Pep Winner By Decision

Willie Pep's famed boxing prowess carried him a little further along the comeback trail Thursday as a result of his clear-cut 10-round victory over hard-hitting Claude Hammond of North Bergen, N. J.

Hammond, who had kayoed 12 of his previous 30 rivals—six of them in the first round, tried to blast little Willie, the former featherweight champion, right from the opening bell.

But the veteran from Hartford, Conn., neatly sidestepped Hammond's rushes and speared him with brilliant jabs to take charge of the fight. Hammond never stopped boring in, but it was Pep who landed the hardest blow of the fight—a booming right to the jaw in the fifth round that knocked Hammond from one rope to the other in the corner.

EVANS PURCHASED

Seattle — (U.P.) — The Seattle Rainiers have purchased right-hander Bill Evans from the Boston Red Sox in an attempt to bolster the Suds' unsteady pitching staff. Rainier General Manager Earl Sheely announced Thursday, Evans, currently with Louisville of the American Association, played with Sacramento of the PCL in 1950.

Studs Entertain Roseburg At Fairgrounds on Sunday

A team regarded as the best balanced in the Southwestern Oregon circuit will scuffle with the Medford Cheney Studs in a two-game series this week-end. The frays will be at the fairgrounds baseball park here at 8 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday, and the rivals will be the Roseburg Uniqua Chiefs.

A powerful hitting club is fielded by Roseburg as evidenced by 27 hits that contributed to ward 19 runs in the opening series against Coquille. The Chiefs have good pitching, also, in Dave Mann and Mickey Coen, with Buzz Sporer in reserve. Mann allowed five hits in his turn on the mound and Coen permitted only one.

Oregon Prep Baseballers Open Tourney

Albany, Ore. — (U.P.) — The Oregon high school baseball players' "World Series" opened here Thursday with four games launching the three-day annual prep tournament.

Eight teams were entered in the tournament, but no matter which squad comes through the finale to victory, the state crown will be worn on a new head. Grant, last year's champ, fell by the wayside in a playoff with Roseburg for Portland's No. 2 spot.

No Ex-Champ

None of the schools reaching the tournament this year has ever won a state title in the six previous times an official state diamond playoff has been conducted.

Thursday's schedule pitted The Dalles against Medford and Central versus Roseburg in the afternoon, West Linn versus Lincoln at 7 p.m., and Junction City versus Albany at 9 p.m. Times are Pacific daylight.

JDJ League Track Meet On Saturday

The annual JDJ league track and field meet will be held Saturday at Grants Pass with Sutherlin the defending champion.

Preliminaries will get underway at 10 a.m. with finals set to start at 3 p.m.

Entries in addition to the defenders will be Crater, Illinois Valley, Myrtle Creek and Eagle Point. Full teams are expected from each school, according to Ed Knapp, Crater coach, who is in charge of the meet. He will have 28 boys in the event.

Scrap Seen

A spirited scrap for the title is expected among Sutherlin, Illinois Valley and Crater. Sutherlin was second to the host team in the recent Roseburg invitation.

One of the top performers in the meet is Jim Halfhill, Crater, who was second in the quarter-mile in the state contest. He will vie in 100-yard dash and broad jump, also.

Officials for the annual competition include Jess Loffer, starter; Leonard Warren, clerk; Arthur Straus, scorer; Herb Elliott, recorder; and Jack Woodward, chief timer. Other timers will be Alton Schopfer, Robert Sage, Alf Melkold and Clarence Melbye.

July Matthews-Marciano Fight In New York Seen as Possible

Seattle, Wash. — (U.P.) — Poked-faced Jack Hurley nearly smiled Thursday as he considered the increasing likelihood of a million-dollar July fight between his Harry (Kid) Matthews and Rocky Marciano in New York.

The wily manager of the Seattle heavyweight said it appeared that the breach with the International Boxing club would be healed. IBC president Jim Norris telephoned Wednesday night to invite Hurley to New York to discuss a Matthews-Marciano fight.

Volunteers Given Instructions in Rescue Technique

Washington — (U.P.) — A building project of "bomb ruins" is rising at Olney, Md., to instruct civilian defense volunteers in the best methods of rescue technique.

At the federal civil defense staff college at Olney, the government is spending about $200,000 on a stretch of ruins to be used in simulated disaster classes.

Five buildings representing a cross-section of American architecture, from a four-family brick house to a five-story reinforced concrete building, will be ready by July in their new but shattered shapes.

To Be Realistic

To emphasize the most realistic destruction possible, the trainees will encounter, during a theoretical air attack and its consequent search for "victims," the sound of planes and exploding bombs and fires in the streets. Once in the wrecked buildings, they will face jagged girders, tons of rubble, broken water mains flooding the basements, leaky gas pipes requiring the use of gas masks, and live wires which give the careless trainee a mild shock.

This project is a result of intensive planning. The irregularity of construction has required special skill because these "permanent wrecks" must be structurally sound models that will be put to constant use.

Get Ideas Abroad

Civilian Defense Agency (CDA) members travelled to Japan and Europe to view the results of bomb — and atom-scared buildings. They also visited England's famous model "bombed village," Fairfield, for ideas on the first U.S. rescue "street."

The builders of the project claim that it is more difficult than straight building because the substantial "alterations" must withstand continuous demonstrations. The steel beams, for instance, though twisted and broken must, at the same time, perform the load-bearing functions.

Plans Told For Play-Off In District

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Playoffs for the right to represent the world series of college play-offs were announced Thursday by selection committee chairman Clint Evans.

The series will be held in Omaha June 12-16.

The Schedule:

USC, winner of the southern division of the Pacific Coast conference, will play the northern division winner—either Washington, Oregon or Oregon State—in a best two-of-three series on the latter's field, May 30-31. The series will also decide the Coast conference champion.

2—Fresno State will play the winner of the California Collegiate Athletic association—either Santa Barbara or San Diego State—at Fresno May 26-27 in a two out of three game series.

Seattle To Play

3 — Seattle University will play the winner of No. 2 on the latter's grounds on May 30-31 in a best two out of three game series. The dates may be shifted to June 2-3.

4—The PCC champion winner of No. 1 will play the winner of No. 3 on the PCC champion's diamond June 6-7, best two out of three to decide the eighth district championship.

Evans said the selection committee realized that Fresno State or the CAA champion would have to play two series as against one for Seattle to get into the finals. The committee tried to balance this off by scheduling them the home grounds advantage.

THEY QUICKEN QUICK

Hartford, Conn. — (U.P.) — A group of high school students is putting out a magazine which they say can be read more quickly than "Quick." They call it "Pifu."

Hurley said Norris told him he wanted to discuss terms for a match to be held in one of the New York ball parks. This could be a million-dollar gate, Hurley said.

"Norris also offered congratulations for Harry's win over Rex Layne Monday in Portland," Hurley said. It was the Kid's 78th professional victory.

Hurley said he would leave for New York this weekend and expected to confer with Norris next Tuesday. He said he hoped to have the fight signed within a week.

Indian Affairs Director Denies Fraud Knowledge

Portland — (U.P.) — A director of Indian affairs for the Pacific Northwest states denied Wednesday that he knew Mrs. Ernestine Siniscal was not the actual purchaser of 800 acres of Indian timberland near Gold Beach, Ore.

"There were no papers in the files to indicate this sale was to anyone but Mrs. Siniscal," E. Morgan Pryse told a federal court hearing a federal suit to void the sale of the land on grounds of fraud.

Swamped With Work

He told Judge Gus J. Solomon he was swamped with work after returning from a trip to Washington, D. C., when he signed the papers executing the sale.

The government charges the land was sold to Mrs. Siniscal, an Indian, to comply with bureau regulations that such sales without public bid must be to Indians.

Testimony showed that a cashier's check for $135,000, purchased by Henry B. Taylor, The Dalles, and made out to the treasurer of the United States, was given Francis La France, Indian Bureau employee and another for $25,000 was made out to Mrs. Siniscal.

Mrs. Siniscal transferred title to the land the same day she bought it to Taylor and his wife. Also on the same day, William Brenner and Fred M. Marsh took an option to buy it for $300,000. The option has lapsed.

Akron Ready for Annual Extermination of Rats

Akron, O. — (U.P.) — This city is getting ready for its semi-annual rat extermination campaign, which, since a municipal anti-rodent program was set up in 1945, has cut the rat population from some 500,000 to 75,000.

Jess Straitiff, in charge of the program, has city prisoners preparing poison "kisses," wrapped in paper, to be strewn on municipal property and in public buildings.

The energetic exterminator figures one pair of rats can produce some 259,000,000 offspring.

HONESTY PAYS OFF

Bloomington, Ill. — (U.P.) — Honesty paid off for a gas station owner, Harold Snearly. Snearly chased one of his customers nearly 10 miles to return the man's billfold, containing $675, which had dropped from his pocket. The man gave Snearly a $50 reward.

60-SECOND TASTE TEST SHOWS HOW TO... Be your own whiskey expert!

1. Have 1/4 oz. of Calvert put in one glass and the same amount of any other whiskey in another — without knowing which is which.

3. Taste the other whiskey in the same analytical way — then pick the one that really tastes better to you.

It gives this old familiar sign new meaning

WOULD you be interested in getting one gallon free with each tankful of gasoline you buy?

Then we can tell you this: It will certainly be worth your while to read this brief story of Buick's new Airpower carburetor.

Truth is—a skillful driver can just about double the bonus we mention, if he makes the most of what this year's ROADMASTER has to offer.

The reason you can get such a bonus traces to a pair of simple facts:

- (1) It's a mixture of gasoline and air that gives you power.
- (2) Buick engineers have come up with a four-barrel automatic carburetor that lets you use more gallons of air per gallon of fuel.

Most of the time, only two of these barrels are needed—and they feed such a thrifty mixture that you use less gasoline at 40 mph than you'd formerly use at 30.

But—when you want a quick burst of eager power—you can double the air supply as well as the gasoline feed—and come up with the highest horsepower that Buick's Fireball 8 Engine ever delivered.

Of course, any man who's buying a car as fine as a ROADMASTER wants a lot more than extra miles from a tankful of gas.

He wants the distinction of extra room, extra comfort, richer fabrics and all the other refinements that make a car truly fine.

He wants to ride with solid security, confident poise and lordly silence.

And, while he may not admit it, he yearns for a car that's full of fun.

All this, we promise you, and more will be yours when you take the responsive wheel of a ROADMASTER.

How about doing that—soon?
