145 Missionaries Being Held in Communist China

Hong Kong — (U.P.) — Catholic missionary sources in Hong Kong have revealed that 145 missionaries from 13 countries are now in jail or under detention in Communist China.

The charges include everything from manslaughter, in the case of several nuns who ran orphanages, to "counter revolutionary" activities. The charges extend to missionaries who have opposed the Communist-sponsored "reform church" movement or have continued to organize active chapters of the "Legion of Mary," a lay organization which has been banned by the government.

In some cases, no specific charges have been revealed.

Among the American missionaries under arrest are:

Bishop Francis X. Ford, M.M. of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Bishop Rembert Kowalski, O.F.M. of Calumet, Wisc.; Bishop Ambrose Pinger, O.F.M. of Lindsay, Neb.; Bishop Philip Cote, S.J. of Lawrence, Mass.; Bishop John O'Shea, C.M. of Deep River, Conn.; Msgr. Eugene Fahy, S.J. of San Francisco, Calif.; Rev. Paul Uibering, C.P. of Pittsburgh, Penn.; Rev. James Thornton, S.J. of San Francisco, Calif.; Rev. Fulgence Gross, O.F.M. of Omaha, Neb. Others listed:

Also the Rev. Sigfried Schneider, O.F.M. of Louisville, Ky.; Rev. William Ryan, S.J. of Santa Barbara, Calif.; Rev. Harold Rigney, S.V.D. of Chicago, Ill.; Rev. Justin Garvey, C.P. of Ridgewood, N. Y.; Brother Matthew Swift, S.V.D. of Waseca, Minn.; Sister Joan Marie (Ryan) of the Bronx, N. Y. (Maryknoll Sisters); Rev. Harold Travers, C.P. of Revere, Mass.; Rev. Marcellus White, C.P. of Waltham, Mass.; Rev. John McGinn, M.M. of Providence, R. I.; Rev. John Toomey, M. M. of New Bedford, Mass.; Rev. Armand Proulx, S.J. of Lowell, Mass.

Canadians Listed
Among the Canadians are: Bishop Cuthbert O'Gara, C.P. of Ontario; Msgr. Gustave Prevost, M.E.Q. of Montreal; Rev. Arcensius Mullen, O.F.M. of Montreal; Rev. Eugene Lauzon, S.J. of Alberta; Sister Alphonsine Redempteur (Antoinette Couvrette) of Ste. Dorothee, Que. (Congregation of the Immaculate Conception); Sister Marie Germaine (Germaine Gravel).

Wisconsin Residents Top Beer Guzzlers

Milwaukee — (U.P.) — Wisconsin residents eased up on their beer drinking last year but they still guzzled more of the amber brew than any other group of citizens.

That's the report of the American Brewer Magazine, which keeps track of such things.

For every man, woman and child in Wisconsin, 26.5 gallons were consumed in 1951, according to the magazine's statistics. Of course, there weren't many children drinking beer in the Badger State, so the total for some of the adults must have crept up to astronomical proportions.

Nationally, the amount of beer consumed by each individual decreased from an even 17 gallons in 1950 to 16.6 gallons last year.

Standing Still Saves Man From Prison Trip

Oklahoma City — (U.P.) — Jesus Casas Perales, aged 19, saved himself a probable trip to the penitentiary by just standing still.

Perales was arrested for violating a two-year suspended sentence by failing to get a job and hanging around taverns. He was being transferred to county jail with another prisoner when the other man made a break for freedom.

While deputies chased and captured the fugitive, Perales waited in front of the courthouse until they returned. The judge decided not to revoke the sentence suspension.

of St. Pospier, Que. (Congregation of the Immaculate Conception). Sister Raymond Marie (Ross Alma Larose), of Hannord, Frontenac (Our Lady of Angels).

Also on the list are priests and nuns from Italy, Germany, Belgium, Ireland, France, Holland, Portugal, Hungary, Spain, Poland, British West Indies and Colombia.

The 145 imprisoned missionaries represent 25 religious congregations. The Jesuits, who have the largest personnel of any religious congregation in China with 217 priests, 31 brothers and 25 scholastics, have 18 of their members behind Communist bars.

Thirty-one of the remaining 184 Franciscan priests are imprisoned and the Society of the Divine Word has 29 of its 125 priests and brothers under arrest.

Only a few of the 145 have received trials or prison "sentences." They have simply been removed by the police from their residences and thrown into jail. Of many no news has been received since their arrest. Some have now been held for more than a year.

Narrow Escapes Don't Stop Well Blaster

Warrenton, N. C. — (U.P.) — Two narrow escapes haven't doused the enthusiasm of Lewis Kearney, 63-year-old Negro, for his job of well-blasting.

Kearney, recovering in a hospital after a fall 40 feet down a well shaft with a stick of dynamite in his pocket told about an even narrower escape.

He had just place three sticks of dynamite in the bottom of a well, lit the fuses and signaled on a rope for his assistants to pull him up. About half way up the rope slipped off the windlass.

"I could hear them running away," Kearney said. "What did I do? I just snipped the ends off those fuses with about an even narrower escape."

Alabama Banana Tree Produces Fruit

Birmingham, Ala. — (U.P.) — Mrs. A. J. Borders produces bananas in her back yard.

After nourishing for seven years a plant brought by a friend back from Florida, Mrs. Borders said she has harvested three "hands" of bananas, eight bananas to each "hand."

Friends told her the plant would die and she thought so too when the weather cooled. She dug the little plant up, wrapped it in blankets and "stored it for the winter." The next spring she transplanted it and it's not so little any more.

One of the plants now stands a good six or seven feet high and the fruit is about four inches long and perfectly formed, she said.

DOGS GET SERVICE
Memphis, Tenn. — (U.P.) — An animal hospital here has installed the latest equipment for aiding man's best friend when he's ailing. It's an incubator with an oxygen-tent attachment for dogs.
