

Delegation Attends First Council Meeting Oregon Voters' League

Four members of Medford League of Women Voters were in Seaside, Ore., the first of the week to attend the first biennial council meeting of Oregon League of Women Voters. The league in the future will hold state conventions every other year, and a council meeting on the years between.

Attending from Medford were Mrs. Frank Fairweather, president of the Medford league; Mrs. Donovan Foster, new vice-president; Mrs. A. E. Littrell and Mrs. S. E. Phillips. Mrs. Phillips is a member of the state board, having been named chairman of the state tax program for the coming year.

Those attending the council session were entertained at a supper in the home of a league member in Gearhart Sunday evening, and council sessions opened Monday at Seaside. No new programs were adopted, the sessions being devoted to evaluation of the league's progress during the last year and of plans for the coming year.

The Medford delegation returned home Wednesday.

Erickson-Hudson Rites Held at Nazarene Church

The wedding of Miss LaWanda Hudson to Donald V. Erickson was an event of May 17 at Church of the Nazarene. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hudson, 210 Bliss street, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Guy Erickson, 815 Cedar street, also this city.

The Rev. Vernon Wilcox read the service at eight o'clock in the evening. The floral setting was white stock and pink gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional white satin gown with train and her finger-tip length veil was of silk net. She carried a bouquet of valley lilies and stephanotis centered with a purple orchid.

Miss Shirley Wright was maid-of-honor. Her gown was pink and she carried white daisies. Miss Marlene Crase and Miss Marion Anderson, cousin of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Miss Anderson wore blue and carried yellow daisies, and Miss Crase's gown was of yellow with which she carried blue daisies.

Pamela Brown was flower girl and Gerry Bendixson, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring-bearer. Pamela's dress was of white worn with yellow belt and flowers.

Ed Davis was best man for Mr. Erickson and Kenneth Wright and Walter Peterson seated the guests.

Miss Donna Mack sang, and Mrs. Arnold Kornstad was at the organ.

Three hundred guests attended the wedding, and 150 attended the reception which followed. Mrs. Delbert Orgain cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Warren Arnold served punch. Miss Flora Chavis took charge of the guest book and Mrs. Merle Eldridge and Miss Doris Chavis the gifts.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a navy blue and white suit with corsage of gardenias and red roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a yellow and grey suit and her flowers were gardenias and roses.

The newlywed couple spent their honeymoon on the Oregon coast and are now living at 214B Lincoln street.

Mrs. Florence Stacy, and son Charles Stacy, have returned to their home here at 214½ North Peach street, after living in Los Angeles for the past year.

Camp White Program Sponsored by Olsens; Fred Divisek Plays

A program of organ and accordion music furnished entertainment during an "Enchanted Hour" program at the veterans domiciliary May 28. The regular program is sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. Paul Olsen of the "Enchanted Grotto," Crater Lake highway.
