Roseburg Tops Studs 3-1 for Series Split

Roseburg's Umpqua Chiefs stayed in the thick of the scrap for the Southwestern Oregon league baseball pennant Sunday by tripping the Medford Cheney Studs 3 to 1 at the fairgrounds park here.

Sunday triumph gave the Chiefs a week-end split with the Studs and their third win against one loss. For the Studs the Saturday night 6 to 1 decision gave them their first win in the circuit and got them out of the cellar.

Drain continued unmarred at the head of the loop as Roy Helser hurled a two-hit 1 to 0 shut-out over Coquille Saturday and Jerry Cade chucked the Black Sox to a 4 to 2 win over the Loggers on Sunday. Bandon, also unbeaten, kept its first place deadlock with Drain by beating Brookings 11 to 1 and 2 to 1 in a Sunday doublebill. Drain and Bandon each have won four.

Runs Unearned Two unearned runs provided Roseburg with the margin of victory over Medford on Sunday. Chucker Derold Wooton, Medford high senior making his first appearance of the season with the Studs, allowed only four hits but three of these and two of the five walks he issued figured in the scoring, along with a pair of infielder's muffs.

In the third stanza Barney Koch of the Chiefs got to first base when his grounder was first handled by Bill Selsor. Studs' shortstop, Al Simpson walked then George Sanders doubled, scoring Koch.

Chief hurler Mickey Coen drew a base on balls in the fifth inning, John Keller sacrificed him to second, then Marvin Cartwright, Studs' second sacker, erred on Koch's grounder. Simpson hit a ground ball that forced Koch out at second but Coen tallied on the play.

In the seventh frame Koch singled and Simpson tripled for one run. Score in Second The Studs' lone marker was scored in the second frame when Cartwright hit, Norm Lucich sacrificed and Clarence Mellbye singled.

Coen the winning hurler gave up seven hits but, to equalize his performance with Wooton's, walked only two. Coen fanned five and Wooton nine. The two throwers renewed a rivalry that began in high school competition.

The Roseburg tosser Sunday was backed by errorless support that included one double play. Hal Zucher, out in centerfield, helped stem a possible Stud rally in the ninth inning with a one-handed stab, after a considerable run of Lucich's long fly that would have been good for extra bases.

Studs Tally On Saturday the Studs got two runs in the third stanza on an error, a sacrifice by George Gitzen and double by Paul Gehrman. They tallied twice again in the fourth on hits by Frank Roeland and Snuffy Smith, a wild pitch and an error. Consecutive hits by Moose Blevins, Alex McDonald and Roeland, a stolen base and an error were responsible for two additional runs in the fifth. Dusky Dave Mann, Roseburg pitcher was relieved in the fifth but all runs were charged to him.

Roseburg scored in the fourth. The three Seattle additions to the Studs, Herb Karpel, John Penso and Pete Bianchi, did not come to Medford during the week-end. It was learned that they would be ineligible for the Roseburg series since they were signed only last Monday.

In games next week-end Medford plays at Coquille, Bandon at Roseburg and Coos Bay-North Bend at Brookings.

Portland Scores Easy Win In North-South Track Tiff

Portland — The Portland district track crew ran over the Southern Oregon thimblads 67 to 37 Saturday night, grabbing first places in all but three events in the fifth annual North-South meet.

It was the most lopsided victory posted in the short history of the cinder ruckus and gave Portland a three to two edge in the annual affair.

Don Spinas, Medford, won the low hurdles in :20.5 and the South relay team of Larry Schweinfurt and Dick Williams, Grants Pass, and Bill Redden and Duane Goodman, Medford, took the other South first in 1:31.9. Dave Newland, Medford, tied for first in the pole vault and Jack Moad, Medford, was runner-up in the shot put. Spinas was third in the high barriers.

Halbrook Sets Record Giant Wade Halbrook set the only meet record, leaping 6 feet 3 1/8th inch in the high jump. Eddie Warren and his Lincoln teammates, including Halbrook, paced the victory. Warren won the high hurdles, tied for first in the pole vault and was third in the low hurdles. Fred Flowers, Lincoln, won the 100-yard dash and Elmer Acre, Lincoln, the mile.

The relay was a thriller with Redden breaking the tape a scant foot ahead of Traver Campbell, Grant, state 220-yard dash champ. Campbell also took the North-South furlong.

The Central Point Millers won their first fray of the Rogue Valley league baseball campaign Sunday beating Butte Falls 8 to 4 at Butte Falls.

Pitcher Don Sanford went the route for Central Point scattering nine hits. Floyd Shotwell gave up 13 bingles to the Millers.

The Millers got to runs in the first inning on two errors, a single, a walk and a ground out. Butte Falls tied it up with a pair in the canto on a fielder's choice.

Hogan Takes Links Toga Fort Worth, Tex.—(U.P.)—Bantam Ben Hogan eyed defense of his National Open golf title Monday, but didn't think his task would come "as easy" as the way he won the Colonial National Invitation tournament crown.

Hogan, making one of his infrequent appearances on the tournament trail, clipped one stroke off par for the 72 holes to win Colonial's fat $4,000 top prize with a 279, four strokes ahead of Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago.

Gafford Collapses The real story of Hogan's victory, the three-time winner admitted, lay in the complete collapse of the fine game pacesetter Ray Gafford had tossed at the select field.

As the field teed off for the 36-hole session Sunday, Hogan trailed Gafford by four strokes. At the 54-hole mark, he was six strokes back. Then, stroking a steady 87 in the face of Gafford's scrambling, Hogan picked up an even dozen strokes and finished in front, while Gafford slipped to an ignominious 80 and a tie for fourth with Doug Ford of Harrison, N.Y., at 286, one stroke back of third-place winner Tommy Bolt, Durham, N.C.

"I didn't win that one," Hogan told Gafford's tear-choked wife.

Albany Wins Oregon Prep Baseball Title

Albany, Ore.—(U.P.)—Albany high school held the Oregon high school baseball championship Monday after trouncing Roosevelt of Portland 9-1 Saturday in the state tournament.

Leroy Babcock pitched his team to the top spot, allowing three base hit by Mattern and an error.

In the fifth, seventh and eighth the Millers scored one run each and then sewed up the contest with three in the ninth on an error, triple by Mel Anhorn, ground out, stolen base and single by Bon Fasel. Butte Falls countered once in the eighth and once in the ninth.

In other games Cave Junction beat Ashland 9 to 3 and Grants Pass defeated Prospect 17 to 2.

LINE SCORE: Central Point 200 010 113-8 13 5; Butte Falls 200 000 011-4 9 8; Sanford and Donahoe; Shotwell and E. Ellis.
