Roundup Ceremony Held Saturday Night At Posse Grounds

About 250 persons Saturday evening attended ceremonies at the Jackson County Mounted Sheriff's posse grounds when Sheriff Howard Gault declared Miss Judy Briggs, queen, and Misses Mary Lou Larson and Shirley Nelson, princesses for the 10th annual Rogue River roundup. The roundup is set for June 14 and 15.

Mr. Gault presented each girl a white western riding hat, gifts from the posse. Mrs. Guy Hughes, captain of the Ladies Mounted troop, gave Miss Briggs an embroidered western shirt, a gift from the troop.

Members of the Junior posse participated in the ceremonies and rode in a group with posse and troop members who escorted the queen and princesses to the arena.

Earlier about 150 persons met at the posse club house for a "buckaroo" supper served by the troop and following the ceremonies those who attended joined in dancing at the club house.

Group To Spend Weekend at Ranch

Miss Jeannie Ragsdale, with her mother, Mrs. Jesse Ragsdale, 513 Palm street, and the Misses Delores and Eloise Clark, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Stelle, 612 Victory street, will leave Friday morning for the Bar M Dude ranch at Gibbon, Ore., near Pendleton. Miss Ragsdale won a week-end trip to the ranch with all expenses paid, for herself and three companions. She received this as a prize for winning a limerick contest sponsored earlier in the year by a Portland department store.

While at the ranch the young women will participate in a number of outdoor sports, including riding, swimming and hiking. The group will return here Tuesday. Miss Ragsdale and Miss Delores Clark are completing their junior year at the Medford Senior high school. Miss Eloise Clark was graduated from the same school last year.

Arrive

Mrs. John Ousterhout and daughter, Gretchen, have arrived in Medford from Woodburn, Ore., where Mr. Ousterhout taught in the Woodburn High school last term. Mr. Ousterhout is to arrive soon and the family will spend the summer with relatives in Medford and Eagle Point and will move to a new home near Eagle Point in the fall.

GET THEIR MAN

Platte City, Mo. — (U.P.) — Policemen expect to be obeyed even if they have to chase culprits in motor boats. It cost Zenon V. Culbertson $50 to find that out. Culbertson was cruising among flooded buildings in Riverside when patrolmen ordered him to shore. He ignored their calls.

4-H Leaders' Picnic Scheduled June 15th
A picnic for all members and families of the Jackson county 4-H Leaders association will be held on June 15 starting at noon, at the Elks' picnic grounds, according to R. H. Cate Jr., county 4-H agent.
The affair will feature a pot-luck lunch, Cate added, and some special feature, to be worked out later, will be offered in honor of Father's day.
The picnic will replace the regular Leaders' meeting on June 4, he concluded.
