Indians Nip Medford in Mound Duel

Albany, Ore. —(U.P.)— A no-hitter by Jerry Aman of Lincoln high sparked action in the Oregon high school baseball tournament here Thursday as The Dalles, Roosevelt and Albany joined the Cards in the winner's circle.

The Dalles will face Roosevelt and Lincoln will go against Albany tonight. Finals are Saturday night.

Lincoln shut out West Linn 8-0. The Dalles edged Medford 2-1. Roosevelt took Central Catholic 6-2 and Albany waxed Junction City 14-3.

Errorless
Aman's teammates backed him up with errorless ball and no West Linn player got past first base. He fanned 11 men.

The tourney's opening game saw The Dalles' Eddie Urness win a pitchers duel from Medford's Derald Wooton. Urness gave up four hits and Wooton allowed five.

Roosevelt's Bill Wittala pitched shutout ball against Central Catholic after the first inning, notching a five-hitter.

The final game of the day was called at the end of the sixth because of Albany's overwhelming lead. Only two of the winner's 14 runs were earned.

Terrific Duel
Medford's loss to The Dalles pushed the Black Tornado out of the tournament.

The contest was a terrific duel between Urness and Wooton. Urness fanned 11 and Wooton 12. Wooton walked three and Urness hit one batter. In the first frame the Medford chucker fanned three batters and walked one. The procedure was repeated in the second inning.

The Indians got their two runs in the fourth inning and one of the tallies was earned. Dave Jones hit a fly that fell for a double then Bill Moore doubled him home. Terry Zieglerman hit a bouncer to Shortstop Dennis Conner, whose throw was way over the head of first baseman Ned Landers. That allowed More to cross with what proved to be the winning run.

Medford scored in the second inning when Terry Sherwood tripled and stole home. Ned and Ted Landers and Terry Maddox got the other Medford hits.

LINE SCORE:
The Dalles — 000 200 0—2 5 0
Medford — 010 000 0—1 4 3
Urness and Hyde; D. Wooton and R. Wooton.

Ezzard Charles Works for Speed

Pleasantville, N. J. —(U.P.)— Ezzard Charles is striving so desperately for speed with which to beat Jersey Joe Walcott that some of his quickening efforts here seem ludicrous.

Never before has Ezzard of Cincinnati appeared so frantic, so inaccurate and so lacking in ring-poise as during his current sparring sessions at Mrs. Laoma Byrd's camp.

He believes his headlong hunt for speed will sharpen him properly for his attempt to recapture the heavyweight crown from 38-year-old Walcott at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium, June 5. No other heavyweight ever won back the title.

Convinced
Although Charles is nearly eight years younger than the champ, he is convinced he must have lightning in his fists and in his feet in order to beat the still explosive and "surprisingly aggressive" Walcott in their fourth meeting.

"It was Walcott's unexpected aggressiveness and my own unexpected lack of speed that brought about my knockout at Pittsburgh last July," Ezzard explained Friday.

Portlanders Victors 4-2 Over Seals

San Francisco —(U.P.)— Even Ty Cobb, who thinks modern-day baseball is declining, would have to approve of the scores of Thursday night's Pacific Coast league games. They were close, respectable contests, and the results could easily have been reversed in the final innings.

Examples: Chuck Stevens' triple in the ninth set up Hollywood's 1-0 victory over Seattle. It took Sacramento 10 panels to down Los Angeles, 4-2, on catcher Jim McKeegan's two-run single.

And, in other closies, Portland came from behind to defeat San Francisco, 4-2, on two big Seal errors, and San Diego torpedooed Oakland, 5-3. The victory allowed the Pads to stretch their league lead to a game-and-a-half.

Almost Out
Stevens, a clever first baseman, nearly drove the ball out of the park. He pulled up at third, from where he scored on Jack Phillips' single down the third base line.

The game was a duel between winner Johnny Lindell, the veteran knuckleballer, and right-hander Al Widmar, who came to Seattle from the St. Louis Browns.

Sacramento managed to get into extra innings on home runs by Danny Litwhiler, the ex-Oak, and manager Joe Gordon. However, it was Los Angeles that tied the contest in the eighth. Chuck Connors' single sending home the clincher and moving the contest into overtime.

San Francisco, aiming at its fifth straight, blew a two-run lead and then walked away from the victory in the sixth. First baseman Hank Biasatti dropped Joe Brovia's pop fly and the Davenport Demon scored when shortstop Len Ratto transgressed on Eddie Basinski's infield tap.

Then — surprise, surprise — winning pitcher Red Adams squeezed home Portland's fourth run and beat out the bunt for a base hit.

San Diego's Al Olson gave Oakland three runs in the second inning before he calmed down. His mates got him the victory in one scoring five times in the fourth. All the runs were unearned, stemming from Eddie Lake's error at shortstop on a two-out chance.
