VFW Auxiliary Sets Annual Sale Of Buddy Poppies

Ladies' auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign wars has planned the annual sale of Buddy poppies Friday and Saturday, May 23 and 24.

Mrs. Jack Brummond, chairman, states that funds realized from the sale are used for relief work and for the national home at Eaton Rapids, Mich., for widows and orphans of veterans. "When you meet the ladies with their baskets of Buddy poppies, we hope you will give generously," Mrs. E. Walter, auxiliary president, stated yesterday. "The poppy is a tribute to the memory of those who have spent their lives in service to God, country and home. Knowing this, no one should be without a Buddy poppy."

Past Presidents Club Makes Plans for Picnic

Past President club of Degree of Honor members made plans for a picnic to be held in the near future when they met recently in the home of Mrs. Charles Pitts near Savage Rapids.

Court of Awards Planned by Troop; Dinner Held Monday

Jacksonville — Girl Scout Troop 49 of Jacksonville will hold a court of awards in the school music room at 7:30 p.m. Monday May 26, Mrs. David Wienecke is the troop leader. Parents and friends are invited.

Monday, May 19, the troop met for a dinner in the school home economics room. Mrs. John Neidermeyer, Mrs. Fred Edens and Mrs. Marian Neidermeyer were hostesses for the dinner.

The event, termed "pig night," was for the purpose of troop members practicing all the points of table etiquette which they learned while earning their hostess badges. Piggy banks named for the occasion, "etti" and "cut," were placed on the table and for each mistake in etiquette which the troops members made they placed a penny in the bank. Mr. Neidermeyer, Mr. Edens and Mr. Wienecke were dinner guests and Judy Hall was program aide.

Members of Mrs. Wienecke's troop are Joyce Sandell, Marjorie Edens, Edna Welch, Nancy Neidermeyer, Evelyn Neidermeyer, Natasha Bulkin, Jeanie Misener, Linda Hardy, Linda Bishop, Karen Frohs, Robin Wyatt, Kathleen Davis, Marsha Minshall, Judy Iverson, Clara Mae Anderson and Toni Tweedy.

May 16 the Jacksonville Brownie troop led by Mrs. John Neidermeyer and Mrs. Wienecke's scout troop held a Juliette Low tea and "fly up" at the Presbyterian church recreation rooms.

Brownies who "flew up" or became intermediate scouts were Heather Norris, Patty Misener, Judy Matheny, Judith Robbins, Kathleen Dowd, Rita McBeth, Vivian Brisbane and Nancy Weter.

Troop 49 members welcomed the new scouts and pinned on their wing badges after Nancy Lou Harter, "the fairy," had indicated with her wand the Brownies who were to become scouts.

Entertainment was by both Brownies and the welcoming troop. Mrs. John Carter, district Juliette Low chairman, spoke.

Mrs. Emil Sandell poured punch for the refreshment hour at the close of the event.

District Session Presbyterian Club Held in Medford

More than 100 persons attended a district meeting of Mariners' clubs of the southwest Oregon district held in First Presbyterian church, Medford, Sunday night.

New officers were elected for the coming year. They are Mr. and Mrs. Hab Wilson, Malin, skippers; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Voris, Ashland, first mates; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Slater, Medford, logkeepers; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Weigart, Rogue River, pursers; the Rev. Duwain L. Proett, Klamath Falls, chaplain. The Rev. D. Kirkland West, Medford, installed the new officers.

The Rev. Mr. West gave the opening invocation, and a welcome was extended by Pete Petri, retiring district skipper. The response was by Mr. Wilson. A talk on "Music Hath Charms" was given by the Rev. Vernon Wilcox of Medford Nazarene church, who illustrated his message with piano selections. Harvey Fields sang two numbers.

The dinner invocation was by the Rev. A. L. Marquam, Grants Pass, and devotionals by the Rev. D. F. Barnett, Rogue River.

Trinity Trio directed by Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, sang three numbers. Mrs. H. Chandler Drew was accompanist.

Mrs. William Kerns, took charge of the dinner; tables, Mrs. Wayne Carter; dining room, Mrs. Slater and music, Mrs. Frohnmayer.

Talent Juniors Give Banquet and Dance In Honor of Seniors

Talent — The junior class of Talent High school feted members of the senior class and the faculty at a banquet and prom at the Ashland Elks club May 14.

A rainbow theme was used for programs, place cards and candles and multi-colored flowers decorated the tables and the banquet room.

The invocation was given by Rolly Hartley, and Earl Tyckson welcomed the guests and served as toastmaster. Kenneth Reynolds responded. During the banquet program the history of the senior class was read by Rolly Hartley. Lloyd Blair talked on how the class benefited the school. Miss Joanne Joanis gave the class will. Miss Shirlee Brown read the class prophecy and Michael DeNoma gave a review of sports.

Bill Abbot's orchestra furnished music for dancing. A large paper balloon was filled with smaller balloons and at a chosen moment these were released and floated about the room. In keeping with the rainbow theme the orchestra played "Over the Rainbow."

In addition to juniors and seniors, freshmen and sophomores were also invited to attend the event. Other guests were Superintendent and Mrs. R. B. Parr, Dr. and Mrs. Loren Messenger, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. George Bray, Mr. Elrod and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Schopfer.

Meeting Announced For Missionary Union

Women's Missionary union of Medford Friends church will meet Friday, May 23 for an all day meeting in the home of Mrs. Nellie Smith, 2651 Howard avenue. There will be a potluck luncheon at noon and a business meeting and period of devotionals. There also will be a program.
