

Plan Service—Royal Neighbor Juvenile club will hold a memorial service Saturday, May 24, at 2 p. m. at the KP hall. Degree of Honor Junior club members will be guests. All Royal Neighbors and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Local and Personal

Assumes Name—Omar E. Fuller, route 1, box 203, Gold Hill, has filed an application in the county clerk's office for assumption of the business name of Fuller's Famous Sweeping compound.

Business Changes—Pauline M. Stine, 625 Franquette street, has applied for the assumed business name of Rogue Valley Greenhouse and Florists, Lloyd H. and Dorothy B. Morris have retired from the same business name.

Son Here—Ned Vilas, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Vilas, rancher, is spending a leave in Medford with his parents and other relatives. The young man has been stationed at Randolph field, Texas, with the United States air force. At the end of his leave he will report at Topeka, Kan., and from there will be sent to Korea for overseas duty.

Son Leaves—Eugene Winkle, an Air Force staff sergeant, left by car today for Fairbanks, Alaska, after visiting here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Winkle, 1042 Winchester avenue. He has been stationed in the Alaska city for 2 1/2 years and is a ground forces photographic specialist. He made the trip to the states by plane and will make his return by driving up the Alaska highway. He is a former Medford Mail Tribune carrier.

Credit Woman—The Credit Women's Breakfast club will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Jackson hotel.

Medical Patient—Mrs. R. R. Pettit, Central Point, was admitted last evening to Osteopathic hospital for medical treatment, according to attendants.

New Employee—Miss Bonnie Dallaire, Medford high school senior, is a new part time employee at the Medford Flower shop. Following graduation she is to be employed there full time.

Leave—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren, Tacoma, Wash., left today after visiting since Wednesday with Mrs. Addie Shannon, Jacksonville. Mrs. Shannon and the Warrens formerly were neighbors in Seattle.

Returns—Carl Tengwald of the Tengwald Insurance agency, and member of the state real estate commission, returned yesterday after four days in Salem and Portland. With other commission members he helped conduct state real estate examinations.

Permits Granted—Permits to construct $3,000 swimming pools have been granted by the city to C. A. Hubbard, 2451 Lyman avenue, and William Barker, 2430 Hillcrest road, according to records on file in the city building department.

Pomeroy Here—Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pomeroy and his mother, Mrs. E. H. Pomeroy, Santa Barbara, Calif., arrived Sunday to visit until after Memorial day. They are former residents and are staying during their visit at route 2, box 427. They are visiting numerous friends.

Rummage Sale—A rummage sale will be conducted by the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary Monday, May 26, at the Pythian building, Fifth and Grape streets. Anyone having rummage available for the sale is requested to call Medford 2-5305 or 2-7275.

From Long Beach—Mrs. Pete Nelson, Evelyn apartments, returned Wednesday after visiting 10 days in Long Beach, Calif., with her mother, Mrs. Laura Christenson. Mrs. Nelson made the trip to be with her for Mother's day. Mrs. Christenson will arrive here about July 1 for her annual summer visit with the Nelsons.

Pankey Cemetery—Residents of Sams Valley are sponsoring a meeting Sunday afternoon, May 25, at 2:30 p. m. at the Pankey cemetery to form a cemetery association to care for the historic cemetery in that area. It is planned to form an organized group that will assume responsibility for the care and preservation of the burial ground where many pioneer valley residents are buried. Interested families are invited to take an active part in the project.

YMCA Picnic—A picnic lunch will feature family night at 6:30 p. m. today at the Medford YMCA. Those attending are to bring their own lunches and coffee will be furnished. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Albert are in charge of refreshments. A moving picture on child safety will be shown and Earl Lawson, local radiologist, will give a brief talk.

Tonsils Removed—Four youngsters had tonsillectomies today at Community hospital, the hospital reported. They were Sally Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Lane, 340 Mae street; Robert Casad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Casad, route 1, box 399A; Carla Misenhimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Misenhimer, 307 Clark street, and Patrick Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stevenson, 703 Clark street.

Correct Numbers—Telephone numbers for appointments for the Central Point summer roundup, May 26 and 27 are 823X, Central Point, Mrs. Lewis Kilbourn; and Medford 3-1139, Mrs. Bruce Stuart. The numbers were given incorrectly in yesterday's Mail Tribune. Parents of all youngsters who will enter school next fall are asked to take them to the roundup, a clinic to be held in the school gymnasium at Central Point from 9:30 a. m. to 4 p. m. Monday and 9:30 to 11:30 a. m. Tuesday. Dr. A. Erin Merkel, county health officer, will be in charge.

From Seattle—Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Casey left yesterday after visiting with Mrs. Ruby Rundle, 122 South Grape street. Mrs. Casey formerly lived here and operated the present Craterian Beauty salon.

Group To Meet—Living Foods group will meet Monday, May 28, in the home of Dr. and Mrs. George S. Jennings, Saginaw drive, at 8 p. m. Mrs. Celia Massey, Grants Pass, who recently attended a national convention of the group, will give a report of the sessions. Grants Pass members have been invited to attend.

On Display—Crafts done by fifth and sixth grade students at Lincoln school now are on display at the Walt Young Medford Stationery store. One exhibit is of masks, relief maps and art objects done by art classes under Mrs. H. Hohensee, art teacher, and Mrs. J. Rosling, art supervisor. The other is of an oil well project done by the social studies class of the fifth grade with E. Ludwig as the teacher.

Community Dairy Show Scheduled

A community dairy show sponsored by the Rogue River Jersey Cattle club will be held at Norman Gail's Gailand ranch, four miles south of Gold Hill on Highway 99, at 10 a. m. tomorrow, according to R. H. Cate Jr., county agent in 4-H work. The show will be for all breeds with members from Jackson and Josephine counties invited.

Judging and showmanship classes will be held with ribbons going to top honor winners. Jens Svith, western representative of the American Jersey Cattle club, will be the judge. Members bringing their own cattle are reminded of the health requirements for such shows, with special notice for the necessity for a clean test for brucellosis within 60 days prior to the show if the animal is over six months old and has not had a calfhood vaccination. A food booth will be operated during the show by the members of the Gold Hill 4-H club.
