

Society - Drama

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

MEDFORD, OREGON, SUNDAY, MAY 25, 1952

Pages 1-14

Women's Activities

Women golfers from eight Oregon cities played the Rogue Valley Country club course Thursday when the Willamette Valley-Southern Oregon Women's Golf association held the annual spring tournament here. An even 100 women played, the largest number ever to participate in a women's tournament here, and 137 attended the luncheon which followed in the clubhouse.

The officers and many committees from Rogue Valley Women's

Women's Tournament Day

(By Olive Starcher)

en's Golf association aided with arrangements for the event. Pictured at the top (left to right) are Mrs. Ray Larson, luncheon chairman; Mrs. William Miller, president of the Medford association; Mrs. Leslie Schneider, tournament director; Mrs. Jack Wood, assistant director; Mrs. Charles Barnes, local representative to the WVSO; George Harrington, club manager; Mrs. Earl Leever, hospitality chairman; Mrs. Harvey Robertson, WVSO representative; Mrs. James Wyatt, publicity chairman; seated, Mrs. Harvey Pavlat, (at left) hospitality committee and Mrs. Mohr Reymers, the third WVSO representative. (Arbuckle-Moran photo).

Two of the winners are shown at left at the score board. Mrs. W. W. Davies, the former Helen Thompson, (at left) took the Class A low gross honors with a 79, and Mrs. James Snider held the low gross score in the Class C division. Mrs. Davies is women's champion of Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. Snider, one of the local club's newer players, displays a big smile over the fact that she "broke a hundred" for the first time since taking up golf.

Also playing in the tournament were Mrs. C. B. Collins, Medford, and Mrs. Earl Sims, formerly of this city and now of Grants Pass. The two are pictured (at right) on the 18th green after finishing their games, with Mrs. Collins (at left).

As the players came in from the course they first congregated around the score board and then after changing from their golfing togs gathered in groups for cool drinks and other refreshments, since the day was bright and warm. Shown (lower left) are four women enjoying their after-luncheon coffee and some relaxing conversation. They are (left to right) Mrs. Roger Clark, Medford; Mrs. J. S. Wolke, Grants Pass; Mrs. L. E. McClinck, Roseburg and Mrs. J. S. Grahman, Bend.

The day's agenda included a business meeting of the WVSO, as well as golf. Pictured on the lawn in front of the clubhouse (lower right) are the officers of the association. Shown (left to right) are Mrs. David B. Evans, Eugene, the president; Mrs. Earl Voorhies, Grants Pass, treasurer; Mrs. Robert B. Stone, Corvallis, vice-president, and Mrs. A. C. Stipe, Bend, secretary. Mrs. Tauf Charneski, Eugene, corresponding secretary is not pictured.

—(Brainerd photos)

