Local and Personal

In Portland — Mrs. Elwood Hedberg, 1206 East Main street, is in Portland today where she is attending a meeting of women's division workers of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Alarm False — Firemen said that a summons to the alley behind the Montgomery Ward store on South Central avenue about 4:30 p.m. yesterday turned out to be a false alarm. A small grass fire was reported.

Displays Poppy — A gigantic oriental poppy blossom from the garden of D. L. Seeley, 2322 Hillcrest road, was displayed today by Harold Holmes. The huge orange colored flower measured almost 12 inches across. Other blossoms from the same bed are of normal size, Holmes stated.

Federated Funsters — The Central Point Federated Funsters will hold a folk dance Saturday, May 31, at 8:30 p. m. in the school tennis court. In event of inclement weather dancing will be held in the gymnasium. All valley folk dance enthusiasts are invited.

Daughter Born — Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Helm, former valley residents, now at Vernonia, are parents of a daughter, Janice Merrill, born May 11. The father is employed by the state forestry department. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Helm, Rogue River.

Emergency Operation — Sanna Craig, 18, route 2, box 68, Gold Hill, had an emergency appendectomy yesterday at Sacred Heart hospital. She was taken to the hospital by Peri ambulance from the Montgomery Ward store where she is employed, the hospital reported. Arthur L. Hill, 3, son of William R. Hill, route 3, box 177, had his tonsils removed today at the hospital. Harold H. Corliss, 938 South Holly street, had surgery today.

Plan Picnic — Last activity of the year for the Sams Valley school will be a picnic Friday, May 30. Pupils, teachers and parents are expected to share in this event which will be held at the school in order to enable parents who are busy with spring farming to go for lunch. Activities will start in the morning, however, with games and contests which will be continued after the potluck luncheon. Each family is asked to take salad, cake, pie or other food to be shared, and sandwiches.

Gold Hill Bible Rally — An interdenominational Bible class rally will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Gold Hill Community Methodist church. A program, to be presented by children's classes, will include Bible stories and choruses.

Joint Force — Ray K. Bailey, formerly associated with the T. J. Hight Real Estate firm, has joined the sales force of the Home Real Estate agency, operated by Joseph and Fred L. Chez. Bailey has been engaged in the real estate business for the past several years.

Navy Mothers — The Navy Mothers club will participate in the Memorial day parade Friday and are asked to assemble at 9:45 a. m. at the corner of Ivy and West Main streets. Those who plan to attend a dedication of the veterans cemetery are asked to call Mrs. James Wicker, 809, Adams lane, telephone 2-2985.

Budget Hearing Set At Eagle Point June 10

Eagle Point—A public hearing on the 1952-53 city budget totalling $25,340.41 will be held in the Eagle Point city hall on June 10 at 8 p.m., according to Sam Coy, city recorder.

No special election will be held on the excess over the 6 per cent limitation, Coy said, as a continuing levy voted two years ago will cover it. The total levy will be $6,442.08 with $752.60 inside the 6 per cent increase limitation.

20-30 Meet Queen Of '52 Catfish Derby

Medford 20-30 club members met the queen of the 1952 catfish derby and her court at their meeting Tuesday night. The queen, elected by the Medford junior high school, is Beverly Newbry, and her four princesses are Kathleen Guiley, Dorothy McGraw, Tessie Ragsdale and Therese Stewart.

Frank DeSouza, honorary kingfish for the derby, sponsored annually by the club, gave a summary of the past derbies. Glenn Linn, principal of the junior high school, gave a short talk on how the queen and her court were elected. Ken Severson, chairman of this year's catfish derby, said he is expecting a bigger and better derby, to be held June 22 at TouVelle Park. Club guest was Dick Leever.
