to be conducted in Gold Hill Friday and Saturday by members of the Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars in Gold Hill.

Assisting Mrs. Whitmore in the sale of the poppies on the downtown streets will be Mrs. Lena Larricks, auxiliary president, Mrs. Lillie MacKay, Mrs. Orel K. Dahl, Mrs. Henry Albrecht, Mrs. Ed Shoemaker, Mrs. Theresa Short, Mrs. Reed McKay and Mrs. Fred Goodwin.

The poppies are made by veterans in hospitals and soldiers' homes. Many of those being sold in Oregon this year were made at Camp White. Money derived from the sale of the little red flowers is used for relief and rehabilitation work for veterans and their families.

Wednesday night, members of the Gold Hill VFW auxiliary will go to Camp White to attend the meeting of the Camp White VFW post, and to serve refreshments to the veterans after their meeting. This is a project carried out by VFW auxiliaries in this district, all taking turns in serving at one of the monthly meetings of the Camp White Post.

Gold Hill BPW Club Names New Officers; Invitation Accepted

Gold Hill—Mrs. Thelma Bell was elected president of Gold Hill business and Professional Women's club at a meeting held last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Joy Kruse, North 99 Highway. She will succeed Vera Stewart.

Mrs. Edith K. Graffis, secretary for the past year, was elected vice president. Mrs. Kruse was elected secretary, and Mrs. Betty Molloy was re-elected treasurer.

Mrs. Stewart announced that Grants Pass BPW club had invited the Gold Hill club to hold joint installation of officers, Tuesday, May 27, at 8 p.m. at the Library auditorium in Grants Pass. It was voted to accept the invitation.

Reports on the convention of Oregon State Federation of BPW clubs held at Klamath Falls May 9, 10 and 11 were given by the three delegates. Mrs. Stewart reported on the state election of officers and general highlights. Mrs. Bell told of the workshop held for new presidents and the changes voted in state by-laws; and Mrs. Molloy gave a report on the banquets and Fun Night festivities.

The club planned to hold a pre-summer vacation business meeting in June, when appointments of committee chairmen will be made by the new president, and the program planning work started.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Cedric Rambo was present as a guest.

As We Live

By ELIZABETH HURLOCK, PH.D.

THERE ARE TIMES WHEN REMARRIAGE IS JUSTIFIED

Most thoughtful Americans oppose divorce and remarriage, either on religious or moral grounds, or both. But, there are times when both divorce and remarriage are justified, and the following case is one of them.

(Q) "Because of my wife's repeated infidelity, I obtained an absolute divorce from her and the custody of our three sons, ranging in age from 6 to 12 years. For the past two years, things have been pretty rough. I tried every way to keep my home and boys together but after school ended last year, I knew I couldn't do it any longer. So I found a good boarding home with a family atmosphere for the boys and sold my home and furnishings. It was like cutting off my right arm. Because I was unable to keep my home and family together, I have a strong inferiority complex which keeps me from going out. How can I overcome this?"

(A) Your inability to keep your home and family together was not your fault. The blame rests solely on your wife's shoulders. You did all you could but sometimes circumstances make failure inevitable.

Anyone who knew the circumstances would certainly feel only pity, not reproach, for you. The very fact that the court granted you an absolute divorce and the custody of all your children shows that you were blameless in this affair. That should conquer your feeling of inadequacy as a husband and father.

But, this arrangement should be only an emergency one. For the sake of your children, you should re-establish a home for them as soon as possible. And, the only way to do this is to remarry. Regardless of your moral and religious beliefs, circumstances justify a remarriage. Even your strictest critics could not feel that it was wrong when the lives of three young children, who are victims of their mother's behavior, are involved.

Your minister should be of great help to you in meeting women of the right kind who would welcome the opportunity to give your sons what they are now deprived of, a home and mother love. Discuss this matter with him and ask his help.
