Among those remaining in Medford for the week-end will be members of Medford Rifle club since the club's annual spring outdoor rifle tournament is planned for Saturday and Sunday at the Four Corners range. This will be an NRA tournament, with entries from as far north as Portland and from northern California cities.

Super Strawberry Pie Worth of New Berries

Strawberries from an excellent quality crop are coming in increasingly all along our coast. In recent years, west coast strawberries have developed into a crop of some national importance for commercial "processing" as well as for home canning, freezing and eating "as is". Today let us enjoy them in this super pie.

Crust. Thoroughly blend together 20 graham crackers finely rolled into crumbs (1 2/3 cups), ¼ cup softened butter or margarine and ¼ cup sugar. Pour mixture into 9 inch pie plate; firmly press into an even layer against bottom and sides of plate. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375 degrees, 8 minutes. Cool.

Filling. Wash and hull 1 quart fresh strawberries saving for garnish. Put half the berries into a saucepan and crush with a fork or pastry blender. Add 3 tablespoons cornstarch, 1 cup sugar and juice of 1 lemon. Cook and stir over moderate heat until mixture thickens and becomes clear. Cool.

Two Fine Sauces For Artichokes

Make the most of artichokes now. They are easy to prepare and delicious served as a hot vegetable or chilled and served as appetizer or salad. Allow one per serving unless they are unusually large in which event split each in half after cooking to make two servings.

Personally, we add to the boiling salted water, a small peeled clove of garlic, a thick slice of lemon and 1 tablespoon olive or other salad oil for each artichoke. Serve with melted butter, lemon butter, mayonnaise or try one of these good sauces.

Mustard Mayonnaise. Gradually blend 1 teaspoon prepared mustard and 2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice into ½ cup mayonnaise. Serve on hot or chilled artichokes.

Browned Butter Sauce. Heat ½ cup butter or margarine until browned. Stir in 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice and dash of cayenne. Enough for 2 or 3 artichokes.

Broiled Salmon Trinidad

There's many a way with popular west-coast salmon steaks, but we'll venture the opinion that this is one you've not yet tried. We have it on good authority that it is popular in Trinidad and we know it is popular with folks to whom we've served it.

Season two good-sized salmon steaks with salt, pepper and olive oil. Broil on each side about 6 minutes. Skin and split a banana, spread it with melted butter, sprinkle with salt and sugar and bake or pan cook for 3 minutes. Blend 1 tablespoon of butter, 1 teaspoon of lemon juice and ½ teaspoon of chopped parsley. Mash banana with this and add 1 teaspoon Angostura Bitters. Pour over the broiled salmon, decorate with tomato brushed with a little melted butter and glaze under broiler. Serve very hot with any green vegetable.

Savory Frozen Limas Good Vegetable Change

Frozen limas are among the most popular of frozen vegetables, simply cooked according to directions on package and seasoned with butter, salt and pepper. However, we're certain your family will like them dressed up like this. Has eye appeal, too.

1 package frozen lima beans
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
¼ cup coarsely chopped celery
¼ cup chopped onions

1 to 1 8-ounce can tomato sauce
Cook lima beans according to package directions. While beans are cooking, melt butter or margarine in saucepan; add celery and onions and cook about 2 minutes. Mix in the tomato sauce; cover and cook over low heat for 10 minutes. Drain beans and combine with tomato mixture. Makes 3 or 4 servings.

Pork Chop Reminder
Pork chops should always be braised, never fried or broiled. Braising means cooking the browned chops in a covered skillet. This brings out the rich flavor of pork and makes the chops juicy and tender. For a fine accompaniment, brown and braise canned peach halves in the skillet right along with the pork chops.

May is the month when well-coasters really revel in green leafy vegetables; when tender young chickens are at their boiling and frying best; when dairy products are plentiful and reasonable in price. Well, anyway, buttermilk, cottage cheese and cheese are good buys and good values; and butter is a few cents lower than in recent months. As far as the fluid milk situation is concerned, non-fat dry milk solids can be bought in packages that make 5 quarts of milk ideal for cooking purposes at somewhat under fifty cents. Many like it for drinking, too.

Other May pleasures for thrifty shoppers include canned and frozen grapefruit juice, canned grapefruit juice, dried prunes and raisins, peanut butter, salad oils and cooking fats.

Eggs continue on the economy list and might well serve as a thrifty main dish at least once a week. Now is the time to enjoy custards, cakes, puddings and other egg-rich desserts.

Fish and Shell Fish are in excellent supply. Try new varieties; a suggestion which we make almost every week. The Fisheries Institute tells us that fillets are pronounced fillets to rhyme with skillets.

Pork continues the best meat buy, both fresh and cured. Canned peas are a genuine bargain. There are five million more cases (24 cans to a case) available for consumers today than last year at this time. Nutritionally, they're packed with good things. Taste good, too. Certainly no vegetable is easier to fix. Butter, salt and pepper seems to do it to every one's satisfaction.

Best Vegetable Buys. May is

Phoenix Grange

A pot-luck supper preceded the regular meeting of Phoenix Grange on May 27. Grange opened in form with Master Claude Hutton presiding.

possible are urged to come and help. HEC chairman announced next regular Grange serving committee will include Mr. and Mrs. Norman Glascock, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harn.
