

Medford Women Leave for East; To Attend Rites

Mrs. John P. Moffat and Mrs. C. I. Drummond left Friday evening by train from Klamath Falls to spend a month in the east and middle west.

Mrs. Drummond will attend graduation ceremonies June 9 at Wellesley college, Wellesley, Mass., her daughter, Betty, being a member of the 1952 class. Miss Drummond's marriage to Alan Riegelman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Riegelman of Shorthill, N. J., will take place June 11 at the Episcopal church in Burlington, Vt. Mr. Riegelman is being graduated from Dartmouth college with the 1952 class, and will be commissioned an officer in the Navy.

Following the wedding, the couple will travel to the west coast and Mr. Riegelman will report for duty with the Navy at San Francisco.

Mrs. Moffat will visit her son, Bill, a graduate student at Harvard university. Young Moffat is studying towards a doctorate in economics, and does not plan to return to the west coast until after completing his work in the summer of 1953.

The two women plan stops in Washington, D. C., and New York and will return home by way of Detroit to pick up a new car. En route home they plan visits in several mid-west cities. While in Oakland, Calif., en route east, Mrs. Moffat will spend a few hours with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Moffat Jr., who have been attending Stanford university this past year. Later this year the couple plans to establish a home in Pasadena, Calif.
