Lady Lions Plan Mystery Frolic

Shady Cove—A party, termed a "mystery frolic", has been planned by Lady Lions of Shady Cove and Trail for June 14 at the Eagle Point Grange.

Men are to be admitted free, but Lady Lions are asked to take a box lunch for two and a comic hat for admission. Men will model the hats and the box lunches will be auctioned. Dancing is also planned for the evening.

At the last meeting of the auxiliary, held at the home of Mrs. Ann Williams, Shady Cove, plans were made for a service project. The group will acquire and store household items and clothing to be used in emergencies, such as the loss of a family's possessions by fire. The articles will be stored at the Martin home.

Final Meeting Held By Lake Creek Group

Lake Creek—Lake Creek Extension unit held the last meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Bill Massell, with 17 members attending.

New officers were installed. They are Mrs. John Davidson, chairman; Mrs. J. D. Arens, vice-chairman; Mrs. Cliff Green, secretary; Mrs. Merton Bradshaw, treasurer.

Miss Eula Wintermute gave the lesson on "Streamline Your Housework."

It was reported that all projects for the term have been completed.

Mrs. H. Wilham, a former member, was present for the meeting.

Luncheon was served at noon by the hostess, and the chairman, Mrs. Leland Charley, conducted the day's meeting.

Annual Meeting Set For League

Medford League of Women Voters will hold the annual session with election of officers, when the group meets Saturday at Rogue Valley Country club. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 p.m.

William McAllister, Medford attorney and well known republican, will speak on the national party convention. The attorney was named one of the convention delegates-at-large from Oregon in the recent primary election.

Mrs. Donovan Foster, delegate to the recent national league convention, will report on the sessions.

Reservations for the luncheon are to be made by calling Mrs. Nick DeWitt, 2-5460, or Mrs. F. R. Fairweather, 2-2625.

Couples Fly Here For Brief Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gannaway of Kalispell, Mont., and Mrs. Gannaway's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Werner of Las Vegas, spent a few hours in Medford Monday with Mr. Gannaway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gannaway, 817 Sherman avenue.

The four visitors flew up from Las Vegas, where the Gannaways were visiting the Werners, and returned later the same day.

To Arrive

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Palmer, Redding, Calif., will spend the week-end in Medford as guests of Mrs. R. H. Paxson, 428 West Fourth street. The Palmers are cousins of Mrs. Paxson.

Mrs. Palmer, the former June White, and her husband lived in Medford many years and have many friends in the valley. They will arrive Friday morning.

Journal, Oregonian Workers Accept Offer

Portland —(U.P.)—Membership of the CIO American Newspaper guild, Portland local, voted Wednesday night to accept a management offer from the Oregon Journal and the Oregonian for a new contract.

Larry Howes, guild president, said the proposal is for a 4.1 per cent wage increase in all classifications up to a maximum of $4 a week and a minimum of $2. Top-scale reporters salaries under the arrangement would be $103 a week. The agreement is retroactive to April 27.

Howes said the settlement is contingent on management's offer to arbitrate the issue of wages for the Hostess House employees of the Oregonian.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THREE

High School Band Entertains Kiwanis Club Wednesday

The Medford high school band entertained Medford Kiwanis club yesterday noon and DeVere Taylor, speech instructor at the high school, gave a Memorial day talk at the service club's luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club.

Band members played a short concert on the lawn and then were luncheon guests of Kiwanians.

Outlining ways of more appropriately paying tribute to America's war dead, Taylor declared that American citizens need to establish the purpose of Korea. If there is no purpose, he maintained, there is no use for this country to have troops there.

Fears For Identity

He described the United States as the godpost of representative government and expressed fear that, "if we push this stream out into the current of international ideology, we will lose our national identity."

Taylor urged a new look at the constitution, particularly the sections regarding the functions of the branches of government. He advised "prior consideration" before exercise of the voting opportunity.

The Rev. George R. V. Bolster gave a brief talk in memory of John C. Mann, Kiwanis past president, who died Sunday.

Don Church and Director I. A. Mirick were spokesmen for the band.

Cowboy Policemen Round Up Cattle

Birmingham, Ala. —(U.P.)—A special detail of cowboy policemen early Thursday corralled more than 1,000 head of livestock sent bawling through the streets by a stockyard fire.

The uniformed range riders spent the night herding beef cattle, hogs and dogs down the avenues of this industrial city toward the pens of the Armour Co., which was swept by flames Wednesday night.

In a radio-controlled roundup, Armour trucks met the approaching animals and company cowhands roped them and hauled them aboard.

The cattle and pigs ramaged throughout half of Birmingham when a night watchman opened their pens to prevent their burning to death.

Fire destroyed all the pens and killed hundreds of animals.
