Smith, Bob Shephard, Charles Green, Conrad Mann and Forbes. All the young golfers except Woods are Medfordites. He is an Ashlander. Green and Bucey knotted over 18 holes for the sixth berth in the Tuesday tournament at Rogue Valley Country club and Green won out on an extra hole. Shephard was tourney medalist with a 74.—(Brainerd photo).

Softball League Commences Season Here Friday Evening

Little formally but a large amount of enthusiasm is anticipated Friday evening when two men's league games will usher in the 1952 league season of the Medford Softball association.

The tangles will be at the Medford senior high football stadium. Medford YMCA and Eagle Point draw the honor of participating in the "inaugural" contest. Time of the game will be 7:30 o'clock. The second contest, at approximately 9 o'clock, will match Mobilgas and Andy's Jewelers.

Actually one loop encounter has already been played with Camp White beating National Guard at Camp White last week. However, tomorrow's conflicts will mark the first official play on the senior high turf.

League officials have established low prices of admission to games throughout the season. They hope the prices will prove attractive to fans and encourage them to bring their families for an evening of entertainment.

Two tussles per night on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays until early August are planned. On a number of nights during the season girls' league teams will appear in the preliminary and men's loop nines in the finals.

Nine men's teams are entered in the 1952 race. In addition to the four playing this Friday and the two who played last week, there are Trowbridge and Flynn, Crater Lions and Central Point. While there have been a number of practice games, teams were just getting organized and it is too early to establish a favorite in the race.

High School Boys

The Eagle Point team Friday will field a crew of high school boys and older fellows. On the roster are Bob Kimmel, Don Cattanch, Darold Barritt, Frank Reich, Chuck Eccleston, Vern Bonebrake, Jim Clark, Jake Olson, Shy Callagahan, Tom Baker, Jerry Mosby and Sandy Clave. Bonebrake, Clark, Baker and Mosby are pitchers. The Lions club backs the Eagle Point team.

A possible YMCA line-up is Mintz, third base; Barnum, shortstop; James, second base; Duncan, first base; Brock, catcher; Dellenback, Heidem and Byers, outfielders, and Herb Vessey, pitcher.

Andy's Jewelers will present a spirited challenger with a club of lads who will be juniors at Medford high next year. A possible starting crew is Bob Steele, catcher; Duke Anderson, pitcher; Burton Williams, first base; Jerry Knapp, second base; Terry Sherwood, shortstop; Curt Holzgang, third base, and Larry Bucey, Joe Antony and Norm Chapman, outfielders.

Ex-Preppers

In contrast Mobilgas will have a team mostly made up of ex-high school athletes from Medford and Jacksonville. Bill Singler is probably opening pitcher with John Bariland catching. Probable infielders will be Don Wendt, first base; Bill Warner, second base; George Sandalbach, third base, and Connie Holzgang, shortstop. In the outfield may be Charles McBeath, Don Sanford and Don Wilkinson.

Ray Lewis will be official scorekeeper and Don Hamlin announcer for league games. The first girls' league fray is set for June 17.

Rookies Charge Up Red Sox For 3-2 Edge Over Browns

New York (U.P.)—Sammy White, Jimmy Piersall and Ted Lepcio, whose rah-rah spirit more than makes up for their raw-raw misadventures as rookies, have the Red Sox all charged up again and ready to make a new hot bid as flag contenders. Lou Boudreau's boy wonders, all the more formidable now that they have been fortified with stout veterans George Kell, Dizzy Trout, and Hoot Evers from the big trade with Detroit, were in a virtual first place tie with the Yankees.

Even on a won and lost basis, but 12 percentage points behind because they had played six more games, the Red Sox came through Wednesday night with an 11 to 9 ninth inning victory over the Browns when White's grand slam homer broke it up.

Key Parts

The three rookies and three ex-Tigers all had key parts in the victory. The Browns, leading 9 to 5, were ready to wrap up a second straight for new boss Marty Marion. He wasn't even around, having been dismissed in the eighth for a row with umpire Bill McGowan.

But Piersall started it out by bunting safely against old Satch Paige, then needed him unmercifully as he took daring leads off first. Evers followed with a single. A walk to Kell loaded the bases. Billy Goodman also walked, forcing home Piersall with the first run off Paige after 26 2/3 scoreless innings of relief ball in 11 games. Lepcio also beat out a hit to bring in the second run.

Third of Year

That left it up to rookie catcher White, who blasted the homer on a 3-2 pitch, his third of the year. Trout, gaining his third straight victory since coming from Detroit, had pitched scoreless ball in the top of the ninth to gain the decision. Homers by Cass Michaels and Dick Kryhoski and four hits, one a triple by Joe Demaestri, had kept St. Louis comfortably ahead until the ninth.

The Yankees topped Detroit, 7 to 2, as Joe Collins drove in

Hogan Eyes 4th Straight Open Title

Dallas, Tex. (U.P.)—It was Ben Hogan against the field and the weather Thursday as the little Texan with the precision swing went after his fourth straight U.S. Open golf championship.

No nian has ever won four straight.

The 162-player field was full of stars who conceivably could dethrone the little comeback king but the strongest challengers looked like former champion Lloyd Mangrum, perfectionist Bobby Locke, and Sam Snead, who's been so near, yet so far from other Open crowns.

Hot and Sultry

But, it may be the weather—hot and sultry, the kind which suck a man's strength out through the pores—which may prove more of a stumbling block to Hogan than his competitors. However, the game blacksmith's son, who is rapidly approaching his 40th birthday, gets a break in that he drew an early tee time and will finish before the 90-degree heat can take its toll.

But Friday Hogan doesn't start until more than an hour after mid-day, and the USGA schedule calls for a gruelling all-day 36-hole grind on Saturday for the 50 survivors of the opening two rounds.

Triple Winners

Only two other men have ever won this most prized honor of the golfing world three times, but neither of them—Bobby Jones or Willie Anderson—made it four straight as Bantam Ben could do.

Whether the weather was responsible or not, the little champ has done no better than a one-over-par 71 in two weeks of practice, while Snead has posted a bristling 64 and Mangrum a 68.

Stars Win; Seals Lose 9th in Row

San Francisco (U.P.)—They called him happy Tommy Heath when he was hired to manage the San Francisco Seals. And the round man's predecessor, Frank (Lefty) O'Doul, had described the spot as "the best job in baseball."

But Thursday, scarred by nearly 11 weeks of brutal reality, Heath is frustrated and fatigued from viewing the flaws in his cellar-bound San Franciscans.

The chubby skipper and 605 die-hard fans turned out at Seals stadium on a fair evening Wednesday night to watch Paul I. Fagan's hirelings lose their ninth straight game. Hollywood picked up the check, 5-1.

May Surpass Mark

Under the Fagan-O'Doul regime in 1951, the Seals opened their season ignominiously by dropping 13 in a row. Heath's crew, which Fagan blue-printed as the foundation of a third major league team, may surpass that mark this week.

League-leading San Diego stayed two games ahead of Hollywood, nipping Sacramento, 1-0 in an interesting pitching contest. Winner Ben Flowers allowed six hits; loser Jess Flores gave up three.

Shortstop Johnny Bero doubled home Sam Chapman with the deciding run in Oakland's 3-1, 12th-inning victory over Los Angeles. The contest between Seattle and Portland was postponed by wet grounds.

Seven-Hitter

Pinky Woods pitched a seven-hitter to nail the Seals. He gave up the run in the second inning and didn't get control until the fifth, when Ted Beard doubled home two runs and Jack Phillips singled in another pair.

The San Francisco kids have scored 10 runs in their last nine losing games. Flores, who has pitched some excellent baseball this season, lost to San Diego because he surrendered two doubles in the third inning. Lon Summers and Jackie Tobin nicked him for the two-baggers. Tobin also collected a single in the ninth.

Each pitcher fanned four. The Oaks win was their second straight in overtime for the Angels. Allen Gettel, a handsome righthander whom manager Mel Ott calls his best pitcher, gave up seven safeties and singled home one of the two tallies Oakland picked up in the 12th.

THE LINEUP: Oakland—001 040 000—5 11 3; San Francisco 010 000 000—1 7 0; Woods and Sandlock, Revena, Reeder (5), Clough (8) and Tenny, Tiersa (9).

(12 Innings)

Oakland—000 000 100 002—3 9 0; Los Angeles 000 100 000 000—1 7 0.

Jake Victor Over Murphy

Detroit (U.P.)—A furious finish in the last two rounds gave Jake LaMotta a new career Thursday.

The underdog and a losing fighter after eight rounds, LaMotta piled up just the points to win in his finishing flurry as he decided Irish Bob Murphy in a 10-round televised bout here Wednesday night. That meant that LaMotta can fight as a light-heavyweight, and so he has a new championship to chase.

Officials Unanimous

All three ring officials gave LaMotta an edge in the ninth and tenth rounds, which were decisive because judge Andy Brown and referee Lou Handler both scored the fight 51-49 in LaMotta's favor. Judge Johnny Weber gave the winner a much wider edge—55-45.

Murphy blamed his 10-round loss on a long layoff and asked for a re-match within 30 days.

Murphy, 175½, said he had pared his weight down from 214 pounds since February and he didn't have anything left in the closing rounds. LaMotta scaled 169½.

National College Cinder Scuffle Starts on Friday

Berkeley, Calif. (U.P.)—The all-important National Collegiate Track and Field meet gets under way here Friday with 11 men back to defend their crowns and at the same time hoping to qualify for the Olympic trials in Los Angeles June 27-28.

The forecast is for a bright sun and a fast track as the nation's outstanding college athletes gun for new records. The entry list reached 367 and a few more are expected before the preliminaries get under way. The finals will be held Saturday.

One final, the 10,000-meter run, will be staged as the final event on Friday's card. Fifteen men have been entered with Walter Deike of Wisconsin in the favorite's role.

Due to the fact that all of the races are being run on the metric measurement this year to get a line on Olympic chances, it is probable that as many as 10 records may be smashed. Very few, if any, national or world marks are expected to be threatened.

Gettel and Neal; Lade, Hamner (12) and Fedon.

San Diego—001 000 000—1 3 0; Sacramento—000 000 000—0 5 0; Flowers and Summers; Flores and Smith, McKeegan (8).

Rams, Cards Set Portland Tussle For August 30

Portland (U.P.)—The Los Angeles Rams and the Chicago Cardinals of the National Professional Football league have been signed to play an exhibition game here August 30, it was announced Thursday by Harry Glickman, president of Oregon Sports Attractions, local promotion group.

The game will be played in Multnomah Civic stadium. All seats are reserved.

The game will bring home three former University of Oregon players, all members of the Los Angeles team. They are Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin, Halfback Woodley Lewis and Lineman Dick Daugherty.

Women's Golf Activities

Following the regular class lessons for the girls of the Junior high and Senior high school groups at the Rogue Valley Country club on Monday, June 9, the first competitive contest, a putting contest was held.

First prize was won by Marty Meyers, second prize by Sylvia Teeter, and a three way tie between Jane Barker, Carol Lewis and Lee Stark, with Jane Barker winning in the play off. A committee from the women's organization was in charge. Committeewomen were Mrs. Wm. J. Miller, Mrs. L. Paul Walker and Mrs. Robert Shephard.

On June 16 following the group lessons there will be an approaching contest. Prizes for the month of June will be awarded to the girls at the July 7 luncheon meeting.

CREW GOES EAST

Seattle (U.P.)—Coach Al Urickson and his University of Washington varsity and junior varsity crews were en route to Syracuse, N.Y., Thursday where they will compete in the intercollegiate rowing association regatta June 21.
