

On The Side

Take time, my dear, ere time takes wing:
 Beauty knows no second spring.
 At twenty-five in women's eyes
 Beauty fades, at thirty dies.
 —Dyer.

(The highly pessimistic poetic observation above was written in the eighteenth century. In those days, beauty really knew no second spring. Nowadays, it knows second, third and fourth springs. Only yesterday I saw a celebrity I know to be 57 years old. Her appearance was that of a woman of 30. A woman of today who knows how to take care of herself can still be a whistle girl when she's 60.)

Are you familiar with the duties of a musical stenographer? This is a highly specialized activity. Takes a very clever person to handle it. Suppose there is a tune running through your head. Seems catchy to you, but you don't now how to write music. You whistle or hum that tune to a musical stenographer and he will put it in musical score form. Bob Merrill, a highly successful composer of popular songs, can't write a note of music. He taps out a tune on a toy xylophone and a musical stenographer does the rest. Among the popular songs composed by Merrill are, "Why Does It Have to Rain on Sunday?", "Sparrow in the Tree Top," and "If I Knew You Were Coming I'd've Baked a Cake."

Among The Married.
 Woman who marry a second time seldom marry for love. They just want to marry a nice man who will provide them with a peaceful home and a sense of security. Most men, however, who embark on a second matrimonial venture do so for love. The male is, of course, the most romantic sex.

Passing By.
 Arthur Murray. Millionaire dance instructor. Teaching the terpsichorean art can be a highly profitable activity, as Mr. Murray has so definitely proven. At present about 8,000,000 people in this country are reported taking dancing lessons and spending $100,000,000 annually for same. "Strangler" Lewis. Erst-

FLYING 145 MILES AN HOUR, world's smallest plane is pronounced successful by Pilot Bob Starr (left) as he discusses performance characteristics with Designer Ray Stitts at Palm Springs, Cal. Craft has wing span of 7 feet 3 inches, is 9 feet 10 inches long. Tiny plane weighs only 425 pounds. (International) while wrestler. To give you an idea of the Strangler's talents as a grappler he defeated Jim Londos fifteen times. . . . Ethel Barrymore. First lady of the theater. Miss Barrymore has scored triumphs in a wide variety of parts, but that of Juliet eluded her. Her performance in that highly romantic Shakespearean role can only be described as a "flop." Ethel was 43 years old when she played Juliet.

Over There.
 The most popular British sport is horse racing. Whether this is because of love of horses or a liking for the wagering opportunities offered is open to question. In any event 5,000,000 people in Britain are regularly eating horse meat. Two thousand horses are killed weekly in England for this purpose. More are imported from Ireland to be slaughtered.

Something New.
 Now there is something called a "tape measure belt." It is for women. It measures thirty inches. However, it can be taken in. As it is taken in it reveals the exact measurement of the wearer's waist. A great idea. Should be something like that for men. Might be an aid in the reduction of that bulge referred to as "a corporation." The male belt should be about forty-six inches. For Milwaukee males there should be a special belt of about fifty-two inches.

Horses & Women.
 The difficulties in acquiring a husband in this country are greatly exaggerated. Only 15 per cent of women in the U.S.A. between the ages of 25 and 34 are unmarried. Of course, it cannot be denied that the difficulty in acquiring the type of husband most young women want is great. The reason for that is that the average young woman goes in for self-improvement to a much greater extent than the average young man. Therefore, the men who come up to her standards are in the minority. So it happens that while the great majority of women of marrying age are married many of them are not satisfied with their husbands. Hence, the rapidly increasing number of divorcees.

Movie Producer Scrubbing Floors In County Jail

Hollywood — (U.P.) — Walter Wanger, an intellectual, dignified movie producer, was routed out of his cell in the county jail before dawn Thursday to scrub floors.

The white-haired mogul was handed a mop as he began the first full day of his four-months sentence for shooting the suspected lover of his beautiful wife, Joan Bennett, last Dec. 13. Wanger is accustomed to dining at Larue's and wearing hand-tailored suits. But on the 12th floor of the Hall of Justice, he was just prisoner 228487 in ill-fitting blue denim pants, shirt and jacket.

At 6 a. m., the producer, convicted of pumping two bullets into the groin of agent Jennings

Lang, ate a breakfast of stewed fruit, oatmeal, bread and coffee with the 2,433 other prisoners.

Then he stood before a classification board that determined what kind of prison work he is best suited for.

ODD HOBBY JUST FOR FUN
 Lincoln, Neb. — (U.P.) — P. H. Hoffman creates "whing-dings" out of chicken bones, burned-out light bulbs, peach pits and other odds and ends. Hoffman uses the objects to fashion figures of birds, animals and people. He doesn't sell them but makes them for his own enjoyment.

Utilities Commissioner Reports Receipts Pass 2 1/2 Million Dollar Mark
