

Miss Helen Novak, Dr. Richard Stuart Wedded in Florida

Of interest here is news of the wedding April 24 of Miss Helen Novak and Dr. Richard Norwood Stuart at Tampa, Fla. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Stuart of Danville, Calif., former Medford residents. The bride was born in Belgrade, Yugoslavia and came to this country about a year ago.

The wedding was performed at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jacobs, at Tampa, and the bride was given in marriage by Mr. Jacobs. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs also were attendants for the couple. The Rev. M. M. Meredith of the Hyde Park Methodist church, Tampa, performed the service. Mrs. Meredith furnished the wedding music.

For her wedding the bride wore a dressmaker suit of gray-blue faille and her hat was bluish pink. Her accessories were gray-blue and she carried a white Bible topped with a shower of white orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs were hosts at a reception following the ceremony.

The couple made a wedding trip which took them back to Bloomington, Ind., where both are associated with the University of Indiana.

After June the couple will be located at Berkeley, Calif., where Dr. Stuart is working on scientific research for the government.

The bride received her elementary education abroad and was graduated from the University of Vienna. She has been making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs and was graduated last year cum laude from Florida Southern college. She now is working toward her master's degree at the University of Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert S. Tamy are shown during the reception which followed their wedding, held May 17 at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Burlingame, Calif. The bride is the former Page Leard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tamy, 705 Park street, Medford. The newlyweds are spending a honeymoon in Santa Barbara, and after June 1 will be at home in Medford. (du Charmes studio)

Church Rites Wed Miss Page Leard To Gilbert Tamy

An event of Saturday, May 17, was the wedding of Miss Page Leard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Leard, San Francisco, to Gilbert S. Tamy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tamy, 705 Park street, Medford. The rites were read at four o'clock in the afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Burlingame, by the Rev. Francis P. Foot.

The wedding was attended by about 250 guests. The reception which followed was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brayton Wilbur, Hillsborough.

The bride's wedding gown was of white chantilly lace designed with insets of nylon tulle extending from waistline to floor, and a train. Her veil of nylon tulle was held in place with a circlet of seed pearls and her bouquet was fleur d'amour and stepanotis.

Miss Calista Farrell, Medford, was maid-of-honor. Mrs. R. C. Ashcom, sister of the bridegroom from Albuquerque, N.M., Miss Nancy Nason, San Diego, Miss Mary Wilbur and Miss Sally Proctor were bridesmaids. The attendants all wore gowns of white embroidered organza and pale blue taffeta designed ballerina-length and with strapless bodices. They were worn with white organza redingotes fashioned with low rounded necklines. Miss Farrell's headpiece and bouquet were of pale blue and white delphinium and the bridesmaids' flowers were blue delphinium.

Mr. Leard gave his daughter in marriage and Halbert S. Deuel, Jr., Medford, served as best man for Mr. Tamy. Ushers were Don F. Bechter, Alan Weir, formerly of Medford and now of San Francisco, David Spencer Brown and Bill Wall, Medford.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Leard wore a royal blue lace and taffeta afternoon dress with matching hat trimmed with small white flowers. Her corsage was of white orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige chiffon and lace afternoon dress with matching tulle hat and her flowers were dusty rose orchids.

The newlyweds are spending a honeymoon in Santa Barbara, Calif., and will be at home after June 1 at the GeBauer apartments here. Both attended the University of Oregon where the bride was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and the bridegroom of Sigma Chi. Mr. Tamy is now associated with his father in the insurance business.

The bridegroom's parents and his sister, Mrs. Ashcom, returned to Medford early last week after attending the wedding, and Mrs. Ashcom expects to remain here with her parents for the month of June. Also attending the wedding from Medford were Mrs. Halbert S. Deuel Jr., Mrs. H. S. Deuel and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Luther.

Miss Larson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Agnar Larson, 2234 Aloha avenue.

University Student Heads Honor Group

Raoul Maddox, student at the University of Oregon, has been named president of Psi chapter and a national councilman of Phi Mu Alpha, men's music honor society.

As president of the chapter the young man will attend the national convention in Cincinnati, O., July 10-13. Young Maddox is also a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, national social fraternity. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Maddox, 3251 Lone Pine road.

Ethelyn M. Kemp To Become Bride Of Dow Cravens

An event of today at noon will be the wedding of Mrs. Ethelyn M. Kemp, Ross lane, and Dow Cravens, Arbela, Mo. The double ring ceremony will be used and about 25 persons will attend the ceremony to be held in the home of Mrs. Kemp's grandson, Clarence L. Smith and Mrs. Smith, 813 Grant street. The Rev. Don H. Byers of Central Avenue Church of Christ, will perform the rites.

Mrs. Smith will serve as the matron of honor and Mr. Smith will act as best man. Irwin J. Reid, Grants Pass, Mrs. Kemp's son-in-law, will escort her to the altar.

For her wedding Mrs. Kemp chose a navy blue sheer dress with a navy lace yoke. Her elbow length nylon gloves and nylon hat trimmed with pink roses are navy blue. Her flowers will be pink roses.

Mrs. Smith's dress is of rose-pink crepe and lace and her accessories are navy blue. Her flowers also are to be pink roses.

The rites will take place in front of the living room fireplace banked with greenery.

Mrs. Kemp's daughter, Mrs. Reid, Grants Pass, will furnish the wedding music on the Smith's electric organ. Vocal selections will be given by Mrs. Gladys Combs.

Another daughter, Mrs. Imogene Smith, with whom Mrs. Kemp has been making her home, will assist with other members of the family and friends, at the reception to be held at the same home following the wedding.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding are Mr. and Mrs. Irwin J. Reid, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Radburn Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsey, Mr. and Mrs. Hosea Brown; Mr. and Mrs. James Loughridge and Mrs. Combs, all of Wilderville, near Grants Pass; and Mrs. Lora Sumpter, Yreka, Calif.

The couple will leave here for Sacramento, Calif., where they will go to train to Arbela to live. Mrs. Kemp has lived in the valley for 22 years.

Mr. Cravens is retired. For 28 years he was a director of recreation for Methodist church youth in the northeast district of Missouri. He arrived here Monday evening for the wedding. They will live in the home where Mrs. Kemp lived as a young woman, Arbela being her former home.
