Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Drain	4	0	1.000
Bandon	3	0	1.000
Roseburg	3	1	.750
Medford	1	3	.250
Coos Bay-North Bend	0	2	.000
Brookings	0	2	.000
Coquille	0	4	.000

The Medford Cheney Studs travel this week-end for the first time in their Southwestern Oregon league season. They take on the reenforced Coquille nine at Coquille, playing Saturday night and Sunday afternoon.

The Loggers of the coast region have picked up strength

GRANT TRACK CHAMP

Portland—(U.P.)—Grant won the Portland city high school track and field championship Friday by coming from behind to win the half-mile relay, the meet's final event, and nose out defending champion Lincoln. The Generals rolled up 58 points to 54 for Lincoln and 46½ for third-place Jefferson. Strung out behind the top three were Roosevelt 30; Franklin 19½; Cleveland 10; Washington 8, and Benson 4.

HEADS JUNIOR ROSARIA

Portland—(U.P.)—Dark-haired Alice Whitten, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Whitten, Portland, and 10-year-old Dennis Brandon, son of Mrs. Thelma Brandon Friday were the ruling heads of Junior Rosaria.

since the season opened. They lost their first games to Roseburg 7 to 1 and 12 to 0. While still failing to break into the win column, Coquille lost by the close scores of 1 to 0 and 4 to 2 to powerful Drain last week-end. Drain previously had hiked the Studs 8 to 3 and 7 to 4.

Loggers Hungry
The fact that Coquille is still hungry for a win will make the Loggers tough for the Studs.

Coquille has added punch to its line-up by the acquisition of Bobby Doerr of Boston Red Sox fame. The Loggers have Alden Wilkie, ex-Pacific Coast and major league; Dick Larner, ex-Coast and Pioneer leaguer, and Claude Buckley, who played with the Eugene Larks of the Far West League.

Paul Gehrman and Derald Wooton probably will get the starting pitcher calls with Clarence Melby on hand for relief if needed. Gehrman tossed a five-hit 6 to 1 win over Roseburg while Wooton allowed four hits but was beaten 3 to 1. A couple of errors hurt his cause.

Other league games this week-end are Bandon at Roseburg and Coos Bay-North Bend at Brookings. Drain gets a bye.

GAIN SEMI-FINALS

Preswick, Scotland—(U.P.)—Two-time winner Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, and Harvie Ward of Tarboro, N. C., carried America's colors into the semi-finals of the British Amateur Golf championship Friday with easy quarter-final triumphs. Ward unleashed the most brilliant golf of the tournament to out-fellow American Jim McHale of Philadelphia, 6 and 5. Stranahan scored a one-sided 8 and 7 triumph over Charles Carlow.

MATCH PLANT BURNS

Wheatland, Calif.—(U.P.)—The Diamond Match Company lumber yard here burned to the ground early Friday.

Northwest Labor Situation Quiet During Week-End

Portland—(U.P.)—Northwest labor disputes are marking time during the long holiday week-end Friday but two meetings have been scheduled for early next week in an effort to reach agreements with bakers and food and drug clerks.

The clerks will meet with Food Employers, Inc., Monday at 2 p.m. in a session called by Federal Mediator John C. Tutt in an effort to avert a strike of about 1000 members of the AFL union in Portland.

The clerks union had notified employers it will strike if a settlement is not agreed on by midnight Monday. The deadline was set by the Central Labor Council's executive board which was empowered by the council to act on the request by the food and drug clerks local 1092 to place Food Employers, Inc., on its unfair list.

Striking bakery workers Tuesday will hear a new offer from the Bakers Employers council. Federal Mediator George Walker said the meeting will be the third since the bakers struck 25 Portland bakeries May 4 in a demand for Saturdays and Sundays off.

Employment Boosted In Portland Region

Salem—(U.P.)—Employment in industries and retail trade in the Portland metropolitan area increased again in April, the State Unemployment Compensation commission said Friday.

But construction, transportation and utilities continued to lag behind 1951 job totals. Reports from employers to the commission and the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics indicated 163,100 were working in the four counties of the metropolitan area, just 200 fewer than a year ago. This did not include agricultural or government activities.

EVEN MONEY

New York—(U.P.)—Strong, last-minute support for Dan Baccaroni may send the Philadelphia heavyweight into the ring at "even money" with Roland Lastarza of New York Friday night for their return 10-round television fight at Madison Square Garden.

Principals' Conclave Attendance Urged

Ashland—Elementary school principals, teachers and superintendents of Southern Oregon who are interested in improving education for children were urged this week to enroll in the Northwest Regional Elementary School Principals' Work conference, said Chester C. Squire, Ashland, chairman of the professional standards committee of the Oregon Elementary Principals association.

The second annual workshop will be held from June 16 to 27 at the University of Oregon.

"Interest in the program is extremely keen this year due to the excellence of last summer's conference," Squire said. "Since total enrollment must be limited, southern Oregon educators planning to attend will be wise to mail immediately their registration fees."

Central Point Man Reunited with Dog

A blind Central Point man now visiting in Portland was reunited yesterday with his guide dog which had been missing since Monday.

The man, Vern Holmes Hansen, 33, son of Mrs. Andrew Glenn, Fifth and Manzanita streets, Central Point, is visiting with friends at 4 Northeast Sixth avenue, Portland, and reported the dog disappeared after being turned out for exercise.

The dog, a large black and tan Doberman Pinscher named Duke, returned to the neighborhood where Hansen is staying Wednesday evening but refused to be taken home by strangers who recognized him. The dog, upon seeing his master on the street, "came running," according to Hansen.

Hansen attended Central Point schools through the sixth grade, according to his sister, Mrs. William C. McDowell, and then entered the Portland School for the Blind. He later attended Multnomah Bible college.

He is in Portland to confer with vocational rehabilitation authorities, his mother said.

A story about Hansen and the dog, and a picture of the two, appeared in this morning's Portland Oregonian.

ROTC Cadets Will Train at Fairchild

Spokane—(U.P.)—Air Force ROTC cadets from colleges and universities in Washington, Oregon, California, Montana and Utah will train at Fairchild Air Force base this summer, the Air Force announced Friday.

The cadets will be quartered at Fort George Wright and will be transported daily to Fairchild for training.

Many are veterans of World War II.

Schools represented are the University of Washington, College of Puget Sound, Central Washington College of Education, Montana State college, Montana university, Oregon State college, Willamette University, UCLA, University of Utah State college.

Timberline Lodge Officials Changed

Portland—(U.P.)—Timberline lodge, the big resort hotel on Mt. Hood, was under new management Friday. A group headed by Elston R. Ireland, Portland restaurant owner has taken over the lodge.

Roy L. Grem, vice president of the U. S. National Bank of Portland and president of the board of the selling corporation, announced the consummation of the transfer, the resignation of all but three members of the board and the election of a new board to administer the lodge.

Two Minor Accidents Reported to Police

Two traffic accidents resulted in minor damages to vehicles and no injuries here Wednesday, according to city police records.

Accident reports showed that Frances U. McGinty, 821 Broad street, and Samuel R. Wier, Griffin Creek road, were drivers of vehicles which collided at the intersection of South Oakdale avenue and Eighth street at about 5 p. m.

Richard Vance, 518 Beatty street, and Edward W. Regnier, Huntington Park, Calif., operated cars which were involved in a collision on Dakota avenue near Grant street at about 5:10 p. m., officers stated. No citations were issued in either accident, they said.

Central Point Man To Farm in Newly Irrigated Section

The 181-acre Moses Lake, Wash., farm of the Charles Cornutts, who live here on the Old Stage road near Gold Hill, borders the $50,000 completely equipped farm given yesterday to Donald D. Dunn, World War II veteran, Mrs. Cornutts said today. Cornutts, a veteran of the Air Force, received his property earlier this year. The land was given to veterans and their families by the Northern Pacific railroad.

The first flow of irrigation water over the ground began at 5:30 last evening. More than 70,000 acres of sagebrush land in the project area now being developed will be under irrigation this year. The water is lifted from the Columbia river by pumps at the Grand Coulee dam.

The Cornutts plan to leave July 1 for Moses Lake, three miles from their farm, until they have developed it into a Grade A dairy ranch. At the present time there are no improvements on the property.

Cornutts is an employee of the Medford corporation and has been farming the Old Stage road property. He is a native of Central Point and lived in this area his entire life except during his service. Mrs. Cornutts is an employee of the Hubbard Brothers housewares department.

Mother, Four Children Die in Anchorage Fire

Anchorage, Alaska—(U.P.)—A mother, her two children and two small boys perished Thursday when flames swept a tiny homestead house five miles south of Anchorage.

Dead were Mrs. W. S. McLean, 27; Barbara Jo McLean, 2; Thomas R. McLean, five months; Tommy Null, 6, and Edward Null, 8.

Invalid Dispatches Volunteer Firemen

Memphis, Tenn.—(U.P.)—If you think all firefighters are rugged men who battle flaming buildings with streams of water or go racing up towering ladders with axe in hand, you haven't met Mabel Richmond.

Mabel doesn't don a glistening raincoat and go racing off to fires.

She can't. Miss Richmond is an invalid.

However, on her depends the fire safety of the city of Bartlett outside Memphis.

Miss Richmond is full-time dispatcher of Bartlett's volunteer fire department. She's on duty around the clock.

She lies in bed with two telephones in easy reach. One is her private phone, the second the fire department number.

Beside the phones is a push-button alarm that sets off a siren on the water tower. When she touches the alarm, the firefighters come running.

Miss Richmond has the technique down pat. While she's taking down a fire report on the telephone, she sounds the siren button. She also takes down the location of the fire and the quickest and best way to get there.

Portland Detective Receives Acquittal

Portland—(U.P.)—A jury of seven men and five women has acquitted Portland Detective William L. Brian of a charge of attempting to extort $10,000 from Dr. Ruth Barnett, operator of the Stewart clinic in the Broadway building.

A poll of the jury showed 10 jurors favored acquittal and two voted for a guilty verdict. A vote of 10 either way was necessary for a verdict.

Basketball Tactics Aid Prisoner's Escape

Louisville, Ky.—(U.P.)—Using basketball tactics, a defendant in quarterly court escaped a penalty for drunken driving by walking away from 12 other prisoners as county patrolmen were taking the men back to jail after court.

Fred Whelan, police said, had used the stall previously to obtain continuances.

This time, however, he was fined $100 and his driver's license was confiscated.

Using a slow break, Whelan walked away from the other prisoners and was not missed until police recounted the men in a patrol wagon. They had taken 13 men to court, but returned with only 12.

Fear of Burglars Fails To Pay Off

Grand Rapids, Mich.—(U.P.)—Lyle Coleman has such a fear of burglars that he sleeps in the rear of his dry cleaning shop.

A policeman awakened Coleman Thursday to tell him burglars had taken $11 from a cash register. A search showed another $70 missing from Coleman's pants pockets.
