Obituary

ELWELL NASH
Funeral services for Elwell B. Nash, 52, of 32 South Columbus avenue, a life-long resident of Medford who died in Portland Friday, will be held at Perl funeral home Saturday at 2 p.m. with the Rev. D. E. Millard officiating. Interment will be in Medford IOOF cemetery.

The deceased, a veteran of World War I with the Marine Corps, was born on May 27, 1899. He had been a hotel clerk and had taught music for some time. He was a member of Medford Post 15, American Legion. His father, John Nash, built the Nash hotel, now known as the Allen hotel, in Medford.

Survivors include his wife, Sarah, Medford, and his mother, Mrs. Ella B. Nash, San Diego, Calif.

JOHN MARDON

Funeral services for John H. Mardon, 84, who died Tuesday, will be held in the Gold Hill IOOF hall Friday at 3 p.m. with the Odd Fellows lodge conducting the services. Committal will be held in Rock Point cemetery at Gold Hill. Conger-Morris funeral home is in charge of funeral arrangements.

The deceased was born in Plumas county, California, on July 16, 1868, and had lived in southern Oregon for 75 years, working for many years as a blacksmith. He was a long-time member of the IOOF lodge. His wife, the former Lola Belle Galbraith, died in 1921.

Survivors include a son, John T., Medford; a daughter, Mrs. Elsie Cameron, Gold Hill; two stepchildren, Mrs. Hazel Collins, Seattle, and William Foster, Gold Hill; a brother, George T., Gold Hill; three grandchildren, Mrs. Donald Dusenberry, Gold Hill; Mrs. L. G. Govreau, Rogue River; and John Cameron, Gold Hill, and two great-grandchildren, Douglas L. Dusenberry, Gold Hill and Debra Govreau, Rogue River.

EDWARD MACMAHON

Services for Edward W. MacMahon, 59, who died Monday at Camp White, will be held in Camp White Chapel Friday at 1 p.m. (2 p.m. Camp White time) with Chaplain Henry W. Anderson officiating. Committal will be in the Camp White cemetery. Conger-Morris funeral home is in charge of funeral arrangements. Mr. MacMahon was born Sept. 2, 1892, in Kansas City, Mo. He was a veteran of World War I, having served a total of four enlistments in the Navy between 1909 and 1923, and attaining the rating of Boatsman's Mate Second Class.

He is survived by a daughter, Rhoda, Chicago, Ill.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—FIFTEEN

Shady Cove-Trail News

Shady Cove-Trail—Claude Hunt is reported to be ill at his home in Shady Cove.
Mr. and Mrs. Dal Dalporto of Sacramento, Calif., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Parrick of Trail.

The fourth annual Mother's day tea was given by Brownie Scout Troop No. 83 on May 9 at Shady Cove schoolhouse with 71 members and guests present. An investiture and candlelight service was presented with pins being given to 24 Brownie Scouts by Mrs. C. Allen, Girl Scout leader. The troop thanked all the teachers for their help and cooperation throughout the year, also the sponsoring organization, the Shady Cove PTA. Special thanks were extended to Mrs. E. W. Segessenman, Mrs. O. S. Krotz, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Holcomb, Mrs. T. M. Littlefield, Mrs. Jerry Hicks and Mrs. Ted Conway and Mrs. Max Hawks and her 4-H cooking class, who set the tables and served refreshments. Mrs. Ray Briggs

Prisoners' Blood Found Better Than Free Citizens

Parchman, Miss.—(U.P.)—Convicts at Parchman Penitentiary, Mississippi's sprawling prison farm, have better blood than free citizens.
The Red Cross, which solicited donations among the prisoners, rejected only 17 per cent of volunteers compared with 30 per cent rejections elsewhere in the state.

Prison physicians said the convicts are healthier than free men because "they go to bed early, have plenty of fresh vegetables and get plenty of exercise."

Bank President Objects To Sign Placed on Door

Memphis, Tenn.—(U.P.)—One of the doors to the remodeled Union Planters National Bank had been giving trouble and an employee who feared further use would damage it put a big "Keep Out" sign across the door.
The bank president spotted the sign and let out a yell.
"We spend thousands of dollars advertising, asking people to come in to see us," he said. "Now what have we here? A big sign saying 'Keep Out.'"
A new sign went up. It read: "Please Use Other Door."

Communications

Not All Happy
To the Editor: In regard to the fact that the Mayor's office has received calls only from people who are happy with his decision on D. S. time, is by no means an indication that we are all happy about it, but feel there is no use in crying over spilled milk.

There are still a number of us who think that if Mayor Flynn and the City Council believe that their first duty is to the people living in outlying and rural districts, instead of to the citizens and business people within the City of Medford, then I say let the rural districts put them in office on the next election day.

Mrs. J. M. Shouts, Spring St. Drive, Medford, Ore.

has served on the Brownie troop committee five years. Mrs. Andrew Brown four years and Mrs. Ralph Lane has completed four years as Brownie Scout leader. The latter was presented lovely gifts from the troop and Shady Grove PTA.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Lillywhite of Medford have purchased a home from Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brewster of Trail. This is the house which the George Jacksons formerly rented from the Brewsters. The Lillywhites are adding on to the house and plan to move in about June 1.

Mrs. Dale Sawyer has just returned from Sacramento, Calif., where she attended the wedding of her niece, Miss Joan Green of Sacramento to Harold T. Baldwin of Sacramento. The double ring ceremony took place May 16 at the Asbury Methodist church in El Paso Heights, Sacramento, with the Rev. Moore officiating. The couple went on a honeymoon to Santa Cruz, Calif., after which Mr. Baldwin was to return to El Toro Marine base, where he is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reek of Klamath Falls were guests of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene House of Shady Cove on Mothers day. They also visited their other daughter, Mrs. Darrold Barker of Shady Cove.

Mrs. Dick Bartus of Shady Cove left May 20 for Portland where she will receive medical treatment.

Miss Ann Sanford, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Sanford was one of the students presented in a violin and voice recital by the Musical Arts Studio at the First Christian church in Medford on May 20.

Dr. and Mrs. Verne Wilson of Shady Cove have as guests Mrs. Wilson's aunt and uncle, Miss Ann Forbes and Cap Forbes, both of San Diego, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steeves and daughter, Lisa of Salem were recent guests of Mrs. Steeves' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Rodgers of Trail.

Nevita Social club held a square dance and party on May 17 at Upper Rogue Grange hall. Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Grow and family are living in the old Puddycumb residence on top of the hill overlooking the Shady Cove postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Omo of Rogue River Drive, Shady Cove, have sold their home to Don Stewart of Medford, who expects to move in about June 1. Mr. Stewart is employed by Fluhrer's bakery.
