

Cheney Studs Divide Series With Coquille

SOUTHWESTERN OREGON LEAGUE STANDINGS

Drain	W.	L.	Pct.
Bandon	5	1	.833
Roseburg	4	2	.667
Coos Bay-North Bend	3	3	.500
Medford	2	4	.333
Coquille	1	5	.167
Brookings	0	6	.000

Medford's Cheney Studs held fifth position in the Southwestern Oregon league baseball standings after splitting a weekend doubleheader at Coquille. The Studs won Saturday 7 to 2 and lost Sunday 3 to 2.

Unbeaten Drain, idle over the week-end, gained sole leadership in the circuit when Bandon lost its first game. Bandon lost 4 to 2 to Roseburg Saturday night and won 7 to 2 on Sunday. Roseburg is in third place with two losses in six games.

Lumberjacks Win
Coos Bay-North Bend broke into the victory column for the first time in the league by taking a Sunday doublebill from Brookings 18 to 4 and 11 to 0. The lumberjacks have lost two games.

Frank Roelandt's home run with one man on base and Derold Wooton's stellar pitching for Medford were highlights of the Saturday encounter. Wooton gave up only three hits, struck out 13 batters and walked six. He was in trouble with men on base on a number of occasions but hurled undauntedly.

Medford in the Sunday game was handcuffed by Pitcher Alden Wilkie, who gave up three hits. A couple of errors hurt the Studs.

Loggers Score
Coquille tallied once in the first inning on a walk, fielder's choice and error and again in the second on two singles, a fielder's choice and two errors. The Loggers' winning run came in the seventh on two walks and two singles.

Medford scored both runs in the sixth frame on four errors. Alex McDonald and Wooton, running for Clarence Melbye, crossed home for the Studs.

Medford plays Brookings at the fairgrounds here on Saturday and Sunday.

Loop Leaders Tip Millers 7 to 6 at Central Point

Central Point — Cave Junction remained unbeaten in the Rogue Valley Baseball league by topping Central Point's Millers 7 to 6 here Sunday and it was a leaping stab of a hot liner by Second Baseman Tiger Smith that kept the league leader's unblemished record intact.

Smith, who struckout on all five of his turns at bat, made the catch in the ninth inning to halt a Miller rally after five runs had crossed the plate. Two men were on base and two were out, and had not Smith hauled in Jack Burn's rap, tying and winning runs might have crossed the plate for Central Point.

The Millers got their five runs on singles by Burns, Mel Anhorn, Bill Donahoe and Bob Fasel, two fielder's options, an error and two walks. Central Point's other run was in the eighth inning when Ben Fagone tripled and scored on Herb Trautman's ground out.

Run making by Cave Junction was scattered over five innings. The Illinois valley aggregation got one run in the first frame on an error and double by Mayburn Campbell. One crossed home in the second on two singles, a stolen base and a passed ball.

There were two Cave Junction tallies in the fourth stanza on a double by Wieler, a walk and a triple by Wayne Saffer. One run in the fifth was marked up on a walk, pilfered base and single. The final two scores were in the seventh on two singles, a hit batter, a fielder's option and an error.

Lloyd Mangrum Wins Western

St. Louis—(U.P.)—Lloyd Mangrum, who pockets the "long green" almost as often as he puts on the links greens, ranked second Monday among the pro gold money winners for 1952 as a result of his triumph in the Western Open.

His spectacular 64 Sunday gave him a 72-hole total of 274 for first prize of $2,400 and the crown, one of the few that had eluded the 37-year-old Chicago shot maker up to now.

His total winnings for the year are now $9,096, just behind those of Jack Burke, Houston, Tex., who has earned $12,455. Mangrum was high last year with $26,088.

His score on the final 18 holes broke the record for the tough 6,618-yard Westwood Country Club course by one stroke and it gave him an eight-stroke margin over Bobby Locke, Johannesburg, South Africa, who finished second with 282.

INDIANA NET WINNER
Evanston, Ill. (U.P.)—Indiana swept five of six singles divisions and racked up a doubles victory to capture its first Big Ten tennis championship. The Hoosier net artists ran up a total of 70 points on the Northwestern university courts Sunday.

Defending Champion Michigan State was second, but far out of contention, with 56. Iowa had 33 1-2, Northwestern 24, Illinois 18, Purdue 13, Michigan 20 1-2, Wisconsin 8 1-2, Ohio State 3 and Minnesota 2.

MICHIGAN VICTOR
Champaign, Ill. (U.P.)—The University of Michigan golf team went home Big Ten champions after chipping and putting to a 16 stroke victory on the rain soaked University of Illinois golf course. The Wolverines pocketed the title Saturday, with a 1,559 for 72 holes. Purdue was second with 1,575. Wisconsin was two strokes back of the Boiler-makers with 1,577 and Ohio State took fourth place with 1,583.

CIRCUS CLOWNS COMING—Clowns—about 40 of them—will be with the Clyde Beatty circus when it comes to Medford Tuesday, June 10, for matinee and evening performances at the Fairgrounds. These very necessary parts of a circus are under the direction of Eddie Dullum, producing clown. In addition, Clyde Beatty's famous wild animal act will be one of the principal attractions, and other events will include the grand entry featuring the entire cast and much of the menagerie, the aerialists and tight-wire experts and many other features from among the cast of 300. Performances will be at 3 and 8 p.m., with gates opening at 2 and 7 p.m.

Illinois Sweeps Big 10 Crowns

Ann Arbor, Mich. — (U.P.) — University of Illinois was acclaimed the Big Ten's champion of champions — Monday — the first school in history to sweep all of the major Western conference athletic titles.

The powerful Illini won championships in football, basketball, indoor and outdoor track and shared the baseball crown with Michigan.

Slim Margin
A slim victory over Michigan in the conference outdoor track meet at Ann Arbor, Mich., over the holiday weekend enabled Illinois to complete the sweep.

Host Michigan led through 13 events of the 14-event outdoor meet only to see Illinois dominate the pole vault to grab a 67-3.5 to 65-1-10 decision.

Amateur Chemists May Display Ideas

Chicago — (U.P.) — Amateur, unknown and undiscovered chemists who think they have something worthwhile to offer industry will get a chance to display their ideas along with the nation's top chemical firms.

Organizers of the national chemical exposition to be held here next September have set aside an area for the exclusive use of budding chemists.

Exhibitors will be allowed any form of display from a simple placard to a foot-deep lighted glass case.

Shipping costs to and from the show will be borne by the exhibitor but the exposition will pay for the handling, mounting and repacking charges.

Dead line Sunday Classifieds is at noon Saturdays.

Plane Used To Seed Wheat, Brome Grass

Martin, S. D. — (U.P.) — Leonard Woepfel is watching his wheat and brome grass fields closely to learn if his sowing experiment worked.

Woepfel, because his fields were too wet for his machinery, took to the air to plant them.

He rigged up his light airplane with a hopper and seeded 45 acres of spring wheat and 25 acres of brome grass.

His hopper held only two bushels of seed, which sowed about two acres in 22 seconds.

"It was the smoothest job of sowing I have ever done," he said. "Now I just have to wait to see if I'm going to get a crop."

Deadly Poison Helps Lick Coyote Problem

Cardon, Alberta — (U.P.) — Sheep ranchers in this southern Alberta foothills community feel they have the coyote problem licked, thanks to a new deadly poison named "1080."

Last year, the coyotes slaughtered 323 sheep in the area. Since last fall, when the poison was first used, ranchers report seeing only six live coyotes in the district and not a single sheep had been cut down by the killers.

Baiting of meat was heavy during the winter and ranchmen hope they can build up their dwindling herds.

Around Hollywood

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Movie queens are blossoming out in an extra-short "tomboy" hair-do that puts the poodle hair-cut right out of style.

To be fashionably poodle, actresses like Esther Williams and Elizabeth Taylor had their hair cut short and curled like the noggins of those French poodles.

Now glamour girl Jan Sterling makes them look like long-haired ladies.

She had her shoulder-length blonde curls whacked shorter than Tony Curtis'.

Sliced Back
Jan's hair, what's left of it, is straight and slicked back just Another devotee of the tomboy cut is actress Marian Marshall. Her's is slightly longer than Jan's, though, and combed in back like a zoot-sulter's coiffure.

It's so short, in fact, that her husband, Paul Douglas, cracks, "the first morning I thought I'd woken up next to a choir boy."

"It all started with swimming," Jan explained. "Paul can get out of the pool and he looks fine but I always have to put my hair up in bobby pins.

Seven Inches Cut Off
"So the studio hairdresser cut off seven inches of my hair. Now when I get out of the pool I just grip, grip with my hands on my hair like men do, and it looks great.

"Besides," she added, "Paul and I can go to the same barber
