Grandmothers' Club Has Birthday Party At Brockway Home

Rogue chapter, Grandmothers' club, celebrated the first anniversary of organization with a meeting May 29 in the home of Mrs. E. A. Brockway, Stewart avenue. The club was installed and a charter received at a meeting May 17, 1951 at the home of Mrs. A. Bradshaw.

Since then the fast-growing club has received new members at every meeting but one, and three new members were taken into the group at the anniversary meeting.

A birthday cake was served at the anniversary meeting, and the club voted to assist with the Haven fund, a national project of the organization.

The meeting ended with a tour of the Brockway gardens, and each member was presented flowers.

Mrs. H. G. Wilson, president, conducted the meeting and Mrs. M. S. Mallory acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. May Denman, in Eugene to visit a new grandson.
