

Small Bore Rifle Tourney Ends Today; Etna Man Wins Waddell Trophy Saturday

Medford Rifle and Pistol club's annual spring small bore rifle tourney is scheduled to conclude today with scope sight firing on the day's program which was to be at 7 a. m. at the club range just west of Crater Lake highway Four Corners.

The shoot opened yesterday with six iron sight events. Five actual firing matches were planned today. Matches in which aggregates of tussles are figured will bring to 15 the total of events.

This is the first time since the war that the spring tourney has been a two-day affair.

George V. Hendricks, Etna, Calif., won the Waddell trophy for metallic sight aggregate at the Medford May Rifle tournament at the Medford Rifle club on Saturday.

Hendricks led yesterday with 1,586 out of a possible 1,600 in the master shooters' class. William F. Schlitzkus, Springfield, Ore., had 1,581, and Lewis E. Brentlinger, Eugene, had 1,580.

Leading the second class match was Charles Cunningham, Corvallis, with 1,569, and Guy Pool, Willows, Calif., was second with 1,568.

Hugh M. Washburn, Klamath Falls, headed the sharpshooters' class with 1,567 while Orel E. Lewis, Ft. Jones, Calif., carded a 1,557.

In the marksman class, Steve K. Washburn, Klamath Falls, topped a 1,539, and Jean E. Privat, Springfield, garnered 1,523.

Individual winners were Hendricks for match 1 (50 yards), Match 2 at 50 meters and Match 5 at 100 yards; Adrian Landberg won Match 3 (three positions 'international meter) and also Match 2 of the international aggregate with 652; and Betty Landberg, Willows, Calif., won Match 4.

Thirty-five Oregon and California shooters participated in Saturday's shoot.

Los Angeles Tops Seals by 8 to 6

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Catcher Les Peden's three-run homer in the seventh capped Los Angeles' come-from-behind victory over San Francisco Saturday as the Angels won 8-6, before 1,380 fans.

Los Angeles, behind 3-0 in the fifth, got to Seal starter Bill Reeder for a pair of tallies in that panel and for two more in the sixth. The Angels never looked back again as Peden's four-master in the seventh shot them farther ahead.

Reeder, who started the season auspiciously by pitching a two-hitter opening night, received for his seventh straight lacing. Fred Baczewski, a tall, trim southpaw, was bothered by wildness but staggered the distance to pick up his first win of the season.

Baczewski walked three men in the first inning, forcing in one run and giving up another on Bill McCawley's tremendous single to the left center field fence. McCawley lost credit for an extra base when he and Joe Grace both wound up perched on second base.

Peden's homer came off Matt Zidich, a relief pitcher who had replaced Reeder in the same frame.

Calumet Farms Entries One-Two In $28,950 Hollywood Feature

Inglewood, Calif. — (U.P.) — The Devils red and blue silks of famed Calumet farm flashed one-two Saturday as A Gleam and Two Lea finished first and second in the $28,950 Milady handicap at Hollywood park.

And not only was the race for the top money between the two Calumet runners, but the jockeys were an entry, so to speak, as brothers Pete Moreno was up on A Gleam and Henry Moreno on Two Lea. Spanish Cream was tired and her stablemate, Special Touch, was fourth in the 11-horse field.

In capturing the Milady handicap by the two-and-a-half lengths, A Gleam set a new track record of 1:21 3/5 for seven furlongs, cutting a fifth of a second off the mark set in 1947 by Honeymoon.

In the second half of the double stakes program witnessed by 44,241 racing fans, King Ranch's Haunted scored her fourth straight victory in the $26,440 Cinderella stakes for two-year-old fillies. She defeated So Regards by three lengths.

Calumet Farm entered a triple entry in the Milady, with Wistful the third one of the group. The Calumet group went off at three to five odds and returned $3.50, 2.90 and 2.20 for winning and placing, while the entry headed by Spanish Cream paid $3.60 to show.

A Gleam, winner of the Princess Pat at Washington Park last year, earned $16,800 for her stable in winning the Milady while Two Lea got $5,000 for finishing second, making it a profitable day for Calumet Farm.

Haunted raced the five furlongs in :58 1/5 and paid $10.60, 4.60 and 3.40.

It was the King Ranch filly's first stakes win. The victory was worth $17,050 to her owners. Fleet Diver was installed the favorite in the race but finished last in the field of eight.

Studs Tussle At Coquille

Two clubs battling to get out of or keep out of the Southwestern Oregon Baseball league cellar contend in afternoon game today at Coquille.

The teams are the Medford Cheney Studs, who up to last night had won one game in four tries, and Coquille, which up to then had not won its first league game. The two nines contested last night in the opener of the two-fray series of the week-end.

Roster Loaded

Coquille has loaded its roster since the start of the season to a greater extent than the Studs, picking up such players as Bobby Doerr, ex-Boston Red Sox second baseman; Alden Wilkie, pitcher with major and Coast league experience, and Dick Lerner, chucker with Coast and Pioneer league background.

The Studs will play here again next week-end, taking on Brookings at the fairgrounds ball park.

Legion Baseball Tiffs Called Off

There will be no American Legion junior baseball game at the fairgrounds today. Coach Alva Perkins of the Medford team reported.

Lakeview has forfeited the two games it was to play with Medford this afternoon, he said. A Lakeview official telephoned Medford yesterday saying that the Lake county nine could not make the trip.

Medford's next scheduled action on its home diamond is a doublebill with Klamath Falls on June 15.

Perkins reported that plans are being made for games with Myrtle Creek, Eugene and Drain which are not in this district.

$230,100 Prize Melon Cut By 33 Indianapolis Racers

Indianapolis, Ind. — (U.P.) — The Indianapolis speedway split its largest melon in history Saturday night — $230,100 — as the payoff for the 36th annual 500-mile Memorial day auto race.

Of that sum, Big Troy Ruttman, of Lynwood, Calif., who won the 200-lap grind in record time, collected $81,743.18. That total included $38,918.18 from the speedway and the remainder in accessory and other awards.

Last year's total jackpot was $207,650 and winner Lee Wallard got a pay check worth $63,612.12.

Speedway owner Antone Hulman, Jr., doubled the guaranteed prize fund from $75,000 to $150,000 to make the giant jackpot possible. In addition, the management paid $5,500 in qualifying prizes and added $13,800 from the entry fees to boost the speedway's part of the record total to $169,300.

Ruttman, at 22 years, the youngest and at 245 pounds the biggest of the 33 starters, would have eclipsed Willard's record purse had he picked up more lap prize money. Ruttman led for only 43 laps — and got $100 for each lap — while Wallard picked up $15,900 in lap prize money.

Jim Rathman of Chicago, runner-up in the 500, collected a total of $24,368.18; third-place Sam Hanks, Glendale, Calif., pocketed $14,768.18; Duane Carter, Culver City, Calif., the fourth finisher, $11,818.18, and Art Cross, Morristown, N. J., in fifth place and the top rookie got $7,418.18.

All 33 drivers shared in the prize kitty with Andy Linden of Los Angeles, who placed last, collecting $2,217.19.

Hard-luck Bill Vukovich of Fresno, Calif., who led 150 of the 200 laps, but careened into the wall while leading with only eight laps to go, got a pay check of $18,693.18 — the third largest.

Hollywood Takes PCL 2nd Place

Hollywood — (U.P.) — The Hollywood Stars replaced Oakland in the number two spot of the Pacific Coast league Saturday as they trounced the Acorns 8 to 0.

In his second shutout and fourth consecutive win, Hollywood moundman Pinky Woods went the distance to hold the Acorns to five hits. A severe cold has kept Woods on the sidelines since last May 18 when he shut out Portland 3 to 0.

Oakland threatened only once. They loaded the sacks in the fifth inning with only one out, but Woods pulled himself out by snagging a grounder by Johnny Bero in time for a double play.

Carlos Bernier opened the attack for the Twinks by slamming the second ball pitched in the contest for a 360 foot drive over the left field wall.

TOURNEY AT GEARHART

Gearhart — (U.P.) — The Oregon Public Links Golf association will hold its annual 36-hole best ball tournament here Sunday. Bill Lees and Virgil Mitchell, both of Portland, will be on hand to defend their class A crown as will Class B titleholders Gordon Fleming and Earl Newton.

Fishermen, Landowners Public Relations Said Better Along Deschutes

Madras — (U.P.) — Better public relations were noted Saturday between fishermen and landowners in the Mecca and Gateway areas along the Deschutes river.

No grass fires caused by anglers have been reported to the Oregon State Game commission in the area. The fire danger in the canyon of the Deschutes remains high because of the prolonged dry weather.

Cooperation Asked
The commission is erecting signs asking the cooperation of fishermen in preventing fires, banning the use of firearms and controlling activities of dogs.

The actions of irresponsible persons who started range fires have closed the lands along the Deschutes in past years.
