In Nebraska—Mr. and Mrs. Don Nimrod, Ashland, are vacationing in Nebraska with relatives to Mrs. Nimrod. They left Sunday and plan to be gone about three weeks. She is a stenographer at the Medford United States National bank.

Released—Delbert McCaleb, 835 Niantic street, who was hospitalized yesterday at Community hospital for leg lacerations, was released today, attendants said today. Sandra Lee Elliott, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Elliott, 1608 Crown avenue, and Janet McCauley, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith McCauley, Eagle Point, underwent tonsillectomies today at the same hospital.

School Planning—The planning committee for the Fall Regional Conference of Teachers in Medford met last night in the office of the county school superintendent, Jackson and Josephine county administrators and teachers drafted plans in what was the final meeting before the opening of schools in September, according to School Superintendent Alf Mekvold.

Farmers Picnic—Annual election of officers will be held by Jackson County Farm Bureau members when they meet for a picnic with their families Sunday, June 15 at 1 p. m. in Tou-Velle park. Several farm bureau officials from out of town will attend, including the guest speaker from Siskiyou county, Calif., and a representative from the state office at Salem. Barbershop quartet singers will furnish entertainment and ice cream and soft drinks will be furnished by the bureau. Families should take enough picnic foods for their own families for the pot-luck picnic lunch.

To Japan, Korea—Lt. Cmdr. Arthur Schoeni, formerly of Medford, is enroute to Japan and Korea on an observation assignment by the Navy, according to word received from him Thursday by his aunt, Mrs. Lucy Lyman, 235 South Ivy street. Schoeni, former Medford newspaper man, was journalism teacher at Medford high school before accepting a position with the United Press before the war. During the war he joined the Navy in which he has risen to the rank of lieutenant commander. For some years he has been editor of the navy's publication, "Naval Aviation News," making his headquarters in Washington, D.C. According to his letter to Mrs. Lyman, Schoeni expects to be overseas about a month and on his return may visit here.

Car Damaged—Mrs. Edith L. Cummings, 2825 Cummings road, has reported that her car was struck in a hit and run accident while parked near the intersection of Riverside avenue and Jackson street yesterday afternoon, city police stated. Extent of the damage was not listed.

Bible School—The daily Bible school of the Phoenix Presbyterian church which has been in progress at the church for the past two weeks, will be brought to a close this evening at 8 p. m. Parents of the children who attended the school and any others in the community interested are invited. The program will include music and memory work learned by the children. The event will be held at the church.

Obituary

ERNEST THERIAULT
Ernest J. Theriault, 59, was found dead in his cabin room near the Snappy Service Richmond service station three miles north of Ashland this morning. He was found by a friend, Vance Jones. Conger-Morris funeral home is in charge of funeral arrangements.

GARY LARSON
Services for Gary Larson, 8, of 1011 West 11th street, Medford, who was drowned Sunday, June 1, will be held in Zion Lutheran church Monday at 1:30 p. m. with the Rev. J. H. Hillerman officiating. Committal will be in Siskiyou Memorial park. Conger-Morris funeral home is in charge of funeral arrangements.

The boy was born in Minneapolis, Nov. 22, 1943, and had lived in Medford since 1946. He was in the second grade at Washington school, where he was captain of his room, and leader of the Lord's Prayer. He was a member of the Zion Lutheran church.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Einar Larson; and three brothers, Wallace, Odell and Rex.
ELSIE RAWSTERN
Services for Elsie Freda Rawstern, 23, who died Wednesday, will be held in Conger-Morris Chapel Saturday at 11 a. m. with the Rev. Meredith Groves officiating. Committal will be in Siskiyou Memorial park.
Mrs. Rawstern was born June 20, 1918, in Mellette, S. D., and resided on the Table Rock road. She is survived by her husband, Clair; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Kingsley; and four children, Freda May, Rosemary, Daniel, and Gerald; and a brother, Harold Kingsley, North Bend.
