Matthews Takes Decision In Fight With Rex Layne

Portland — (U.P.) — Harry (Kid) Matthews, Seattle, catapulted his chances for a shot at the heavyweight crown with a unanimous 10-round decision over Rex Layne of Lewiston, Utah, Monday night before a sellout crowd of 10,600.

Matthews, 15 pounds lighter and six years older, started slowly but gained strength to leave Layne bleeding from his left eye and lip as the fight ended, Matthews was unmarked.

Layne Floored
The Seattle heavy, 183½, furnished the only knockdown of the fight when he floored Layne, 198½, with a hard one-two in the second round.

Layne, 23, shot the first telling punch of the fight in the first round with a crunching left that slammed the 29-year-old Seattle fighter against the ropes. But Matthews rallied and never was in trouble again.

He repeatedly jolted Layne with a short jab which had him visibly tired after the fourth round.

Appeared Tired
The Utah slugger regained some strength in the ninth and when Matthews became over-eager, caught the Seattle ringster with several punishing blows.

Matthews quickly recovered however and Layne found himself on the end of a knee-buckling right near the end of the round.

The final round was a slugfest all the way with both fighters trading punches until the final bell.

Better Than Marciano
When newsmen talked to Layne in his dressing room after the fray, he said, "Matthews is a better fighter than Marciano. He is clever and hits about as hard as Marciano, but Ezzard Charles is the best I've ever met in the ring."

"Matthew's left was so fast I couldn't get out of the way of it," Layne said.

The fight set a new gate receipt record for Portland with $71,711 in paid attendance.

Wilson Brothers To Hear Execution Date on Thursday

Vancouver, Wash. — (U.P.) — Clark County Superior Court Judge Eugene G. Cushing will set a new date Thursday for execution of Utah and Turman Wilson.

The Wilson brothers were convicted in June, 1950, of the kidnap-murder of JoAnn Dewey, Meadowglade, Wash., girl.

The Wilsons' appearance in the superior court will be the third time the Camas, Wash., brothers have heard the judge, who presided at their trial almost two years ago, set dates for their double hanging.

Writ of Review Refused
An order to send the two men here was signed Monday after the U. S. Supreme court had refused to honor a petition for a writ of review of the Wilsons' convictions in 1950.

It was the second time the high court had refused to act on petitions directed toward winning a new trial. Attorneys for the brothers also unsuccessfully appealed to the Washington State Supreme court.

A little time was given
To me to have your love.
A little time for laughter,
A little time to sing,
A little time to kiss and cling
And no more kissing after.
But long, long years to weep in
And comprehend the whole
Great grief that desolates the soul
And eternity to sleep in.

to the adults of the household? Does he wash, iron, cook, mend and do a million things kids require? Does he have to plan to have the four youngsters get the right nourishment, entertainment and what not? All this comes under the head of housework and is still not all of it. The average wife and mother is lucky if she gets time to wash her face. Why don't men stop picking on women and admit we've got more on the ball than they have? Sometimes I think I could easily become a man hater."

So They Say
Aries (March 21-April 20) women are usually very intelligent, smart lookers and have good taste in dress, interior decoration, etc. However, it takes a husband of strong character to hold his rightful position as head of the household if he has an Aries wife. Women of that sign are inclined to be dominating. They also have a desire to make a man over, to mould him into their idea of what a husband should be. Aries women are great party givers. Their object is not so much to entertain as to show off their possessions. They do not approve of a husband having a night out by himself. They fancy themselves as child rearing experts and resent any interference by the husband in that department. They like to flirt a little but will not tolerate anything like that on the part of their husbands. Most Aries women marry more than once, or so say the stargazers. (Note—Mary Pickford-Gloria Swanson and Bette Davis are Aries-born.)

Asking
Queries from clients. Q. What is the meaning of "eighty-six" as called out by bartenders and fountain lunch attendants? A. Seems to have various meanings in different sections. Most common meaning is that the place has run out of what has been ordered. In bars it sometimes means not to serve a certain customer any more liquor. Q. Did John Barrymore ever appear in a musical show and do a song and dance in same? A. Yes, sir. In the show titled "A Stubborn Cinderella," John Barrymore did a song and dance. The feminine star was Sallie Fisher.

Intelligence
Intelligence and knowledge are often confused. Many educated men are not very intelligent. We all know stupid college graduates. Intelligence is the ability to get the most out of what you know. As a class the most intelligent men are the mechanics.

Please Note
If you can't figure out an invention, why not turn your thoughts to originating a way to make it possible to sell a popular product at a lower price than is now the practice? That is, of course, what Henry Ford did. A more recent example is a man who originated a method of making a harmonica so it could be sold for a price much less than that charged by other manufacturers. This man has become a
