

Gold Hill, Grants Pass Business Women Hold Annual Installation

Gold Hill—Officers of the Gold Hill and Grants Pass Business and Professional Women's clubs were installed at a joint ceremony held Tuesday evening at the Grants Pass library auditorium. Miss Fern Trull, Grants Pass, state BPW federation president, served as installing officer.

Installed for the Gold Hill club were Mrs. Thelma Bell, president; Mrs. Edith K. Graffis, vice-president; Mrs. Joy Kruse, secretary; and Mrs. Betty Molloy, treasurer.

Mrs. Zepha Pierson directed the installation and presented the emblem ceremony, assisted by Miss Trull and Mrs. Shelton. Mrs. Margaret Grunze presented bouquets of pink roses to Mrs. Vera Stewart, retiring president of the Gold Hill club, and Mrs. Mae Dawson, retiring president of the Grants Pass club. A president's pin was presented to Mrs. Grunze, and a gift and past president's pin to Mrs. Dawson. All the officers were given corsages made by Bonnie Borie.

Students of Ruth Bennett's dancing school presented a program of dance numbers, with Miss Kathleen Treick as accompanist. The committee in charge of arrangements included Mrs. Shelton, chairman, Mrs. West, Mrs. Borie, Dorothy Lobballo, Bernice Benjamine, Mary Weller and Beatrice Bureau.

Family Leaves

O. McKeen, advisor; Mrs. Don Wood, vice-president. Seated (left to right) are Mrs. Frances Willett, fellowship chairman, and Miss Anna May, treasurer. (Brainard photo)

University Women Install Officers for Coming Term

Medford branch, American Association of University Women, held the final meeting of the 1931-32 year recently at the Jackson hotel, and installed officers for the coming term.

Mrs. J. P. Tobin took office as president, replacing Mrs. C. B. Collins. Other officers are Mrs. Don Wood, vice-president; Miss Anna May, treasurer and Mrs. C. H. Herman Jr., secretary.

Mrs. Tobin has announced committee chairmen who will serve with her. They are Mrs.

Emerson Anderson, education; Mrs. Justin Smith, international relations; Mrs. Herbert Seitz, social studies; Mrs. Malcolm Byers, status of women; Mrs. Don Wood, membership; Mrs. Frances Willett, fellowship; Mrs. Harry Chipman, program; Mrs. James S. Cummins, courtesy; Mrs. Don Whallin, legislative; Mrs. G. S. Mackenzie, publicity; Mrs. Max Pearce, historian; Mrs. Ray L. Casterline, hospitality; Mrs. Tom McLeod, telephone; Mrs. James Shaw, recent graduates; Mrs. Lowell Chamberlain, study groups; Mrs. M. O. Peterson, art chairman.

Mrs. Collins and Mrs. E. O. McKeen will act as advisors for the group.

Ray Johnson of station KMED was speaker, talking on "Television in the Rogue River Valley." Mr. Johnson said there were no immediate prospects for bringing television to the valley, and that it was thought reception would not be good because of the geographical location of the district.

Mrs. C. W. Lacy sang, accompanied by Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer.

Medford Parents Unit To Hold Installation

Mrs. D. E. Kenner will be installed as the new chairman for Medford Parents' Unit at a meeting Tuesday, June 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. C. R. Kliever, route 1, box 479C.

Other officers to be installed are Mrs. Kliever, vice-chairman; Mrs. A. Hertager, secretary, and Mrs. C. P. Smets, treasurer. Mrs. Lyle Heidelman, the present chairman, will preside.

A talk will be given by Mrs. Lucille Beach on color style in the home. Mrs. Beach is the color stylist from Sherwin-Williams company.

Hostesses will be Mrs. E. C. Britton, Mrs. Claud Miles and Mrs. Heidelman.

Memorial Service Held By RNA Juvenile Club; Birthday Party Follows

A memorial service was conducted by Royal Neighbor Juveniles at a recent meeting. Decorations were in purple and white, with bouquets of flowers and acorns and leaves arranged with a figure of Christ and a white cross. Miss Mary Ann Adams sang a solo.

After the service Mrs. Paul Morrow gave a surprise birthday party for her daughter, Darlene Morrow. The refreshment tables were decorated in pink, blue and white and Mrs. Leland Goff, Mrs. Clyde Hillyer and Geraldine Gidney assisted Mrs. Morrow as hostess. Degree of Honor junior club members and Royal Neighbors were invited guests. Miss Geraldine Gidney gave the honored guest gifts from the group. Mrs. H. G. Wilson, director of Degree of Honor junior club and past president of the Oregon Degree of Honor lodge, and Mrs. Clayton Walker, district deputy of Royal Neighbors lodge, spoke.

Games were played and prizes awarded.

Plan Assembly Reports For Rebekah Meeting
