

In And Around Gold Hill

Gold Hill — Returning home Saturday from the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, held at Salem were four members of Amethyst Rebekah lodge of Gold Hill. Mrs. Lester Thompson was the official delegate and will be the lodge's district deputy president for the coming term. Alternate was Mrs. George Dorman. The other two attending were Mrs. Lester Parker and Mrs. Earl Moore.

Delegates to the Oregon Grand Lodge session of the Odd Fellows, held during the same period in Salem, were George Haff and Norman Gail of Gold Hill Odd Fellows Lodge No. 129.

While in Salem, Mrs. Parker visited her husband's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Parker, and his nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kellogg. Mrs. Earl Moore visited friends in Salem, and Mrs. George Dorman visited with a cousin, Mrs. Emma Dencer, and other relatives. The Gold Hill Rebekahs stayed at the auto court operated by Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Parker.

Newly elected officers of the Gold Hill Business and Professional Women's club will be installed jointly with those of the Grants Pass BPW club, at a meeting Tuesday, May 27, at 8 p.m. at the library auditorium in Grants Pass.

Gold Hill Lions club and its auxiliary, the Lady Lions club, will hold a joint installation of officers Tuesday night, May 27, at the Dardanelle Dinner House on the Old Stage road. It will be pecially for teenagers, are attracting more and more young people, much to the satisfaction of the sponsors. Saturday night's dance was attended by about 60 people, including about 25 teenagers and some younger children. Wilmer Bailey acted as instructor and caller Saturday night. Four visitors from Butte Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Remson and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Moore, demonstrated and taught a new round dance, "Slow Poke." Next square dance will be Saturday night, June 7, at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend. All adults are asked to bring sandwiches or cookies. A small admission will be charged to pay expenses.

Gold Hill VFW Post members went to the Rock Point cemetery last week to clean off graves of veterans buried there and to place new flags on the graves for Memorial Day.

Past Noble Grands club of Amethyst Rebekah lodge will meet Thursday at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Carter on the Old Stage road.

Mrs. Floyd Romine of the Old Stage road was hostess last Sunday night at a turkey dinner honoring four people on their birthdays. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Helzer of Medford, Frank Lockwood, and Mrs. Romine's husband. Guests present included Mr. and Mrs. Helzer and their baby son, Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harson of Medford, Mrs. Romine's son, Hubert Hewitt of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McCormick and daughter, Bonnie, of Woodburn, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Romine on the Old Stage road. McCormick is Mrs. Romine's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Scott of Klamath Falls spent last weekend visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott, on the Old Stage road.

Word has been received by friends here that Dave Ennis, former resident of the Old Stage road, is recuperating from a major surgical operation at the Naval hospital in San Diego, Calif. Ennis is in the Navy and stationed at San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garrison, who had been occupying the Dave Ennis home on the Old Stage road, have now moved into the house next to the Joe Morgan place on North 99 highway.

Mrs. Ruth Naughten of Marysville, Mont., left for home Friday after visiting here with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Dufur of Fifth avenue, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Sawyer, former residents of the Old Stage road, who sold their home and went to Arizona last winter, have returned to Oregon and are now living in Medford. He is employed at Toketee Falls.

Mrs. W. I. Keasterson and her granddaughter, Margaret Skeel from Klamath Falls, were in Gold Hill last week visiting Mrs. Keasterson's mother, Mrs. Carrie Puhl of the Old Stage road.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hengtes of Grants Pass spent one day last week at the home of Mrs. Carrie Puhl on the Old Stage road. The couple are old friends of Mrs. Puhl.

A group of members of the Gold Hill Garden club attended the flower show put on Thursday at Jacksonville by the Jacksonville Garden club. Attending from here were Mrs. George Smith, president of the Gold Hill club, Mrs. Carl Boye, vice-president; Mrs. J. G. Kofahl, Mrs. Paul Holderness, Mrs. Bob Kies and Mrs. Walter McLean.

Preliminary plans are being made for an all-day picnic of the Gold Hill Community Methodist church and Sunday school some time in June. Appointed for the picnic committee are Mrs. Fred Lester and Wilmer Bailey, adult members; Marion Smith and Grace Gail, senior high school class; David Parker and Bruce Burnett, junior high school class.

Miss Beverly Moser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moser of Second avenue, went to Eugene last week to take an examination for entry into a nurses' training course there. She will graduate from Crater High school next GIVE CHILDREN A Voice in Color Selection!

"It's basically good psychology to give children a voice in the selection of colors for the rooms they occupy," says Dr. Peter J. Hampton of Western Reserve University, Cleveland. Taking his advice is this mother, shown studying the Paint and Color Style Guide with her two young daughters.
