

Student to Spend Summer on Cruise; Brother Initiated

Gary Boshears, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miner T. Boshears, 408 South Grape street, and a student at Yale university, will spend several weeks this summer on a naval cruise to Europe. The young man is studying under a naval ROTC scholarship.

At present the student is visiting relatives at Knoxville, Tenn., and later will report at Norfolk, Va. He will be in Medford for a visit in late summer.

Young Boshears' brother, Kenneth, was recently initiated into the Oregon State college chapter of Kappa Psi, national honor fraternity for students in pharmacy. He is a junior. He was selected for the membership on the basis of scholarship and character. The young man is also a member of Scabbard and Blade and Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity.

Kenneth Boshears will leave soon for Ft. Gift, Okla., where he will train with an ROTC unit.

Both young men are graduates of Medford Senior High school and both were valedictorians of their classes.

Meeting Announced For Luncheon Club

The Friday Luncheon club will meet Friday, June 13 in the home of Mrs. Mayme Seiler, 1132 West Main street. A 12:30 p.m. potluck luncheon will be served. Table service will not be required.

Miss Wait Pledged By Honor Society; To Be Graduated

Miss Mary Virginia Wait of Medford was recently given special recognition at the annual Oregon State college honors and awards convocation by being pledged by Phi Kappa Phi, national all-school scholastic honor society.

Graduate students, seniors and juniors were selected on the basis of scholarship and campus activities.

Miss Wait is also a member of Alpha Lambda Delta scholastic honor society for sophomore women; Phi Sigma, honor society for those studying biological science and Kappa Delta Pi, national honor society in education.

Miss Wait, daughter of Mrs. F. Wilson, 220 Vancouver avenue, is a senior in science and will be graduated this month.

Rotana Committees Plan For Convention At Special Meeting

Committees making plans for the national convention of Rotana club, to be held in Medford in July, reported at a special meeting of the group held Tuesday evening at Girls Community club.

Mrs. Dora Powell, president of the group, appointed Mrs. Lois Hunter, Mrs. Jeanne Rose and Miss Anna May to plan a cooked food sale this month. Mrs. Susie Riddle, Mrs. Stella Bredt and Mrs. Lois Hunter were named to the budget committee for the coming year.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Peter's Lutheran church will picnic Thursday, June 12 at 1 p.m. in Hawthorne park. Women of the church are invited. Mrs. Kenneth F. Korby and Mrs. Homer Pleyer are in charge. Coffee will be furnished.

Business Meeting Set For Mothers' Club; Services Conducted

Central Point — A business meeting will be held by Central Point Navy Mothers' club Wednesday, June 11, at 2 p.m. in the American Legion hall. All Navy mothers, as well as members, are invited to attend.

Last meeting of the club was held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Krieger, Medford. Guests were Mrs. Carl Quackenbush and her mother, Mrs. Dora Lynch, Mrs. Tom Culbertson and Mrs. Moore. Much sewing was completed during the afternoon. Navy Mothers also conducted services at Bear Creek bridge Memorial day. A tribute was read by the Rev. Don Whitney, who also led in prayer. Chaplain Adams gave a closing verse as bouquets and rose petals were dropped on the water in memory of men who gave their lives at sea.

Annual Picnic Planned For Episcopal Youth

This year's annual picnic for the classes of St. Mark's Episcopal church school will be held today at 3 p.m. at the Table Rock estates home of Mr. and Mrs. John Day.

Mrs. Douglas Roach is in charge of games and activities for the kindergarten group; Warren Elliott has arranged prizes and games for the intermediate classes, and the junior and senior high school group activities will be directed by Mrs. Stanley Phillips.

There will be a fireside sing. The Prospect mission of the church also will have a group of church school students there under direction of Mrs. Velma Rodgers.

Those driving to the picnic should go to the Tolo bridge crossing and signs will direct the route from there. Mrs. Paul Skinner, general chairman of the picnic, stated.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THREE

Student Elected To Phi Beta Kappa At Reed College

Ellis McCurley, son of Mrs. Lorna E. McCurley, route 2, box 407, was elected June 7 to the Reed college chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary fraternity. Selection for membership in this society is considered the highest honor a student may attain in the field of scholarship.

This morning he was one of 14 seniors who were to attend a traditional breakfast given for the new members by the representatives of the fraternity on the Reed campus. Also today he is to be graduated from the institution with a degree in physics. Later this year Mr. McCurley and his wife will go to the University of Wisconsin where he has been awarded an assistantship in physics and where he will work toward a doctor's degree.

Mr. McCurley was graduated from Medford Senior High school with the class of 1943 and from the United States Naval academy at Annapolis in 1946 and was commissioned an officer. He served in the navy during World War II.

Mr. McCurley's mother and sister, Peggy, are at Reed today to attend the graduation.

The fifes and drums of 100 Swiss Guards used to announce dinner for King Louis XVIII.
