First Plans Made For Festival Music; Lampl To Direct

First plans for Medford participation in the musical programs to be given this summer in connection with the Oregon Shakespearean festival, Ashland, are now being made. Mrs. Darell Huson, music chairman of Tudor guild, is now listing musicians interested in the project.

An augmented program of music will be arranged and directed this summer by Hans Lampl, authority on Elizabethan music from the University of Southern California.

Mr. Lampl will direct a chorus and an orchestra, which will not only provide music for the plays but will give an evening's program one night during the festival.

Persons interested in singing, or in playing with the orchestra, are asked to contact Mrs. Huson. It is stated that rehearsal schedules will be made as flexible as possible, and that if enough Medford musicians are interested in the project, some of the rehearsals will be held in this city.

Exemplar Chapter Holds Installation

Exemplar chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a potluck dinner recently at the home of Miss Adabee Seiler, 1132 West Main street.

Installation of officers was held, with Miss Thelma Loughary taking office as president. Others installed were Miss Florence Erbes, vice-president; Mrs. Willard Sloper, secretary and Miss Seiler, treasurer.

The president appointed Mrs. Willard Sloper chairman of the social committee and Miss Seiler chairman of the ways and means committee.

Representatives to the city council are Mrs. Cecil Davis, Miss Loughary and Miss Erbes.

Graduation Held For Ruch School; Officers Installed

Ruch—Nine Ruch eighth grade students were presented diplomas during graduation exercises at the school Thursday.

Receiving their diplomas were Sonja Smith, Shirley Dunlap, Doris Huckaba, Fred Straube, Buddy Childers, Jim Shepherd, Bob Blankenship, Dale Boatwright and Charles Meeds. Ed Ramsey, school board chairman, gave out the diplomas.

Previous to the graduation the class and their principal, Henry Kammann, made a trip to Crescent City. Other activities at the close of school included short trips or parties for each room and annual play day at the Applegate school.

The final parent-teacher meeting included installation of the following officers: Mrs. Robert Webb, president; George Redhead, vice-president; Mrs. Gayle Buffington, secretary, and Rex Davis, treasurer.

Other events following were potluck dinner and presentation of a farewell gift to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kammann. Mr. Kammann will attend Southern Oregon college this summer and will be principal of Lone Pine school next term.

According to the "Ruch Recorder," student newspaper edited by Sonja Smith, two pupils, Sharon Ranney and Jerome Peterson, had perfect attendance records for the term.

Quartet To Sing On Radio Program

Ashland—A selection of songs by the male quartet at Southern Oregon college will be heard on the regular college broadcast to be aired at 8:45 Thursday evening by Radio Station KWIN, Ashland, according to Leon C. Mulling, associate professor of speech.

Members of the singing group directed by Oscar C. Bjorlie, assistant professor of music are Jim Baker, Medford; Lloyd Bunnell, Ashland; Paul Adams, Grants Pass; and George Kekuna, Hilo, Hawaii. Announcer for the program is Marlys Franklin, Medford.

Women of the Moose Plan Annual Election

Election of officers will be held by Women of the Moose when they meet tonight at eight o'clock at the Odd Fellows hall. During a recent meeting Mrs. Ben Blachly was initiated into the lodge and also was presented a lodge pin.

Hospital guild chairman, Mrs. Clara Eldridge, was in charge of

Assembly Reports Given by Rebekahs; Award Announced

Reports of delegates who attended the annual convention of the Oregon Rebekah assembly were heard at a meeting of the lodge held Monday night.

Mrs. Frank Heller, the new deputy president of Olive Rebekah lodge, opened the report. Mrs. O. S. Walden told of the second day's session and Mrs. Lewis Thompson reported on the third day's program. Mrs. Carrie Milnes' report covered evening sessions.

First meeting of the session was held in the historic Methodist church in Salem, more than 100 years old and the mayor of Salem and Governor Douglas McKay both addressed the convention.

J. W. Hamlin and Mrs. A. B. Shirley of Medford received the degree of chivalry during convention ceremonies.

Mrs. Minnie Bryant, publicity chairman for Olive Rebekah lodge, was awarded the state prize for best publicity for lodges of more than 200 members. Fulfilling one of the requirements of the publicity program for the year was awarding of a 4H scholarship. The local scholarship was awarded to Joann Russell, who will attend the 4H summer session at Corvallis beginning June 17.

Miss Russell and her mother attended Monday's session of the lodge and Miss Russell explained the 4H program. She was presented her scholarship check by Mrs. L. O. Howard.

Visitors also included Mrs. Edna Foster, Rebekah from Madison, Ill., and Mrs. Beverly Smith, member of the local lodge now living in Portland.

Mrs. Minnie Bryant, Mrs. Clayton Walker, Mrs. Walter Wilson and Mrs. Mike O'Shea served refreshments.

Mrs. A. H. Gregory and members of her committee reported on plans for the reception to be given June 7 in honor of Lynn Cram, new grand master of the Oregon IOOF lodge. It will be held in Medford Junior High school beginning at 8 p.m. All Odd Fellows and their wives, all Rebekahs and their husbands, visiting members of the lodge and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Cram are invited to attend the reception, those in charge state.

Visitors Here

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hule and son, Dick, Missoula, Mont., are visiting this week with Mrs. Lelia M. Paxson, an aunt. While here they will visit Crater lake and make a trip to the coast. The Hules have visited here numerous times and particularly enjoy making a trip to the valley at this time of the year.
