Junior Legion Nine Plays Klamath Falls Here Sunday

Medford's untried American Legion junior baseball team is slated to see its first action on Sunday.

The Medford nine, sponsored by Crater Lake Motors, will

FEED STORE GOSSIP

By Paul E. Wilson

FAMOUS FLYING FARMERS
Henry Bomhoff, Oklahoma's Flying Farmer, learned to fly while flying. Taxing his mail order ship to try it out, he found himself off the ground and gaining altitude. He landed safely, took off again, and taught himself to fly.

ATTENTION FOLKS, DOWN ASHLAND WAY

You can now get your Albers feeds locally at Ted's Feed and Seed Store, 353 E. Main, Ashland, John Wilkinson is the proprietor and he will help you select the Albers feed that you need. John not only handles feed but he just has his store full of things that you folks can use, so drop in today and his store.

ANOTHER SATISFIED ALBERS CUSTOMER

Is Les Gilman, owner of the Gilman's Cream-Rich Dairy Products, Medford, Les is a staunch feeder of Milk Flo Paketts for his dairy string and he gets the results. Les also starts his calves on Calf Manna and follows with Albers Crowd when his calves and feeders are beautiful and they develop into real cows. Of course the feed doesn't have all to do with it, as Les has good stock and his careful management shows up in his whole herd. Les has the agency for the Miller-Mill for baled hay chopping, so if any of your ranches are in the market for a chopper, it would be a good idea to see Les before you buy. Don't forget folks that Les distributes mighty good milk, too.

"JANEY"

One of Paul Stevenson's cows was one of the top winners for the month of May, in the county. She produced 1,457 lbs. of milk and 99.1 lbs of butterfat. Congratulations Paul on a mighty fine job. Of course I have to mention that Paul is also one of our Milk Flo Paketts feeders.

SELFADE

Is the Albers feed to use if you are having trouble with coccidiosis in your flock. It is highly palatable, is fortified with vitamin B12 and the most effective known antibiotic feed supplement and with a proved sulfa drug. Don't fail to feed Selfade if you are having trouble. It not only cures but prevents some of the diseases.

Studs Travel To Bandon This Week

The Medford Cheney Studs fifth place team in the Southwestern Oregon Baseball league, will play Bandon, fourth place team, in a two-game series this week-end. The hassles Saturday and Sunday will be at Bandon.

Success of the Medford club will depend considerably on how effectively the Millers have strengthened their pitching. Lack of hurling power was a big reason why the Bandon crew dropped from second to fourth by losing two games last week-end to Coquille.

Bandon reportedly has secured the services of Dr. Frank Dierrick, stand-out semi-pro chucker from Oregon City. Medford will rely on Paul Gehrman and Derald Wooton.

The Studs, by winning twice, could rise into third spot this week-end, depending on fortunes of other league members. Brookings will play at Drain and Roseburg at Coos Bay-North Bend while Coquille gets a bye. Roseburg, Coos Bay and Drain are now tied for the league leadership.

For Medford to rise as high as third position, either Roseburg or its bay area rival will have to pull a clean sweep. Drain is a big favorite over winless cellarite Brookings. But the Studs will have to help themselves as well as hope for help elsewhere.

Roseburg reportedly is bolstering its pitching staff. There Manager Earl Sargent has acquired Hal Saltzman of Portland Beaver fame and just out of the military service and Stan Aune, University of Oregon pitcher.

Saltzman earlier was reported signed by Coos Bay. He was released because of the large size of the mound staff of the coast team. The tosser recently was quoted as saying he did not plan to play for a while but apparently was referring to the professional variety. He will make his debut with the Chiefs on June 28 and 29.

The Medford Studs will play their next game in Medford on Wednesday, June 18, against Dunsuir, Calif. They will face Weed here on the following Friday. Two games with barnstorming teams were arranged for the Studs this week. They oppose the House of David on July 14 and the Havana Cabanas on July 18. The Cheney crew battles the Harlem Globetrotters on August 5.

Rogue Valley Tilts Sunday

Cave Junction is heavily favored to maintain its Rogue Valley league baseball leadership Sunday.

The Illinois valley nine will be host to Prospect, tail-ender in the loop. Prospect has not won a loop fray in five starts.

Grants Pass may be in for a toughie in the circuit this week. The Merchants are hosts to Butte Falls on Sunday. Last week-end Butte Falls lost to the undefeated Glendale in their place. Glendale this week will battle Ashland at Ashland. Central Point gets a bye.

Seattle Golfer Meet Favorite

Columbus, Ohio —(U.P.)—Pat Lesser, Seattle University freshman who drives more than 200 yards into the wind, was the experts' choice as the Women's Intercollegiate golf tournament entered the semi-finals Friday.

The 18-year-old sharpshooter medalist is now eight strokes under par for the 46 holes she has played over Ohio State University's tough Scarlet course.

Miss Lesser met Beverly Gammion of Minnesota Friday, while Ohio State's Polly Martin played Mary Ann Villegas of St. Mary's Dominican of New Orleans. The two winners battle it out for the championship Saturday.

Portlanders Stop Studs Win Streak

San Francisco —(U.P.)—Slightly arrears with spring cleaning chores, the Pacific Coast league's high-priced lackeys appeared ready Friday to rearrange their furnishings.

The attic and the basement were pin-pointed as targets of attack.

San Diego, kept atop the PCL by Frank O'Doul, may be shunted to another room, in favor of the rising stars from Hollywood, bossed by Fred Haney. And, at the extreme end of the social ladder, San Francisco seems ripe to nestle into the familiar cellar, replacing Sacramento.

The Seals, who wear an eighth-place trademark from the 1951 season, lost their 10th straight Thursday night to Hollywood, 2-1. And San Diego dropped a 6-5 decision to Sacramento in 15 long innings.

Portland, backed by Joe Brovia's homer and Fred Sanford's six-hitter, snapped Seattle's win streak at 11, 2-1, and Los Angeles trimmed Oakland, 5-0, on six-hit pitching by Walt Dubiel and a two-tally homer by Leon Brinkopf. The loss was Oakland's first in eight games.

The Hollywood win and San Diego loss combined to trim the PCL's lead to one game and to leave seventh-place San Francisco just one contest out of the basement.

Swede Halbrook To Attend OSC

Portland —(U.P.)—Swede (Swede) Halbrook, the seven-foot-tall pride of the Lincoln high school basketball team in Portland, said Friday he will attend Oregon State college next fall.

Halbrook has been an all-state star twice and holds many high school scoring records. He said his decision to attend the Corvallis school was based on his admiration for Slat's Gill, OSC coach.

"I like Oregon State and Corvallis and I very much want to play basketball for Slat's Gill," the towering athlete said.

The Lincoln center last season piled up 1035 points in leading his school to the state basketball championship and had been sought after by schools all over the nation. His mother said "it was Wade's own idea to attend an Oregon school."

Brosch Takes Lead in U.S. Golf Open

Dallas, Tex. —(U.P.)—Al Brosch, freckles gleaming in the glare of a bright Texas sun, set out to whip a golfing jinx Friday — of all days — Friday the 13th.

When the last salvos of the opening round of the 52nd U. S. Open golf championship were fired amid the twilight shadows Thursday, the man in front of the field was Brosch—a 40-year-old veteran pro from Garden City, N. Y.

The bespectacled one-time Long Island caddy whipped the choice field by a stroke, beat par by two strokes and had been par on the only man in the 182-player field to birdie difficult Northwood Club's most stubborn hole—"Pecan Narrows," the 448-yard, par 4 sixth.

His 35-33—88 round placed him a stroke in front of defending champion Ben Hogan and two strokes ahead of another veteran threesome composed of Dick Metz, Maple City, Kan.; Sam Snead, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.; and Horton Smith, Detroit.

Brosch seems a cinch to be among the low 50 and ties who will survive after Friday's 18-hole round for the big 36-hole stretch drive Saturday. Opening round scores indicate a 149 or 150 will make that grade.

Brosch, Hogan, Metz, Smith and Snead were the only ones able to crack or match Northwood's par 35-35—70.

Baby bluefin tuna have been discovered drifting in the Gulf Stream off Miami, the first time they have ever been found in the western Atlantic.

Fishing Said Fair

Portland —(U.P.)—Fair catches of trout are being made in Cascade and central coastal lakes but elsewhere fishing is spotty within a poor-to-fair range, the Oregon State Fish commission said Friday in its weekly fishing bulletin.

Recent rains raised many streams, making them muddy and reducing possibilities for anglers. The area-by-area fishing report included:

Southwest — Central coast lakes fair for trout on May flies; central coast streams low and some good catches being made; southern coast streams and lakes poor; lower Rogue poor for salmon and fair for trout; North Umpqua good for trout; South Umpqua good above Milo.

What's your best whiskey buy?

1. Have 1/4 oz. of Calvert put in one glass and the same amount of any other whiskey in another — without knowing which is which.
2. Sniff one brand for aroma. Taste it critically for smoothness. Swallow carefully to judge its freedom from bite, burn or sting.
3. Taste the other whiskey in the same analytical way — then pick the one that really tastes better to you.
