Pickin' Pears News, Gossip, Comment From Camp White

By SID HOLLINGSWORTH

Postmaster Arthur Scarseth supplies something of the friendly approach and line of conversation identified with village storekeepers. In fact he and Mrs. Scarseth, who helps him out occasionally, kept such a store away up in the northeast corner of Montana in the town of Four Buttes. They also ran the post office there for 19 years.

The result is obvious. Uncle Sam gains with not only the expected efficiency in moving the mail but a brand of salesmanship that boosts the postal business in a unique manner. Veterans write letters and mail them just to pay a visit to the post office and engage in repartee with Mr. Scarseth.

He was acting PM for quite a while, the appointment being made official Feb. 11, 1952. He and Mrs. Scarseth live at the station. Contact with Medford is made through scheduled mail truck service provided by the VA, but if the mail is important after hours, they drive to town to make the delivery themselves. He never fails to put in a good word for air mail.

Camp White became a post-office July 1, 1949. Before that, mail was delivered and handled

Foresters To Hold Anniversary Party Saturday Evening

Rogue River Valley court, Independent Order of Foresters, has made plans for a first anniversary party to be held Saturday, June 14, in the Pythian building, Fifth and Grape street. A business meeting at 8 p. m. will be followed by a social evening.

Knute Swanson and Wendell Mattison are co-chairmen of the entertainment committee. They state that both modern and square dancing are planned, as well as movies for the children. Refreshments will be served.

S. J. Rice, Jr., is head of the IOF court here.

Social Club Member Honored With Shower

Eagle Point—During the last monthly meeting of the Eagle Point Heights Social club, held at the home of Mrs. Mark Hoefft, Mrs. Bud Arnes was honored at a shower.

Special guests included Mrs. C. J. Haas, Medford, aunt of the honored guest, Mrs. C. Arnes, Eagle Point mother-in-law of the guest of honor, and Mrs. M. Miller, Eagle Point.

Following a business meeting through Medford, and much mail intended for the Camp White Domiciliary is still addressed "Medford, Ore." Scarseth says, although the volume is diminishing as Camp White becomes better known as an established post-office.

Oak Grove Troop 44 of the Girl Scouts was escorted through the Arts and Crafts and Hobby shop Monday afternoon and the six girls, half the number in the troop, showed keen interest in the leather, wood, basket and gem work being done. Mrs. Vander Steen, troop leader, brought the girls, who presented lap robes made in their work project.

The scouts in the party included Randi Peterson, Judith Brill, Lynda Knips, Peggy Wilkes, Joann Davenport, and Carolyn Vander Steen.

DAV Chapter 32 held an Eve Prentice night in the theater this week in appreciation of her accordion concerts and individual instruction. Camp White veterans are strong for the music of the concertina.

Judy Ann Frost had her fifth birthday party this week and invited all the children living at the Domiciliary. Twenty-two attended and it was a surprise to both Mr. and Mrs. Dick Frost, her parents, that there were so many living here.

The annual summer tours to points of interest throughout the Rogue River valley, conducted by the American Red Cross, started this week with a jaunt to Ashland and back before noon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ashworth, of Portland, department commander of the VFW and department president of the auxiliary, respectively, will be at Camp White for an all day visit

Monday, June 16, according to plans announced today. They will be welcomed by VA officials and officers and members of the local post. A tour of the domiciliary and attendance at the VFW formal dance Monday night are on their schedule of activities.

A new arrangement is being worked out by Chief of Special Services Marvin R. Kahn, covering the VA's setup. Ty Teorey, present head of arts and crafts, will also function as acting director of volunteers. Ty's headquarters are established directly across from the recreation office.

He will work closely with Kahn and also with the recreation. To make room for Teorey to operate, the chief of special services has moved to the administration building.
