Central Point Group Attends Square Dance; Benefit Event Planned

Gold Hill — Fourteen visitors from Central Point attended the square dance session sponsored by Amethyst Rebekah lodge Saturday night at the Odd Fellows hall here. The visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Forest Thomason, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Kime, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Lowry, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glenn, of Central Point Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges.

About 75 people were present at the dance. It was announced that a square dance would be sponsored by the Central Point lodges Saturday night, June 14, at Crater high school gymnasium, to raise money for the fund to send two delegates on the Youth Pilgrimage to United Nations headquarters in New York next month.

Refreshments were served during intermission, with Mrs. Paul Thompson and Mrs. Lester Parker as hostesses. Next session was scheduled for Saturday night, June 21.

Gold Hill Club Holds Annual Installation; Set Flower Show Date

Gold Hill — Mrs. George Smith was installed for a second term as president of Gold Hill Garden club, at a meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. Carl Boye on North 99 highway. Also installed for a second term were Mrs. Boye, vice president, and Mrs. George Dorman, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Paul Holderness and Mrs. Bob Kies, past presidents, were installing officers.

The meeting began with a potluck picnic luncheon. Nineteen members were present and one visitor, Mrs. William Bressel.

Tentative plans were made for a flower show to be held by the club August 29. Mrs. Smith appointed Mrs. Kitty Rich as flower show chairman, Mrs. Roy Cameron in charge of junior exhibits; Mrs. Lester Thompson, silver tea; Mrs. Carl Boye, art exhibits; Mrs. Holderness, program; Mrs. Kies, plant sale.

It was arranged for club members to meet Thursday, June 11, at the home of Mrs. Rich on North 99 highway, to make courses for the Job's Daughters installation, and to discuss further plans for the flower show.

Mrs. Smith presented potted plants and boxes of floral note paper to three members who had a record of perfect attendance during the past year. These were Mrs. Holderness, Mrs. Dorman and Mrs. Hannah Routh.

Since the next regular meeting date would fall on July 4, it was scheduled to be held Friday, July 11, at the home of Mrs. Ferd Jones.

Mrs. J. G. Kofahl and Mrs. Rich were appointed to take flowers to the Camp White Veterans' domiciliary Tuesday, June 10.

Fund Drive Held For Skeeter Spray

A final drive for funds for a neighborhood mosquito control spray project has been announced by the committee in charge.

Some 1,200 acres in the area surrounding the Table Rock road Four Corners is to be sprayed sometime within the next week by Medford Air service. The area extends from the Airport road north to Gibbon road and from Crater Lake highway west to Upton road.

Three-Day Measles Again Tops Diseases

Reported cases of three-day measles climbed to 23 last week. The communicable disease list issued by the county health department also revealed there were nine cases in Ashland, two in Phoenix and one each in Talent and Central Point, a county total of 36.

Seven cases of influenza, five in Medford and one each in Talent and Central Point, were also reported. There were two cases of German measles and three of mumps in Medford, two cases of scarlet fever in Central Point, and one case of pneumonia in Ashland.

The disease total was 51 cases.

Committee members are asking $5 from each family and $1,000 is sought. Residents of the area are to leave the money at Earl Yoakley's grocery store at the Four Corners. The women on the committee, Mrs. J. R. Schreengost, Mrs. Walter Sewell and Mrs. Dale Ackerman, reported good progress toward their fund goal.

The committeewomen said they had assurance from County Agent W. B. Tucker that no harm would result to livestock or pasture land from the spray.
